Suffering And No Suffering:

Encountering Christ in the Suffering Humanity (Mt 25:31-46) Cynthia Pinto, 2011 Philosophy of Suffering David Bain, Michael Brady, Jennifer Corns, 2019-10-02 Suffering is a central component of our lives We suffer pain We fall ill We fail and are failed Our loved ones die It is a commonplace to think that suffering is always and everywhere bad But might suffering also be good If so in what ways might suffering have positive as well as negative value This important volume examines these questions and is the first comprehensive examination of suffering from a philosophical perspective An outstanding roster of international contributors explore the nature of suffering pain and valence as well as the value of suffering and the relationships between suffering morality and rationality Philosophy of Suffering Metaphysics Value and Normativity is essential reading for students and researchers in philosophy of mind philosophy of psychology cognitive and behavioral psychology as well as those in health and medicine researching conceptual issues regarding suffering and pain

Knowing the Suffering of Others Austin Sarat, 2014-07-14 In Knowing the Suffering of Others legal scholar Austin Sarat brings together essays that address suffering as it relates to the law highlighting the ways law imagines suffering and how pain and suffering become jurisprudential facts From fetal imaging to end of life decisions torts to international human rights domestic violence to torture and the law of war to victim impact statements the law is awash in epistemological and ethical problems associated with knowing and imagining suffering In each of these domains we might ask How well do legal actors perceive and understand suffering in such varied domains of legal life What problems of representation and interpretation bedevil efforts to grasp the suffering of others What historical political literary cultural and or theological resources can legal actors and citizens draw on to understand the suffering of others In Knowing the Suffering of Others Austin Sarat presents legal scholarship that explores these questions and puts the problem of suffering at the center of thinking about law The contributors to this volume do not regard pain and suffering as objective facts of a universe remote from law rather they examine how both are discursively constructed in and by law They examine how pain and suffering help construct and give meaning to the law as we know it The authors attend to the various ways suffering appears in law as well as the different forms of suffering that require the law's attention Throughout this book law is regarded as a domain in which the meanings of pain and suffering are contested and constituted as well as an instrument for inflicting suffering or for providing or refusing its relief It challenges scholars lawyers students and policymakers to ask how various legal actors and audiences understand the suffering of others Contributors Montr D Carodine Cathy Caruth Alan L Durham Bryan K Fair Steven H Hobbs Gregory C Keating Linda Ross Meyer Meredith M Render Jeannie Suk John Fabian Witt The Nature of Suffering and the Goals of Medicine Eric J. Cassell Clinical Professor of Public Health Cornell University Medical College, 1991-10-03 The Nature of Suffering underscores the change that is taking place in medicine from a basic concern with disease to a greater focus on the sick person Cassell centers his discussion on the problem of suffering because he says

its recognition and relief are a test of the adequacy of any system of medicine He describes what suffering is and its relationship to the sick person bodies do not suffer people do An exclusive concern with scientific knowledge of the body and disease therefore impedes an understanding of suffering and diminishes the care of the suffering patient The growing criticism that medicine is not sufficiently humanistic does not go deep enough to provide a basis for a new understanding of medicine New concepts in medicine must have their basis in its history and in the development of ideas about disease and treatment Cassell uses many stories about patients to demonstrate that despite the current dominance of science and technology there can be no diagnosis search for the cause of the patient s disease prognostication or treatment without consideration of the individual sick person Recent trends in medicine and society Cassell believes show that it is time for the sick person to be not merely an important concern for physicians but the central focus of medicine He addresses the exciting problems involved in such a shift In this new medicine doctors would have to know the person as well as they know the disease What are persons however and how are doctors to comprehend them The kinds of knowledge involved are varied including values and aesthetics as well as science In the process of knowing the experience of patient and doctor move to center stage He believes that the exploration of the person will engage medicine in the 21st century just as understanding the body has occupied the last hundred years

Responses to Suffering in Classical Rabbinic Literature David Charles Kraemer, 1995 The existence of suffering poses an obvious problem for the monotheistic religions Why does an all powerful benevolent God allow humans to suffer And given that God does what is the appropriate human response In modern times Jewish theologians in particular faced with the enormity of the Holocaust have struggled to come to grips with these issues In Responses to Suffering in Classical Rabbinic Literature David Kraemer offers the first comprehensive history of teachings related to suffering in rabbinic literature of the ancient world The age of formative Judaism was filled with suffering for its people From the conquering of Palestine by Rome and the destruction of the Temple at Jerusalem to persecution at the hands of Hadrian Jewish faith in a just and merciful God was tested repeatedly The seemingly unjustified affliction elicited varying responses from rabbis Beginning with the Mishnah c 200 C E Kraemer examines traditions on suffering divine justice national catastrophe and the like in all major rabbinic works of late antiquity The earliest rabbinic works Kraemer shows adhere to the orthodox biblical opinion which sees suffering as punishment for sins But rabbis quickly began to record other explanations and responses Palestinian rabbinic tradition even at the end of this period condemns any who would question or deny God s justice In contrast the Babylonian Talmud permits such questioning itself giving voice to lengthy deliberations which reject the efficacy of suffering and question the justice of some suffering which humans are forced to endure Bringing to bear recent methods in the history of religions literary criticism canonical criticism and the sociology of religion Kraemer offers an analysis of the development of attitudes that are central to and remain contemporary concerns of any religious society

