Succession To High Office On Botswana Three Case Studies:

Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history. Unprecedented in scale, DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa, from Sierra Leone to Somalia. It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490-1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243-183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909-1972, Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918.

The Societies of Southern Africa in the 19th and 20th Centuries University of London. Institute of Commonwealth Studies, 1990. Peasants in Arms Lynn Horton, 1998. Drawing on the testimonies of local people from contra collaborators and ex-combatants to pro-Sandinista peasants, this dynamic account of a generation of rural instability explores the growing divisions between the peasants who took up arms in defense of revolutionary programs and ideals such as land reform and equality and those who opposed the Sandinistas.

Echoes of the Sunbird Donald Burness, 1993. This volume presents a broad overview of the work of seven of Africa's leading poets with an introductory essay written by each poet. The poems concern political, personal, and social themes and are written with aesthetic simplicity and lyricism.

Africa Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow Nathan Andrews, 2013-02-14. From a multi-dimensional and interdisciplinary standpoint, this book challenges the teleological and unidirectional notions of development embodied in the idea of modernisation or progress and offers a critique of the tendency to consider Africa as a basket case which often gives the Western self an undeserving privilege and superiority over the African other. Mostly authored by emerging African scholars, this 16-chapter volume addresses the historical application of development projects in Africa and their modern impact in economic, political, cultural, social, and infrastructural contexts among others. The book therefore unearths development dynamics in specific African countries, examines the continent's external relations, rethinks predominant ideas on development, and engages in critical examination of concepts and practices that have maintained hegemonic positions in the discussions on Africa's development. Its uniqueness lies in the ability to bring these several voices and themes together into a concise conception of both the challenges and possibilities of Africa's sustainable development. The book targets both the academic and policy worlds in Africa and around the world as well as ordinary members of the public who seek to broaden their theoretical and empirical understanding on the changing dynamics on the African continent.

Imagining Indonesia James William Schiller, 1997. Increased interest in Indonesian culture and politics is reflected in this work's effort to advance and reject various notions of what it means to be Indonesian. It also addresses perceptions of how Indonesia's citizens and state officials should interact. Because in recent times the Indonesian state has been so strong, much of the book is about state-sanctioned and state-supported notions of Indonesian identity and culture and efforts to come to terms with or sometimes to challenge these official or dominant notions. The contributions presented here represent a wide range of disciplines, points of view, and ideological orientations. Taken together, they convey the notion that much might be gained if the idea were abandoned that a single understanding of what constitutes Indonesian culture is possible or desirable.

Mariátegui and Latin American Marxist Theory Marc Becker, 1993 Jos Carlos Mari tegui the Peruvian political theorist of the 1920s was instrumental in developing an indigenous Latin American revolutionary Marxist theory He rejected a rigid orthodox interpretation of Marxism and applied his own creative elements which he believed could move a society to revolutionary action without the society having to depend upon more traditional economic factors His interpretation of Peruvian history had a profound effect upon subsequent social movements throughout Latin America This volume reviews the essential elements of Mari tegui s thought and important influences on his intellectual development It demonstrates the role he played in defining a Latin american identity the nature of his intellectual contribution to the development of indigenous revolutionary movements in Latin America and the influence he had on successful revolutionary movements in Cuba and Nicaragua An understanding of Mari tegui s thought is fundamental to understanding the nature of revolutionary changes in Latin America

Memoirs of an Indo Woman Marguérite Schenkhuizen, 1994 The memoirs of Margu rite Schenkhuizen provide an overview of practically the whole of the twentieth century as experienced by persons of mixed Dutch and Indonesian ancestry who lived in the former Dutch East Indies The memoirs provide vignettes of Indonesian life both rural and urban as seen through the eyes of the author first as a girl then as a wife separated from her husband during the Japanese occupation finally as an immigrant to the United States after World War II This self portrait gives glimpses of the life of Indos from inside their society glimpses that are valuable for their descendents as well as for outsiders Written with humor and a positive town Schenkhuizen s story sets aside the myth that Indos were denied access to the upper layers of Dutch colonial society or were otherwise disadvantaged Instead her life story provides an authentic view of a vital Indo culture and experience that has been unavailable to the general reader of English
