Movement Without Marches Lisa Levenstein, 2009. In this bold interpretation of U.S. history, Lisa Levenstein reframes highly charged debates over the origins of chronic African American poverty and the social policies and political struggles that led to the postwar urban crisis. A Movement Without Lordship, State Formation and Local Authority in Late Medieval and Early Modern England Spike Gibbs, 2023-07-27. Providing a new narrative of how local authority and social structures adapted in response to the decline of lordship and the process of state formation, Spike Gibbs uses manorial officeholding, where officials were chosen from among tenants to help run the lord's manorial estate, as a prism through which to examine political and social change in the late medieval and early modern English village. Drawing on micro studies of previously untapped archival records, the book spans the medieval-early modern divide to examine changes between 1300 and 1650. In doing so, Gibbs demonstrates the vitality of manorial structures across the medieval and early modern era, the active and willing participation of tenants in these frameworks, and the way this created inequalities within communities. Linking Australia's Landscapes James Fitzsimons, Ian Pulsford, Geoff Wescott, 2013-06-05. Networks of land managed for conservation across different tenures have rapidly increased in number and popularity in Australia over the past two decades. These include iconic large-scale initiatives such as Gondwana Link, the Great Eastern Ranges Initiative, Habitat 141, and the South Australian NatureLinks, as well as other landscape-scale approaches such as Biosphere Reserves and Conservation Management Networks. Their aims have been multiple: to protect the integrity and resilience of many Australian ecosystems by maintaining and restoring large-scale natural landscapes and ecosystem processes; to lessen the impacts of fragmentation; to increase the connectivity of habitats; to provide for species movement and adaptation as climate changes; and to build community support and involvement in conservation. This book draws out lessons from a variety of established and new connectivity conservation initiatives from around Australia and is complemented by international examples Chapters are written by leaders in the field of establishing and operating connectivity networks as well as key ecological and social scientists and experts in governance Linking Australia's Landscapes will be an important reference for policy makers natural resource managers scientists and academics and tertiary students dealing with issues in landscape scale conservation ecology conservation biology environmental policy planning and management social sciences regional development governance and ecosystem services

Lobbyists and the Making of US Tariff Policy, 1816–1861 Daniel Peart, 2018-10-01 The first book length study of lobbying prior to the Civil War Since the 2008 global economic crisis historians have embraced the challenge of making visible the invisible hand of the market This renewed interest in the politics of political economy makes it all the more timely to remind ourselves that debates over free trade and protection were just as controversial in the early United States as they have once again become and that lobbying then as now played an important part in Lincoln's government of the people by the people for the people In Lobbyists and the Making of US Tariff Policy 1816-1861 Daniel Peart reveals how active lobbyists were in Washington throughout the antebellum era He describes how they involved themselves at every stage of the making of tariff policy from setting the congressional agenda through the writing of legislation in committee to the final vote Considering policymaking as a process Peart focuses on the importance of rules and timing the critical roles played by individual lawmakers and lobbyists and the high degree of uncertainty that characterized this formative period in American political development The debate about tariff policy Peart explains is an unbroken thread that runs throughout the pre Civil War era connecting disparate individuals and events and shaping the development of the United States in myriad ways Duties levied on imports provided the federal government with the major part of its revenue from the ratification of the Constitution to the close of the nineteenth century More controversially they also offered protection to domestic producers against foreign competition at the expense of increased costs for consumers and the risk of retaliation from international trade partners Ultimately this book uses the tariff issue to illustrate the critical role that lobbying played within the antebellum policymaking process

Hanhardt, 2013-12-04 Winner 2014 Lambda Literary Award in LGBT Studies Since the 1970s a key goal of lesbian and gay activists has been protection against street violence especially in gay neighborhoods During the same time policymakers and private developers declared the containment of urban violence to be a top priority In this important book Christina B Hanhardt examines how LGBT calls for safe space have been shaped by broader public safety initiatives that have sought solutions in policing and privatization and have had devastating effects along race and class lines Drawing on extensive archival and ethnographic research in New York City and San Francisco Hanhardt traces the entwined histories of LGBT activism urban development and U S policy in relation to poverty and crime over the past fifty years She highlights the formation of a mainstream LGBT movement as well as the very different trajectories followed by radical LGBT and queer grassroots organizations Placing

LGBT activism in the context of shifting liberal and neoliberal policies Safe Space is a groundbreaking exploration of the contradictory legacies of the LGBT struggle for safety in the city
