Children Mourning, Mourning Children Kenneth J. Doka, 2014-01-21 Based on the

Hospice Foundation of America's second annual teleconference this book explores three basic themes in children's grief Firstly it maintains that children are always developing therefore their understanding of death and their reactions to illness and loss are also multifaceted and constantly undergoing change Secondly children grieve in ways that are both different from and similar to adults While they may need different therapeutic approaches from their elders each loss is different and the grief experience will be affected by many of the same factors that affect adults Thirdly it holds that they need significant support as they grieve Talking to children about loss and and illness is too important to wait until a crisis rather it is essential to provide opportunities to discuss loss in times that are not so Emotionally Laden This Book Aims To Demonstrate That Open Communication between parents and children will lead to skills and understanding that are essential to the child for coping with loss and reaffirming that death is part of the process of living Female Experience Joan Raphael-Leff, Rosine Jozef Perelberg, 1997 Female Experience brings together contributions from three generations of female psychoanalysts writing about their own experiences of working with female patients and questioning the specific determinants of female sexuality and gender identity which have become central in psychoanalytic debate The authors represent a cross section of different theoretical orientations Kleinian Freudian and Independent and also draw on varied professional backgrounds Beginning with Freud psychoanalysts have questioned the constraints of gender as manifested with transference and countertransference within the therapeutic process However explorations have focused on cross gender alliances The contributors to this book present detailed material pertaining exclusively to the analytic relation between women The insight this book gives into female analyst s special way of listening to and understanding women s preoccupations serves to illustrate why British analysts have made such a huge contribution to the psychoanalytic gender debate in recent years The editors are both full members of the British Psycho Analytical Society and the International Psychoanalytical Association

Handbook of Parenting: Being and becoming a parent Marc H. Bornstein, 2002 Despite the fact that most people become parents and everyone who has ever lived has had parents parenting remains a mystifying subject about which almost everyone has opinions but about which few people agree Striking permutations on the theme of parenting are emerging single parenthood blended families lesbian and gay parents and teen versus fifties first time moms and dads Divided into four volumes the Handbook of Parenting is concerned with different types of parents basic characteristics of parenting forces that shape parenting problems faced by parents and the practical sides of parenting Contributors have worked in different ways toward understanding all of these diverse aspects of parenting and look to the most recent research and thinking in the field to shed light on many topics every parent has wondered about Because development is too subtle dynamic and intricate to admit that parental caregiving alone determines the course and outcome of ontogeny Personal Care in an Impersonal World John Morgan, 2020-11-25 The purpose of this volume is to ask and propose a positive answer to the question Can we attend to the personhood of individuals within systems and cultures which are mass oriented One of the most interesting changes in contemporary thinking has been the emphasis on the unique person While the distinction between a person a unique rational being and individual one of several similar things has long existed it is in the twentieth century that we seem to have become fully conscious of this distinction There is good reason for such as emphasis today Repeatedly in this century the case of the person was deemed less important than some policy Innocent persons slaughtered in the name of some ism political bombings and kidnappings and mass unemployment to name but a few The cause of our dehumanization seems to be the reduction of the individual person to a part of the political economic or religious system Reports on the Research Planning Workshops on the Sudden Infant Death Syndrome ,1975 Vida después de la pérdida Raymond Moody, Dianne Arcangel, 2022-05-17 El doctor Moody autor del xito internacional Vida despu s de la vida y un experto mundial en el estudio de las ECM experiencias cercanas a la muerte nos muestra junto a su colega Dianne Arcangel el modo en que el proceso de aflicci n por la prdida de seres queridos puede convertir nuestro temor y dolor en una experiencia espiritual Bas ndose en sus propias historias personales y en las de cientos de pacientes los autores nos ayudan a
