community whilst considering the ethical and political implication of its critique for post colonial feminism A diverse range of texts are analyzed which produce the figure of the stranger showing that it has alternatively been expelled as the origin of danger such as in neighbourhood watch or celebrated as the origin of difference as in multiculturalism The author argues that both of these standpoints are problematic as they involve stranger fetishism they assume that the stranger has a life of its own Senses of Mourning Babak Rahimi,2026-01-06 No detailed description available for Senses of Mourning
