What Is a Disciple and How Do You Make One? Mark Swiger,2015-09 In many ways the church has become more adept at adding members than preparing true Christian disciples Author and evangelist Mark Swiger believes that bringing souls to Christ and then nurturing them to Christ like maturity requires an approach that is different from the methods often employed today Many congregations do not have a clear plan in place for seeing every believer grow to fruitfulness and spiritual maturity Adding to this problem sometimes pastors struggle with knowing how to equip others for the work of the ministry Swiger has developed a Spirit led manual for disciples and those who lead them Part I of his book is for everyone since every believer is first and foremost a disciple of Jesus Part II speaks to the particular needs of pastors and leaders who are charged with discipling others This interactive biblically based handbook is designed to help the church rediscover the eternal disciple making truths and examples found in the Scriptures God s Word still has the power to transform ordinary believers into disciples who can turn the world upside down International Encyclopedia of Education ,2009-04-17 The field of education has experienced extraordinary technological societal and institutional change in recent years making it one of the most fascinating yet complex fields of study in social science Unequaled in its combination of authoritative scholarship and comprehensive coverage International Encyclopedia of Education Third Edition succeeds two highly successful previous editions 1985 1994 in aiming to encapsulate research in this vibrant field for the twenty first century reader Under development for five years this work encompasses over 1 000 articles across 24 individual areas of coverage and is expected to become the dominant resource in the field Education is a multidisciplinary and international field drawing on a wide range of social sciences and humanities disciplines and this new edition comprehensively matches this diversity The diverse background and multidisciplinary subject coverage of the Editorial Board ensure a balanced and objective academic framework with 1 500 contributors representing over 100 countries capturing a complete portrait of this evolving field A totally new work revamped with a wholly new editorial board structure and brand new list of meta sections and articles Developed by an international panel of editors and authors drawn from senior academia Web enhanced with supplementary multimedia audio and video files hotlinked to relevant references and sources for further study Incorporates ca 1 350 articles with timely coverage of such topics as technology and learning demography and social change globalization and adult learning to name a few Offers two content delivery options print and online the latter of which provides anytime anywhere access for multiple users and superior search functionality via ScienceDirect as well as multimedia content including audio and video files

Community Building Leonard Jason, 1997-07-23 This work is a description of vulnerabilities that help account for many of the serious problems facing contemporary society in industrialized countries including high rates of crime homelessness alcohol tobacco and other drug addictions and a breakdown of the psychological sense of community Historical philosophical and epistemological issues are also explored in this book as a foundation for understanding what appears to have gone wrong Several solutions are suggested borrowing heavily from the fields of education religion and mythology Several wisdom traditions are presented as illustrations of alternative conceptualizations for defining mental health along with discussion of the implications of borrowing from these models to set new directions for the helping fields The final chapters provide examples from communities of healing to successful community based interventions of how these elements promote human well being and social improvement today

Social and Emotional Aspects of Learning Sanna Jarvela, 2011-01-07 Social and emotional aspects of schooling and the learning environment can dramatically affect one's attention understanding and memory for learning This topic has been of increasing interest in both psychology and education leading to an entire section being devoted to it in the third edition of the International Encyclopedia of Education Thirty three articles from the Encyclopedia form this concise reference which focuses on such topics as social and emotional development anxiety in schools effects of mood on motivation peer learning and friendship and social networks Saves researchers time in summarizing in one place what is otherwise an interdisciplinary field in cognitive psychology personality sociology and education Level of presentation focuses on critical research leaving out the extraneous and focusing on need to know information Contains contributions from top international researchers in the field Makes MRW content affordable to individual researchers Introspections - What the Hell Is Going On?! Gabriel Spataru, 2020-04-25 A simple and honest analysis of some of the factors that influence most young adults in today's society Just taking a sneak peek into your own past you will be able to see and understand the factors that influence you in your everyday life and how to have the power to change them You don't need to have some sort of special power or training you don't need a PhD you just have to be honest with you Written over the course of a few months during long nights it is a light read that hopefully will manage to put a smile on your face but from time to time pause and ask yourself a few honest questions Written in plain language it doesn't waste time bumbling about and gets straight to the point with a few easy to understand examples and scenarios
