Economy-Environment-Development-Knowledge Ken Cole,2002-01-04 As we approach the end of the second millennium we find ourselves in times of radical social change Orthodox explanations of the economy the environment and the development process are unable to provide coherent policies for such issues as employment creation environmental degradation and social progress Economy Environment Development Knowledge provides alternative perspectives on these fundamental aspects of human existence Economists environmentalists and development theorists have so far been unable to agree on the most successful prescriptions to address problems To understand contrast and compare alternative understandings of economic environmental and development issues we need to be aware why theorists conceptualise the process of social experience so differently Part 1 of Economy Environment Development Knowledge addresses the subjective preference cost of production and abstract labour theories of values in economics Part 2 explains egocentrism ecocentrism and socioecocentrism as competing theoretical perspectives in environmental theory Part 3 highlights modernisation theory structuralist theory and class struggle as ways to account for the process of development and Part 4 examines the generation of knowledge through positivism paradigms and praxis legitimating competing perspectives in economics environmentalist and development The book concludes by considering why different people find alternative explanations more or less plausible By addressing the disagreements between theorists Economy Environment Development Knowledge provides a unique basis to contrast and compare the plethora of theories of and policies for economic prosperity environmental sustainability and social progress Environment and Development Economics ,1999 Environment, Development, and Sustainability

Gordon Wilson,Pamela Furniss,Richard Kimbowa,2010 Case studies from technologists engineers natural and social scientists and practitioners present multiple perspectives on sustainable development Examples from both developing and developed countries show how environment development and sustainability intertwine to form an issue of truly global concern Environment Development Plan United States Department of Energy,1979 Environmental Development Plan (EDP) United States. Department of Energy. Office of Energy Technology,1978 Environment, Development and Sustainability in India: Perspectives, Issues and Alternatives Manish K. Verma,2021-03-18 This book provides a comprehensive account of asymmetric linkage in the trilogy of environment development and sustainability and its impact on society It examines varied perspectives and issues of development related to environmental destruction and sustainability challenges By examining the recent trends of development and recording the dilemmas which are creating ecological imbalances it explores some alternative ways of development to achieve sustainability Divided into three parts it has a broad canvass The first section examines critically the perspectives on ecology practice and ethics rural development and man forest interaction in the metropolis Issues of dams river agricultural distress environmental migration eco tourism ecological conservation and land acquisition are assessed in part second Alternative means of development is explored in part third by incorporating chapters on the constructed wetland biofuels subsistence economy water and traditional knowledge practice This interdisciplinary book is of immense significance to academicians researchers postgraduate and graduate level students of social sciences and environmental studies policymakers development practitioners and NGOs working in the area of environment and development

Handbook of Research on Pedagogical Innovations for Sustainable Development Thomas, Ken D.,Muga, Helen E.,2014-03-31 Summary This book brings together case study examples in the fields of sustainability sustainable development and education for sustainable development Asia Pacific Journal on Environment and Development ,1994 The Journal of Race Development ,1915 Environment, Development and Change in Rural Asia-Pacific John Connell,Eric Waddell,2006-12-05 This volume examines the economic political social and environmental challenges facing rural communities in the Asia Pacific region as global issues intersect with local contexts Such challenges from climatic change and volcanic eruption to population growth and violent civil unrest have stimulated local resilience amongst communities and led to evolving regional institutions and environment management practices changing social relationships and producing new forms of stratification Bringing together case studies from across mainland Southeast Asia and the Island Pacific an expert team of international contributors reveal how communities at the periphery take charge of their lives champion the virtues of their own local systems of production and consumption and engage in the complexities of new structures of development that demand a response to the vacillations of global politics economy and society Inherent in this is the recognition that development as we have come to know it is far from over Each chapter emphasizes the growing recognition that ecological and environmental issues are key to any understanding and analysis of structures of sustainable development Providing diverse multidisciplinary theoretical and empirical perspectives Environment Development and Change in Rural Asia Pacific makes an important contribution to the revitalization of development studies and as such will be essential reading for scholars in the field as well as those with an interest in Asia Pacific studies economic geography and political economy Canadian Medical Association Journal ,1922 Conference Proceedings--environment and Development Libby Bassett,1983 Energy Research Abstracts ,1977 Semiannual with semiannual and annual indexes References to all scientific and technical literature coming from DOE its laboratories energy centers and contractors Includes all works deriving from DOE other related government sponsored information and foreign nonnuclear information Arranged under 39 categories e g Biomedical sciences basic studies Biomedical sciences applied studies Health and safety and Fusion energy Entry gives bibliographical information and abstract Corporate author subject report number indexes A Study of the Environmental Conditions Influencing the Development of Stem Rust in the Absence of an Alternate Host Frank Edward Mussehl,George Leo Peltier,Harry Mathias Martin,Harvey Oscar Werner,Theodore Alexander

Kiesselbach,1926 Policies for a Small Planet Johan Holmberg,2019-06-26 First published in 1992 The world is not living within its means Current development policies in both industrial and developing countries are wasting resources and destroying the commons on which we all depend The world is set on a path of deepening poverty and a deteriorating environment New policies are needed to achieve sustainable development This book presents an integrated series of essays on the policies for sustainable development from one of the leading policy research institutes on environment and development issues It concentrates on the developing world and looks at the specific sectors to which the policies have to be applied Beginning with a discussion of what constitutes sustainable development it goes on to deal with the institutional arrangements needed to mobilise human resources for change and the economic policies for sustainable natural resource management It then examines the policies needed in agriculture urban development industry forests drylands energy use finance population and consumption Throughout it demonstrates how those directly involved are best placed to manage their environments and resources Policies must support the experience and resourcefulness of local people Sustainable development requires that they control their own futures This title will be of great interest to students of Environmental Studies Bangladesh Country Report for United Nations Conference on Environment and Development (UNCED), Brazil, 1-12 June 1992 Bangladesh,1991 Financial Arrangement for a Proposed Global Environment Facility Grant and Asian Development Bank Technical Assistance Grant to the People's Republic of China for the Capacity Building to Combat Land Degradation Project Asian Development Bank,2004 Heredity and Environment in the Development of Men Edwin Grant Conklin,1919
