American Architectural History Keith Eggner, 2004-07-31 Offering some 30 essays this volume concentrates on recent writings by historians of American architecture urbanism The essays are arranged chronologically from colonial to contemporary accessible in thematic groupings      Studies in Art, Architecture and Design, 1968      Imhotep Today Humbert,, Price, 2012-10-12 The discipline of Egyptology has been criticised for being too insular with little awareness of the development of archaeologies elsewhere It has remained theoretically underdeveloped For example the role of Ancient Egypt within Africa has rarely been considered jointly by Egyptologists and Africanists Egypt s own view of itself has been neglected views of it in the ancient past in more recent times and today have remained underexposed Encounters with Ancient Egypt is a series of eight books which addresses these issues The books interrelate inform and illuminate one another and will appeal to a wide market including academics students and the general public interested in Archaeology Egyptology Anthropology Architecture Design and History This book presents and analyses the results of the use and adaptation of ancient Egyptian architecture in modern times It traces the use of ancient Egyptian motifs and constructions across the world from Australia the Americas and Southern Africa to Western Europe It also inquires into the cultural economic and social contexts of this practice Imhotep Today is exceptional not only in its global coverage but in its analyses of thorny questions such as what was it about Ancient Egypt that inspired such Egyptianizing monuments and was it just one idea or several different ones which formed the basis of such activities The book also asks why only certain images such as obelisks and sphinxes were incorporated within the movement The contributors explore how these monuments fitted into the local architecture of the time and in this context they investigate whether Egyptianizing architecture is an ongoing movement and if so how it differs from earlier similar activities      Studies in Art, Architecture and Design, 1968      A Victorian Architectural Controversy Ariyuki Kondo, 2019-11-08 Who was the bona fide architect of the New Houses of Parliament Charles Barry 1795 1860 the winner of the Parliamentary competition or Augustus Welby Northmore Pugin 1812 52 the ghost designer a young Catholic architect and Gothic specialist After both men died the controversy over the actual architect of the Houses of Parliament was to become a matter of public dispute largely stimulated by the directly opposed claims published by the two men s sons the architect Edward Welby Pugin 1834 75 and Rev Alfred Barry 1826 1910 an Anglican clergyman who later became the Bishop of Sydney The writings of both sons compiled here in a single volume reveal to us the whole picture of the controversy over the real authorship of the grandest architectural monument of Victorian Britain and the feverish reactions to it of the nineteenth century British public which evince the Victorian democratization of artistic appreciation     Routledge Revivals: Patriotism: The Making and Unmaking of British National Identity (1989)

Raphael Samuel,2016-10-04 First published in 1989 this is the third of three volumes exploring the changing notions of patriotism in British life from the thirteenth century to the late twentieth century and constitutes an attempt to come to terms with the power of the national idea through a historically informed critique This volume studies some of the leading figures of national myth such as Britannia and John Bull One group of essays looks at the idea of distinctively national landscape and the ways in which it corresponds to notions of social order A chapter on the poetry of Edmund Spenser explores metaphorical representations of Britain as a walled garden and the idea of an enchanted national space is taken up in a series of essays on literature theatre and cinema An introductory piece charts some of the startling changes in the image of national character from the seventeenth century notion of the English as the most melancholy people in Europe to the more uncertain and conflicting images of today     John Milton: Introductions John Broadbent,1973-12-13 At the head of the Cambridge Milton series stand two general books John Milton Introductions and Paradise Lost Introduction These set the tone for and give the background to the editions of individual books John Broadbent and the contributors to the present volume provide original studies on different aspects of John Milton s life times work and ideas There are chapters on his relation to the music science and visual arts of the age and there is ample material to stimulate further reading thought and research The book can be used by a wide range of readers and students of Milton as an original work of reference a bank of ideas and resources on which to draw and to develop     Directory of British Architects, 1834-1914 Antonia

Brodie,British Architectural Library,Royal Institute of British Architects,2001-12-20 A comprehensive biographical directory of some 11 000 British architects who worked between 1834 and 1914     The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries

History of Architectural Theory Hanno-Walter Kruft,1994 As the first comprehensive encyclopedic survey of Western architectural theory from Vitruvius to the present this book is an essential resource for architects students teachers historians and theorists Using only original sources Kruft has undertaken the monumental task of researching organizing and analyzing the significant statements put forth by architectural theorists over the last two thousand years The result is a text that is authoritative and complete easy to read without being reductive

The Imperfect City: On Architectural Judgment Samir Younes, 2016-03-03 If architectural judgment were a city a city of ideas and forms then it is a very imperfect city When architects judge the success or failure of a building the range of ways and criteria which can be used for this evaluation causes many contentious and discordant arguments Proposing that the increase in number and intensity of such arguments threatens to destabilize the very grounds upon which judgment is supposed to rest this book examines architectural judgment in its historical cultural political and psychological dimensions and their convergence on that most expressive part of architecture namely architectural character It stresses the value of reasoned judgment in justifying architectural form a judgment based on three sets of criteria those criteria that are external to architecture those that are internal to architecture and those that pertain to the psychology of the architect as image maker External criteria include philosophies of history or theories of modernity internal criteria include architectural character and architectural composition while the psychological criteria pertain to mimetic rivalry or rivaling desires for the same architectural forms Yet although architectural conflicts can adversely influence judgment they can at the same time contribute to the advancement of architectural culture

Teaching Research in Design Sandra Dittenberger, Hans Stefan Moritsch, Agnes Raschauer, 2022-12-02 Since the 1990s the concern to define areas of research in design has dominated academic debates As a result we are now facing a multitude of understandings This is especially true for practice based design research Sandra Dittenberger Hans Stefan Moritsch and Agnes Raschauer discuss how the concept of learning by research can be integrated into product design studio teaching They show different international approaches for integrating research into teaching and contrast the areas of design research with scientific standards The book features study results that helped generate both a general orientation for research in design education and guidelines for students of how to integrate research into their project work
