Evaluating HIV/AIDS Treatment Programs George J. Huba, Lisa A. Melchior, 2000 Evaluating HIV AIDS Treatment Programs offers new strategies for providing care for substance abusers with HIV AIDS This volume offers specific proven programs designed to help underserved populations including women Latinos Haitians adolescents and rural people overcome linguistic cultural racial and economic barriers to obtaining health care It also offers specialized medical care models that work within the context of a continuum of services in a medical clinic Visit the book's website at http://www.TheMeasurementGroup.com/drugs_and_society.htm

Resources in Education ,1994 Encyclopedia of AIDS Raymond A. Smith, 1998-08-27 The Encyclopedia of AIDS covers all major aspects of the first 15 years of the AIDS epidemic including the breakthroughs in treatment announced at the International AIDS Conference in July 1996 The encyclopedia provides extensive coverage of major topics in eight areas basic science and epidemiology transmission and prevention pathology and treatment impacted populations policy and law politics and activism culture and society and the global epidemic With more than 300 entries written by 175 specialists and illustrated with more than 100 photographs and charts the Encyclopedia of AIDS is an essential reference work for students at the undergraduate and graduate levels professionals in a wide variety of medical service and care fields academics researchers journalists and general readers

Men of Color John Longres, 2013-11-26 Men of Color provides those working in the social services with an assessment framework for identifying and understanding the developmental needs of gay and bisexual men of color By adding an ethnic dimension to the literature on homosexual conduct and identity this book helps service providers improve services for men from all communities It provides insightful implications for practice and programs presenting valuable practical information for planning services for African Asian Latino and Native Americans Chapters in Men of Color gives you a context for working with homosexually active men of color regardless of their specific service needs This broad base is constructed by showing that the meaning of homosexual conduct and identity changes across cultures and generations that the gay rights movement is having a profound impact on all ethnic racial communities that although the pull toward the gay community is strong the pull to retain ethnic identities is equally strong and that homosexuality varies culturally and historically Contributors give a cross cultural comparison of identity networks and social support patterns among European African and Latino American men seeking services from an HIV prevention program an ecological assessment model that can be used by social service professionals working with African American men an historically based description of Native American men that ends with their own special vision for clinical services a review of the literature on Latin American and Filipino men an historical examination of Korean norms and attitudes on homosexuality a discussion of an applied research agenda for gay men of color that derives from the need to improve delivery of social services Men of Color asserts that homosexually active men of color are often caught in a dilemma they must choose between their ethnic and sexual identities either putting their ethnicity before their gayness or their gayness before their ethnicity The book predicts that the lure of sexual freedom coupled with the comfort of old traditions will lead to a new synthesis of gay and ethnic identities and helps service providers facilitate this synthesis Whether you re a social service provider social work or health educator or gay lesbian studies educator you will find Men of Color a superior guide for improving your services Over the Rainbow Michelle Ann Abate,Kenneth B.
