Sue Williamson:

Sue Williamson Mark Gevisser, 2015 Since South Africa's transition to democracy in 1994 Sue Williamson has continued to address social issues such as the AIDS epidemic through installations and artworks that combine photographic image, video and text. Her oeuvre reveals a deep appreciation of narrative but also a commitment to research and reporting; she makes her artworks by telling history in the personal register through the eyes and words of those most deeply involved. Sue Williamson's work is represented in many public collections including the Tate Modern and the Victoria and Albert Museum, the MoMA, the National Museum of African Art, Smithsonian Institution, just to name a few. Her recent awards include a Visual Art Research fellowship from the Smithsonian Institution and a Creative Arts Fellowship at Bellagio, Italy, from the Rockefeller Foundation.

Sue Williamson, Sue Williamson Rory Bester, 2005 Breaking the Silence Ellen Grünkemeier, 2013 South Africa is one of the countries in the world most affected by HIV/AIDS and yet until recently the epidemic was barely visible in South African literature. Much can be gained from approaching the South African epidemic through creative texts such as novels, photographs, films, cartoons and murals because they produce and circulate meanings of HIV/AIDS and its various facets such as its origin, transmission routes and physical manifestations. Other aspects explored are the denial of HIV/AIDS, its stigmatisation, discriminatory practices, modes of disclosure, access to anti-retroviral medication as well as the role of alternative treatment. Creative texts which are open to different and possibly contradictory readings can serve as a starting point to increase the cultural visibility of the virus and to challenge dominant ideas about the epidemic. The cultural constructions of HIV/AIDS should be carefully examined because the meanings are pervasive and have very real consequences; they play a powerful role both in determining which issues receive attention and in shaping public understanding of the virus.

She Who Imagines Laurie Cassidy, Maureen H. O'Connell, 2012-11-01 The idea and ideal of beauty has been used to oppress women of different ages, body types, skin color and physical ability. The theoretical discussion of aesthetics has also been conditioned by these same dynamics of power and oppression. In She Who Imagines a diverse set of scholars challenges the exclusion and false definitions while constructing capacious ideas that discover beauty in unexpected places. In these essays the authors draw on a variety of arts media: painting, photography, portraiture, craftwork, poetry and hip hop music, thereby joining beauty to truth and in a richly defining way to the practice of justice. In a variety of ways all the essays link women's definitions of beauty with experiences of suffering and hence with the yearning for justice. All clearly prize resistance to degradation as an essential element of thought.

The Cultures of Entanglement Suzanne Anker, Sabine Flach, 2024-03-04 The symbolic meaning of plants, their relevance to religion and the metaphorical provocations in the order of knowledge, culture and political power underline the role of plants as something more than passive objects. Current theoretical and artistic discourses have been seeking access to the world independently of man by focusing on the nonhuman other The contributors to this volume examine the historical philosophical and scientific findings that generate this idea In what way are such perspectives manifest in contemporary art Do artists develop a particular approach that enables nonhuman life forms like plants insects or animals to have an impact Biko's Ghost Shannen L. Hill,2015-05-21 When you say Black is Beautiful what in fact you are saying is Man you are okay as you are begin to look upon yourself as a human being With such statements Stephen Biko became the voice of Black Consciousness And with Biko s brutal death in the custody of the South African police he became a martyr an enduring symbol of the horrors of apartheid Through the lens of visual culture Biko s Ghost reveals how the man and the ideology he promoted have profoundly influenced liberation politics and race discourse in South Africa and around the globe ever since Tracing the linked histories of Black Consciousness and its most famous proponent Biko s Ghost explores the concepts of unity ancestry and action that lie at the heart of the ideology and the man It challenges the dominant historical view of Black Consciousness as ineffectual or racially exclusive suppressed on the one side by the apartheid regime and on the other by the African National Congress Engaging theories of trauma and representation and icon and ideology Shannen L Hill considers the martyred Biko as an embattled icon his image portrayals assuming different shapes and political meanings in different hands So too does she illuminate how Black Consciousness worked behind the scenes throughout the 1980s a decade of heightened popular unrest and state censorship She shows how in streams of imagery that continue to multiply nearly forty years on Biko s visage and the ongoing life of Black Consciousness served as instruments through which artists could combat the abuses of apartheid and unsettle the rainbow nation that followed The Justice of Visual Art Eliza Garnsey,2020 Drawing on novel case studies this book provides the first substantive theoretical framework for understanding transitional justice and visual art

