The Novels and Tales of the Right Hon. B. Disraeli, M.P. Benjamin Disraeli, 1869      Front Porch Sketches Brenda Bond, 2012-08-02 Back when Brenda Bond was growing up in the 1950s life was as simple as Kool Aid In Front Porch Sketches she reminisces about what life was like in Cyrus Creek a small rural community near Barboursville West Virginia In this memoir Bond shares stories from her idyllic childhood about the close knit community her loving family the joy of country living the value of church and the experiences of attending a small school She tells of the magical summer evenings on her grandparents front porch where the family gathered to laugh and visit and of the grandfather who knew a real witch who put curses on things she couldn't have Front Porch Sketches paints a portrait of a simple life in simpler times It shows that the most important things in life honesty hard work and common sense cannot be purchased but can be passed through families along with their traditions and their values      Tenting on the Plains Elizabeth Bacon Custer, 1889 From the time of her husband's death at the Battle of the Little Big Horn until her own death fifty seven years later at the age of ninety Mrs George Armstrong Custer devoted herself to defending or embellishing her husband's reputation This account the second in Elizabeth's trilogy of her life with the General focuses on the period immediately following the Civil War when the Custers were stationed in Louisiana Texas and Kansas She portrays the aftermath of the Civil War in Texas and life in Kansas while her husband took part in General Winfield Hancock's 1867 expedition against the Indians between the Arkansas and Platte rivers Throughout she provides detailed descriptions of an army officer's home life on the frontier during this major period of Indian unrest      Squirrels at My Window Grace Marmor Spruch, 2000 Even for a woman as sensitive to wild animals as Grace Spruch the arrival of a squirrel inside her Greenwich Village apartment one morning came as something of a surprise She had always loved the squirrels she saw in Washington Square Park but she never met one so forward as the one climbing up her rubber plant Dr Spruch didn't know it then but this was the beginning of a strange and wonderful relationship. Gradually other squirrels began to climb the fire escape to the Spruchs fifth story window. All were welcomed with certain restrictions of course. There were regular office hours and the squirrels soon learned not to scratch at the window until given the signal stirring within the apartment. Some were bold about walking right into the house examining the Spruchs possessions and burying their nuts under pillows. One categorically refused to leave at closing time even when rudely chased. Others more retiring were content to munch nuts and fruits on the windowsill. Since Spruch is a scientist as well as an animal lover her observations gain a special force and precision and she manages to achieve the best kind of popular science writing: scientifically sound, carefully observed, intellectually challenging. Despite our familiarity with squirrels as part of the urban landscape surprisingly little is known about the habits of these creatures and Spruch is able to make some interesting contributions to this subject. But most of all this is a book for animal lovers: a loving yet unsentimental account of a fascinating episode in the natural history of a large city.

Animal-Assisted Therapy in Counseling Cynthia K. Chandler, 2017-02-17 The third edition of Animal Assisted Therapy in Counseling is the most comprehensive book available dedicated to training mental health practitioners in the performance of animal assisted therapy in counseling. AAT C New to this edition is discussion of the human animal relational theory, a new theory dedicated to the practice of AAT C. This edition also has added applications for supervision and includes the most recent research and practice. Consistent with previous editions a variety of animal assisted interventions are described with case examples provided in a variety of settings with different types of animals. This unique resource is an indispensable guide for any counselor or psychotherapist looking to develop and implement AAT techniques in practice.

In The House of the Dead or Prison Life in Siberia Fyodor Dostoyevsky presents a harrowing account of his experiences in a Siberian labor camp, blending autobiographical elements with a rich narrative style that interweaves philosophical musings and social critique. This seminal work, written during the author's exile from 1849 to 1854, delves into the psychological and moral dimensions of life within the penal system, revealing the human capacity for resilience, despair, and redemption amidst suffering. Dostoyevsky's distinctive prose, marked by vivid imagery and deep emotional resonance, serves to illuminate the complexities of the human condition against the stark backdrop of societal injustice. Dostoyevsky, a figurehead of Russian literature, was deeply influenced by his own experiences with the law as well as his philosophical inquiries into the nature of morality, freedom, and the human soul. His imprisonment and subsequent exile shaped his worldview, instilling a profound awareness of the plight of the marginalized and the existential struggles of humanity. These themes resonate throughout his oeuvre, making The House of the Dead a crucial precursor to his later masterpieces. This book is an essential read for anyone
