Suicide And Euthanasia In Older Adults A Transcultural Journey:

Suicide and Euthanasia in Older Adults Diego De Leo, 2001 Cultural aspects of aging suicide among the elderly and euthanasia are addressed in this collection of work by contributors in psychiatry suicide research and medical ethics Chapters overview the relationship between socio economic psychological and family factors and suicidal behavior and look at physician assisted suicide and euthanasia The role of the elderly and attitudes toward euthanasia and assisted suicide are described in nine countries including Japan Turkey Switzerland Sweden Denmark Hong Kong and Australia This work lacks a subject index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR International Handbook of Suicide Prevention Rory C. O'Connor, Stephen Platt, Jacki Gordon, 2011-06-03 The International Handbook of Suicide Prevention showcases the latest cutting edge research from the world's leading authorities and highlights policy and practice implications for the prevention of suicide Brings together the world's leading authorities on suicidal behaviour renowned for their suicide prevention research policy and practice Addresses the key questions of why people attempt suicide the best interventions treatments and care for those at risk and the key international challenges in trying to prevent suicide Describes up to date theoretically derived and evidence based research and practice from across the globe which will have implications across countries cultures and the lifespan Understanding Assisted Suicide John Barry Mitchell, 2007 A personal journey into the issues surrounding assisted suicide that covers the widest range of topics and positions on the subject Ageing and Older Adult Mental Health Patrick Ryan, Barry J. Coughlan, 2013-03 This book examines the issues and implications that mental health professionals face when dealing with ageing and older adults The book focuses on the biological psychological and cultural influences that impact on the work of mental health practitioners who work with this client group Based on current empirical research and evidence based practical issues this book explores topics including ageing and dementia elder abuse caring for older adults depression and ageing the paradox of ageing how older adults are key to the success of future generations Throughout the book the contributors emphasise the notion of healthy ageing and the importance and significance of this concept as part of the life cycle process As such Ageing and Older Adult Mental Health will be key reading not only for mental health professionals but also for those involved in policy making for older adults Global Emergency of Mental Disorders Jahangir Moini, Justin Koenitzer, Anthony LoGalbo, 2021-05-18 Global Emergency of Mental Disorders is a comprehensive yet easy to read overview of the neurodevelopmental basis of multiple mental disorders and their accompanying consequences including addiction suicide and homelessness Compared to other references that examine the treatment of psychiatric disorders this book uniquely focuses on their neurodevelopment It is designed for neuroscience psychiatry psychology students and various other clinical professions With chapters on anxiety depression schizophrenia and others this volume provides information about incidence prevalence and mortality rates in addition to developmental origins With millions worldwide affected this book will be an invaluable resource Explores psychiatric disorders from a neurodevelopmental perspective Covers multiple disorders including anxiety depression and obsessive compulsive disorder Examines the brain mechanisms that underly disorders Addresses the opioid epidemic and suicide Reviews special patient populations by gender and age

Faces of Aging Yoshiko Matsumoto,2011-03-17 The indisputable fact of Japan s rapidly aging population has been known for some time But beyond statistics and implications for the future we do not know much about the actual aging process Senior citizens and their varied experiences have for the most part been obscured by stereotypes This fascinating new collection of research on the elderly works to put a human face on aging by considering multiple dimensions of the aging experience in Japan Faces of Aging foregrounds a spectrum of elder centered issues social activity caregiving generational bias suicide sexuality and communication with medical professionals to name a few from the perspective of those who are living them The volume s diverse contributors represent the fields of sociology anthropology medicine nursing gerontology psychology film studies gender studies communication and linguistics offering a diverse selection of qualitative studies of aging to researchers across the social sciences

Suicide in Asia Paul S.F. YIP,2008-09-01 Over one million people worldwide commit suicide every year and more than 60% of suicide deaths occur in Asia However very little reliable information is available to permit a good understanding of the multifaceted and complex issues involved in suicide prevention in the region This book provides detailed analyses of suicide in eight Asian societies While each society has its own unique characteristics Asia as a whole is under rapid transition and transformation and the associated stress and depression are both closely linked to suicide Hopefully a better evidence based understanding of suicide will enable governments and non government organizations to establish effective and culturally sensitive suicide prevention strategies for the region

Lifespan Development Michele Hoffnung,Robert J. Hoffnung,Kelvin L. Seifert,Alison Hine,Lynn Ward,Cat Pause,Karen Swabey,Karen Yates,Rosanne Burton Smith,2015-09-28 Lifespan Development Third Australasian edition explores human physical cognitive and social development within an Australian and New Zealand context Building on the successful first and second editions the resource s comprehensive theory coverage includes the latest local and international research in this ever evolving field and is perfectly complemented by numerous physical and mental health applications within local psychological allied health and educational settings This edition includes enhanced coverage of developmental theories and increased integrated coverage of cross cultural and Indigenous issues unique to the multicultural societies of Australia and New Zealand It is an ideal resource offering for undergraduate students in both countries in order to enhance understanding of human development from conception through to the end of life