Research Paradigm Considerations for Emerging Scholars Anja Pabel,Josephine Pryce,Allison Anderson,2021-05-12 This book provides insights into the lived experiences of researchers as they negotiate the undulating terrain of the world of paradigms and seek to find their niche Each chapter presents the journeys of postgraduate candidates early career researchers and established scholars starting with an overview of their paradigm the application of the paradigm to their specific research context and concluding with the authors reflecting on their identification with and use of the paradigm The volume acknowledges that determining the paradigm that best aligns with a scholar s personal ideologies and the underlying assumptions of the research can be rather daunting challenging and perplexing to scholars who are starting their research journey It offers an accessible exploration of research paradigms and will be a valuable resource for postgraduate researchers emerging scholars and PhD supervisors Fragments of the City Colin McFarlane,2021-10-05 Cities are becoming increasingly fragmented materially socially and spatially From broken toilets and everyday things to art and forms of writing fragments are signatures of urban worlds and provocations for change In Fragments of the City Colin McFarlane examines such fragments what they are and how they come to matter in the experience politics and expression of cities How does the city appear when we look at it through its fragments For those living on the economic margins the city is often experienced as a set of fragments Much of what low income residents deal with on a daily basis is fragments of stuff made and remade with and through urban density social infrastructure and political practice In this book McFarlane explores infrastructure in Mumbai Kampala and Cape Town artistic montages in Los Angeles and Dakar refugee struggles in Berlin and the repurposing of fragments in Hong Kong and New York Fragments surface as material things as forms of knowledge as writing strategies They are used in efforts to politicize the city and in urban writing to capture life and change in the world's major cities Fragments of the City surveys the role of fragments in how urban worlds are understood revealed written and changed

Engaging Art Roslyn Bernstein, 2020-05-14 This book explores the tangled texture of the art world a curious and mysterious space In 60 essays drawn from around the globe it reveals new dimensions about how artists make their art resist censorship and retain an independent creative spirit The essays ask and answer several crucial questions How do artists in Europe the United States Asia the Middle East and Latin and South America find space to live and work How do artists follow their talent to make and exhibit original art in a politicized world where artistic freedom is often limited How do smaller artistic venues survive the economic pressures and competition in the art market Focusing on under the radar subjects the reports interviews and essays illuminate the pain and pleasures of artistic production and the challenges faced by artists curators and gallerists

Women and Photography in Apartheid South Africa

Marie Meyerding, 2025-04-29 Tracing the lives and works of five women in four case studies author Marie Meyerding examines the representation of women in the field of photography in South Africa in the second half of the twentieth century All of them are critically understudied with no existing scholarship dedicated exclusively to their photographic contributions Focusing on the representation of women on two different levels as agents behind the camera and as subjects in photographs it showcases women photographers portraying their female contemporaries and analyses to what extent they adhered to or subverted common forms of gender representation In recuperating their forgotten archives the book argues that none of these women are marginal figures but rather that each of them played a leading role in the field of photography in their own time The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history of photography gender studies intersectionality and African studies

Christianity, Art and Transformation John W. de Gruchy, 2001-01-29 Christianity Art and Transformation explores the historical and contemporary relationship between the arts and Christianity with reference to the transformation of society Several major themes are discussed among them the power of images the relationship between aesthetics and ethics the nature of beauty and its redemptive capacity aesthetic existence and Christian discipleship and the role of art in the public square and in the life of the Church The book is a contribution to the study of theological aesthetics from both an ecumenical and Reformed perspective global in its scope yet rooted in the author's South African context

Transnational Perspectives on Feminism and Art, 1960-1985 Jen Kennedy, Trista Mallory, Angelique Szymanek, 2021-04-28 Transnational Perspectives on Feminism and Art 1960 1985 is a collection of essential essays that bring transnational feminist praxis into conversation with histories of feminist art in the 1960s 1970s and early 1980s The artistic practices and processes examined within these pages all centre on gender and sexual politics as they variously intersect with race class sovereignty Indigeneity citizenship and migration at particular historical moments and within specific geopolitical contexts The book's central premise is that reconsidering this period from transnational feminist perspectives will enable new thinking about the critical commonalities and differences across heterogeneous and geographically dispersed practices that have contributed to the complex and multifaceted relationship between feminism and art today The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history cultural studies visual culture material culture and gender studies

Portrait with Keys Ivan Vladislavić, 2011-10-27 This is a book about Johannesburg and one man's place in it a provocative teasing revealing analytical and poetic text on the city and the life rooted in its concrete streets A high water mark in Ivan Vladislavić's writing Portrait with Keys is a sprawling yet comprehensive portrait of his Joburg His gaze roams freely across the decades but the focus falls on the eve of the millennium Neither a novel in any conventional sense nor a collection of short stories this chain of lyrical texts brings together memoir history snapshots meditations asides on arts and not least observations on that essential urban accessory the Gorilla steering lock Home habit change memory mortality friendship ghosts gardens walking falling selling and stealing are all part of this unique dossier of city life Portrait with Keys is an extraordinary work both an oblique self portrait of the author and a vivid recovery of where we have been all along

Portrait with Keys: The City of Johannesburg Unlocked Ivan Vladislavić, 2009-06-01 Surely one of the most ingenious love letters full of violence fear humour and cunning ever addressed to a city Geoff Dyer This dazzling portrait of Johannesburg is one of the most haunting poetic pieces of reportage about a metropolis since Suketu Mehta's Maximum City Through precisely crafted snapshots Ivan Vladislavić observes the unpredictable day today transformation of his embattled city the homeless using manholes as cupboards a public statue slowly cannibalized for scrap Most poignantly he charts the small devastating changes along the postapartheid streets walls grow higher neighborhoods are gated off the keys multiply Security insecurity is the growth industry Vladislavic described as one of the most imaginative minds at work in South African literature today Andr Brink delivers one of the best things ever written about a great if schizophrenic city and an utterly true picture of the new South Africa Christopher Hope
