The Albanians Europes Forgotten Survivors:

The Albanians Miranda Vickers, 2011-01-28 This is the first full account of a country that following decades of isolation has undergone unprecedented changes to its political system the collapse of communism the progression to multi party elections and the upheaval that followed the March 1997 uprising Miranda Vickers traces the history of the Albanian people from the Ottoman period to the formation of the Albanian Communist Party She considers the charismatic leadership of Enver Hoxha Albania s relationship with Tito and the alliance with the Soviet Union and then China and the long period of isolation Newly revised for this paperback edition The Albanians considers the gradual process of reform and the fragility of the Albanian experiment with democracy and includes a dramatic account of the days leading up to Sali Berisha s resignation of the presidency It has now been updated to cover the crisis in Kosovo that has led to the first Western war in Europe since 1945

The Albanians Anton Logoreci, 1977 Monograph on the historical evolution of government and politics in Albania from the fifteenth century to the present day covers international relations wars the development and role of the communist political party etc Bibliography pp 216 to 221 and illustrations

Eastern Europe 1945-1969 Ben Fowkes, 2014-05-12 Here is an essential short guide to the history of Eastern Europe under the early decades of communist rule The study explores the communists attempt to transpose a uniform economic and social system across the region copied from the Soviet model Dr Fowkes shows how this did not always succeed and he reveals the local variations which became more pronounced after the death of Stalin The book includes detailed analysis of the dramatic events in Poland and Hungary and in the assessment section there is a useful summary of the strengths and weaknesses of the communist model in its heyday It is an illuminating study full of maps and photographs as well as over 30 documents most previously unavailable in English which brings this complex subject alive and helps us to understand the special conditions the people of the region have faced in catching up with the West both in terms of material prosperity and more recently in the establishment of democratic political systems

Founding a Balkan State Robert Clegg Austin, 2012-09-26 Founding a Balkan State examines the pivotal period in Albanian history when the country s fundamental goals and directions were most hotly contested In 1920 liberal Albanian leaders led by the US educated Bishop Fan S Noli began working to introduce democracy to the country hoping that it would lead to modernization prosperity and overturning the legacy of five hundred years of Ottoman rule In 1924 these leaders mounted a successful revolution by 1925 however their forces were in retreat Albania soon slid into dictatorship under Ahmed Bey Zogu first as president then as self proclaimed king Founding a Balkan State provides the only comprehensive assessment in English of these events Robert C Austin first delves into the country s weak domestic and international position both before and after the First World War then assesses the internal and external challenges posed to its state and nation building efforts Austin shrewdly demonstrates how the missed opportunities of Albania s political transition affected the course of Balkan history for decades to come

in an investigation of the sources manifestations and implications of international conflict and co operation throughout Eastern Europe within the broader framework of regional instabilities accompanying the post communist transition Tracing key historical antagonisms the author assesses contemporary clashes within Eastern Europe and evaluates the progress and prospects for integration into the wider European community Media, Democracy and Freedom Marta Dyczok,Oksana Viktorovna Gaman-Golutvina,2009 This book does what few other works have done it examines the role media have played in the larger political economic and social transformations in the post communist space An international group of scholars from various disciplines explore the complex relations between media society and the state in this region over the past twenty years and present theoretical arguments that challenge dominant views They scrutinize changes in the public sphere as well as the media itself its role format agenda and quality in the context of changing values and shifting power relationships

The Balkans Since the Second World War R. J. Crampton,2014-07-15 Since the collapse of Eastern European communism the Balkans have been more prominent in world affairs than at any time since before the First World War Crises in the area have led NATO to fire its first ever shots in anger whilst international forces have been deployed on a scale and in a manner unprecedented in Europe since World War Two An understanding of why this happened is impossible without some knowledge of the history of the area before the fall of communism of how the communists came to power and how they used their authority thereafter Covering the communist states of Albania Bulgaria Romania and Yugoslavia and including Greece Richard Crampton provides a highly readable introduction to that history one that will be read by journalists diplomats and anyone interested in the region and its impact on world politics today The Gypsies of Eastern Europe David Crowe,John Kolsti,Ian Hancock,2016-07-22 In recent news coverage of the dramatic political events in Eastern Europe Gypsies have been a favourite sidebar topic Some of the stories have been truly horrifying others are written condescendingly and to amuse but what has become clear is how little we really know about this people In a concerted effort to uncover the modern history of the Rom in Eastern Europe the authors examine the Gypsy experience in Albania Czechoslovakia Hungary Romania and Yugoslavia with special attention to the Nazi Holocaust as well as to the record of the forced settlement and education programmes instituted by communist regimes Albania Andreas Hemming,Gentiana Kera,Enriketa Pandelejmoni,2012 This collection of papers on contemporary issues in Albanian history and anthropology covers a broad range of approaches and forms of analysis The book includes research on parts of the country that have rarely made an appearance in international scholarship including recent research on various aspects of urban life in Albania with several chapters being set in Shkodra Tirana Elbasan and Gjirokastra Issues of local self organization or identity processes are presented as well A third core aspect that is addressed is the continued analysis of new and revealing demographic sources that shed light on the structure and history of the Albanian family Series Studies on South East Europe Vol 9 Women, State, and Party in Eastern Europe Sharon L. Wolchik,Alfred G. Meyer,2013-07-22 These essays by American Canadian and East European scholars provide a comprehensive look at the status of women in Eastern Europe with particular emphasis on the postwar situation
