The Age of Reason Begins Will Durant, Ariel Durant, 1961 If there is a linchpin to understanding modern European history it lies in the period of religious strife on the other Shakespeare Cervantes Montaigne Rembrandt It also encompasses the heyday of Bacon Galileo Giordano Bruno Descartes the fathers of modern science philosophy But it is equally an age of extreme violence a moment in which all Europe was embroiled in the horrible Thirty Years War in some respects the real First World War Whatever the case this is a chapter in cultural history one can t set aside Mr Mrs Durant are admirably lucid This is a book that can be commended very warmly The New York Times

Rhetoric and Human Consciousness Craig R. Smith, 2017-04-12 For two decades students and instructors have relied on award winning author Craig Smith s detailed description and analysis of rhetorical theories and the historical contexts for major thinkers who advanced them He employs key themes from important philosophical schools in this well researched chronicle of rhetoric and human consciousness One is that rhetoric is a response to uncertainty The modern philosophers like the naturalists of ancient Greece and the Scholastics who preceded them tried to end uncertainty by combining the discoveries of science and psychology with rationalism Their aim was progress and a consensus among experts as to what truth is However where modernism proved ineffective rhetoric was revived to fill the breach Another significant theme is that different conceptions of human consciousness lead to different theories of rhetoric and for every major school of thought another school of thought forms in reaction Classic and contemporary examples demonstrate the usefulness of rhetorical theory especially its ability to inform and guide By providing probes for rhetorical criticism discussions also demonstrate that rhetorical criticism illustrates verifies and refines rhetorical theory Thus the synergistic relationship between theory and criticism in rhetoric is no different than in other arts Theory informs practice analysis of successful practice refines theory Smith s absorbing study has been expanded to include thorough treatments of rhetoric in the Romantic Era feminist and queer theory and historical context for the creation of rhetorical theory and its use in public address

Hume and the Politics of Enlightenment Thomas W. Merrill, 2015-07-23 This work explores Hume s Socratic turn to moral and political philosophy as a response to the crisis of radical questioning

Slavery and the American Founding Jude M. Pfister, 2025-03-03 Since 1776 the Founding generation has been portrayed as creators of a new world where liberty and freedom were the inherent birthright of all peoples The Founders although brilliant were nonetheless human and fashioned a country conceived in liberty and freedom for themselves The enslaved women and other minorities were not part of the original Founding documents All men created equal was a political statement not some ethereal message of Enlightenment understanding This book demonstrates that to understand the American Founding is to understand the totality of America The American Founding and the so called compromises forged by state delegates to ensure national unity despite existing alternatives that could have rejected enslavement defined the period from 1765 to 1800 and planted the seeds for a horrific civil war Two of the most debated words from the Age of Enlightenment freedom and liberty not only made America independent but also made it dependent on an execrable system rejected by most of the European thinkers who inspired the uprising against Britain

The Plays of William Godwin David O'Shaughnessy, 2016-06-16 Best known for Enquiry Concerning Political Justice 1793 and Caleb Williams 1794 William Godwin 1756 1836 is one of the most important figures of the Romantic period This book offers academics the chance to build a complete picture of Godwin as a writer and political figure

The End of the Age Has Come C. Marvin Pate, 1995 The Christian according to the apostle Paul lives between two times The end is already present with Christ's death and resurrection but the end is yet to come with his second appearing Following the seminal work of Oscar Cullmann Marvin Pate argues that this already not yet eschatological tension lies at the heart of all writings of the apostle Paul and is in fact the key to understanding them Pate traces the concept of already not yet back to its Jewish roots and shows with exceptional clarity how Paul's teachings on God Christ human beings salvation the Holy Spirit the church society and the last things can be successfully placed within this already not yet framework In his analysis Pate exegetes numerous key passages in the Pauline letters

Lords of the Scrolls: Literary Traditions in the Bible and Gospels Donald K. Sharpes, 2005 Lords of the Scrolls analyzes ancient literary sources to show how biblical and gospel scribes borrowed and imitated themes from earlier literature to create heroic legends around Hebrew figures and Jesus Comparisons between the Epic of Gilgamesh Enuma Elish Canaanite Egyptian and Greek legends Homeric epics the histories of Herodotus and selected biblical and gospel passages reveal thematic and literary similarities Tracing literary classics from the birth of writing to the first millennium of the modern era this book demonstrates that Hebrew scribes used previous literature to establish a national identity and that gospel scribes borrowed heavily from Homer to create epic legends around the person of Jesus
