This short story is called "Static – short horror story" and it is about a boy waking up at night to find the television in his hour tormenting him... but more serious threats waits. The genre of this short story is horror and the theme is very dark mystery and a murder. This video was directed by Robert Towne, the story was created by Gabriel Hernandez, and the screen play was done by Jorge Gomez. This horror themed short story was found on a YouTube channel called "DarthBob2005".

Editing/Sound/Camera Techniques:

- Pan on the man that's asleep on his bed, to show his surrounding as if his bedroom was an establishing shot but they forgot to include on for this scene.
- Dark lighting around the room which shows us the time that all these event starts and the low lighting also gives us the impression something frightening will happen. Low levels of light are been shot at the main characters face as if the light is escaping from the window to his face. This light allows us to see his face during the close ups on him.
- Close ups on a turned off lamp and clock which shows the audience that how late and dark these events are going to start.
- Pan to the right from the guy in bed asleep to the TV which starts these mysterious events.
- Mid shot-to-close up on TV when the loud ominous static sounds starts to come from the TV. Digetic sounds on the static which shows the level of annoyance that sound would be to hear to mid-night.
- Handheld camera movement on the guy when he wakes up to show how he's very uneasy when waking up at this time of night.
- Digetic sounds from the main characters voice which allows him to interact with the audience when he says "Damn Technical glitch"
