Large,2018-12-20 Published in 1992 like the first this second edition is not intended as introductory textbook command driven Boolean searching It is targeted at online searchers who already have some knowledge of command languages and may be proficient searchers on databases in one or two subject areas but when required to venture into new and less familiar territory still need guidance. It is also offered to end users who possess the subject expertise but lack of information retrieval know how. The Manual is offered as a guide to database selection and a navigational aid through the twists and turns of the retrieval maze at least some of the dead ends and backtracking may thereby be avoided. This volume written by experts in their various fields deals with the subject coverage and record structures of specific databases, offers comparisons between databases, context indexing procedures, updating policies etc. discusses the choice between online and CD ROM sources and between hosts if online is selected and illustrates strategies with numerous search extracts.

Look Before You Leap, but Leap! Andrew Schulhof, Before you go rushing headlong into investing in real estate it pays to find out what type of real estate investments suit your personality, lifestyle and financial goals. How would you know what kind of properties to invest in if you don't know what your investment style is? Start with the basics and then look for opportunities that fit your personal style and goals. Only then can you have a successful and profitable real estate investing career. I'll help you discover your investing style, skip the money traps that you might not know about and offer you a hand up so that you can avoid the mistakes of other investors who don't have this insider knowledge. Read this book then you'll know what to look for before you leap into real estate investing and you'll build a profitable portfolio. When I push return it sends so I used spaces to divide the paragraphs.