Narrative of Suffering: Meaning and Experience in a Transcultural Approach

Lolita Guimarães Guerra, Jose A. Nicdao, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 This volume explores how people come to terms with suffering how they experience the mystery of this human condition and how future studies can shed some further light on the topic Various perspectives are represented here such as the use of narratives to delve into the reality of suffering the emotional trauma that suffering brings the narrative process which manifests phenomenology and intersubjectivity and the emergence of gendered models of suffering These approaches derive from multiple fields of research creating a multi perspectival view of suffering that transcend long held disciplinary boundaries and stimulate a broader dialogue within contemporary scholarship on suffering related themes Such plurality points out that in the end despite its negative connotations suffering positively affects individuals and society as it enables recognition of common bonds that link all people from all nations and all races Compassion and sympathy leads to a transcendence that this book seeks to highlight

The System of Antichrist Charles Upton, 2005 The System of Antichrist examines the present religious and cultural scene from the standpoint of traditional metaphysics and critiques the New Age spiritualities within their postmodern context Its many references to Rene Guenon and Frithjof Schuon also help introduce these important but little known traditionalist thinkers The book presents lore relating to the latter days of the present cycle from the vantage point of comparative religion drawing upon relevant doctrines from Buddhism Hinduism Judaism Christianity Islam Zoroastrianism and the Native American traditions It also speculates upon the social psychic and spiritual nature of that being known to Christianity Judaism and Islam as the Antichrist presenting him as both an individual and a system and warning those willing to be warned against the spiritual seduction and terror he represents and against the regime which will be and is the social expression of that seduction and that terror Finally in tracing the roots of Antichrist in the fallen nature of man the author sketches the particular quality of spirituality proper to apocalyptic times the dangers it faces the unique opportunities open to it And along the way he describes his own course from the spiritual revolution of the 1960s through the world of New Age spiritualities to the threshold of traditional esoterism and metaphysics As he says speaking of the angst that characterizes the modern world The specific medicine for the shock of despair is the deeper shock of meaning Nothing but the weight of eternity breaking through the thin brittle shell of the postmodern sky can set us on our feet

Ocean of Reasoning Tsong khapa, 2006-04-20 Tsong kha pa 14th century is arguably the most important and influential philosopher in Tibetan history An Ocean of Reasoning is the most extensive and perhaps the deepest extant commentary on Nagarjuna s Mulamadhyamakakarika Fundamental Wisdom of the Middle Way and it can be argued that it is impossible to discuss Nagarjuna s work in an informed way without consulting it It discusses alternative readings of the text and prior commentaries and provides a detailed exegesis constituting a systematic presentation of Madhyamaka Buddhist philosophy Despite its central importance however of Tsong kha pa s three most important texts only An Ocean of Reasoning remains untranslated perhaps because it is both philosophically and linguistically challenging demanding a rare combination of abilities on the part of a translator Jay Garfield and Ngawang Samten bring the requisite skills to this difficult task combining between them expertise in Western and Indian philosophy and fluency in Tibetan Sanskrit and English The resulting translation of this important text will not only be a landmark contribution to the scholarship of Indian and Tibetan Buddhism but will serve as a valuable companion volume to Jay Garfield s highly successful translation of The Fundamental Wisdom of the Middle Way Self, Earth, and Society Thomas N. Finger, 2020-03-12 Our era is experiencing unparalleled and rapid transience The twentieth century began with the telephone and ended with e mail People change jobs and homes a half dozen times or more in their lives Air and water pollution are threatening the well being of the earth itself Wars their multiplying refugees and political crises are tearing societies apart If there is a key word for our era it might be alienation Amid increasing and often chaotic complexity individuals struggle to attain an integrated stable self with durable relationships An expanding ecological consciousness reveals our estrangement from the earth Societies are internally divided by clashing political and economic perspectives and processes This profound and important book recognizes and reveals the connections among these three alienations Thomas Finger undertakes a probing critical conversation with culture and develops his own public theology Each alienation is analyzed in depth through the writings of secular authors His theological construction draws neither on modern philosophy nor worldviews but perhaps surprisingly on Scripture To support his emphasis on Christ Finger engages the skepticism of the much celebrated Jesus Seminar He rejects the widespread claim that Christianity s transcendent God is largely absent from the world and legitimates human exploitation of it For transcendence means that God is different but not distant from the world Finger then examines the roles of Jesus Father and Spirit in his earthly ministry In this and later scriptures these three act and interact in a salvific manner that can only be divine This means that his Father and Spirit also suffer with Jesus in his death and with all creation as Jürgen Moltmann brilliantly explains and accompany him in his resurrection This also means that the creation exists in God as some feminists maintain and originated as the overflow of God's love and character into a realm which was hardly distant from God yet very different In addition this entails that every human self and the process of becoming a self as God's creations must be respected as indeed must all earthly creatures and the basic structures needed to form and maintain any society Theological developments in the last decade have done much to critique misguided biblical interpretations which would justify unbridled human exploitation and abuse of creation But work in exploring how an understanding of a trinitarian transcendent God results in creative and caring relationship between humanity and creation has been less developed In discussing these matters with Dr Finger I am convinced that his proposed work holds the promise of meeting an important need within global theological discussions today Further I know that Dr Finger is fully capable of accomplishing this project Thus from my vantage point where I have the opportunity of hearing theological discussions on these subjects from the major Christian traditions and from throughout the globe it is clear that Dr Finger's proposal will fill a theological void and enrich our search for truth Wesley Granberg Michaelson Executive Secretary Commission on Church and Society World Council of Churches 1988 1994 General Secretary Reformed Church in America 1994 2011
