Islam in International Relations Nassef Manabilang Adiong, Raffaele Mauriello, Deina Abdelkader, 2018-11-02 Islam in International Relations Politics and Paradigms analyses the interaction between Islam and IR It shows how Islam is a conceptualization of ideas that affect people's thinking and behaviour in their capacity to relate with IR as both discipline and practice This approach challenges Western based and defined epistemological and ontological foundations of the discipline and by doing so contributes to worlding IR as a field of study and practice by presenting and discussing a broad range of standpoints from within Islamic civilization The volume opens with the presentation and discussion of the international thought of a major Muslim leader followed by a chapter that addresses the ethical practice of IR from traditional pacifism to modern Arab political philosophy It then switches to applying constructivism as a tool to understand Islam in world affairs and proceeds to address the issue of how the ethnocentric approach of Western academia has hindered our understanding of world affairs The volume moves on to address the ISIS phenomenon a current urgent issue in world affairs and closes with a look at Islamic geopolitics This comprehensive collection will be of great interest to students scholars and policy makers with a focus on the Muslim world

Muslims as Actors Jacques Waardenburg, 2012-02-13 This book deals with Islamic studies and with the question how the scholarly study of religion can contribute to the study of Islam The author advocates studying Islamic phenomena as signs and symbols interpreted and applied in diverse ways in existing traditions He stresses the role of Muslims as actors in the ongoing debate about the articulation of Islamic ways of life and construction of Islam as a religion A careful study of this debate should steer clear of political religious and ideological interests Research in this area by Muslims and non Muslim scholars alike should address the question of what Muslims have made of their Islam in specific circumstances Current political contexts have created an unhealthy climate for pursuing an open approach to Islam based on reading observing listening and reflecting Yet precisely nowadays we need to look anew at ways of Muslim thinking and acting that refer to Islam and to avoid certain schemes of interpreting Muslim realities that are no longer adequate for present day Muslim life situations Muslim recourse to Islam can be studied as human constructions of value and meaning and relations between Muslims and others can be seen in terms of human interaction without blame always falling on Islam as such Malcolm X

Beyond Feminism and Islamism Doris H. Gray,2012-11-08 Are women in North Africa and the Middle East feminist Or is being a Muslim incompatible with feminism Is there such a thing as Islamic feminism Through interviews with Moroccan activists and jurists both male and female and by situating these interviews within their socio political and economic contexts Doris Gray addresses these questions By doing so she attempts to move beyond the simple bifurcation of feminist and Islamist to look at the many facets of internal gender discourse within one Muslim country allowing for a more nuanced understanding of the discussion on women s rights in the Muslim world in general The status and the role of women is one of the most hotly debated topics throughout the Middle East and North Africa and this is particularly visible through this discussion of what it means to engage with and promote feminist thought and actions in the region American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 18:4 Eltigani Abdulqadir Hamid,M. Kabir Hassan & Faridul Islam,Larry Poston,Abdelilah Bouasria,Yasien Mohamed, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Islam in Indonesian Foreign Policy Rizal Sukma,2004-03 This companion volume to the highly successful Islam in Malaysian Foreign Policy explores the extent to which foreign policy in the world s largest Muslim nation has been influenced by Islamic considerations Iran, Islam and Democracy Ali M. Ansari,2019-05-15 The surprise election of Hasan Rouhani in 2013 has refocused attention on the dynamics between Islam and democracy in Iran after the hiatus of the Ahmadinejad presidency. With comparisons being drawn between Rouhani and his predecessor the late Reformist President Mohammad Khatami, there has never been a better time for a close look at the rise and fall of the Reform movement in Iran, situating it within the context of the politics of managing change. This revised and updated edition incorporates recent work on the presidential election crisis of 2009 along with the election of Rouhani in 2013 and an additional essay on the idea of reformism in Iran in historical context. The study remains then the most comprehensive account of the politics of reform and in situating the Rouhani presidency within that context it shines a clear light on the pressures and pitfalls Iran faces in politics and international relations.
