The Immeasurable Equation Sun Ra, 1972 Sun Ra's Chicago William Sites, 2021-01-11 Sites provides crucial context on how Chicago's Afrocentrist philosophy religion and jazz scenes helped turn Blount into Sun Ra Chicago Reader Sun Ra 1914 93 was one of the most wildly prolific and unfailingly eccentric figures in the history of music Renowned for extravagant performances in which his Arkestra appeared in neo Egyptian garb the keyboardist and bandleader also espoused an interstellar cosmology that claimed the planet Saturn as his true home In Sun Ra's Chicago William Sites brings this visionary musician back to earth specifically to the city's South Side where from 1946 to 1961 he lived and relaunched his career The postwar South Side was a hotbed of unorthodox religious and cultural activism Afrocentric philosophies flourished storefront prophets sold dream book bibles and Elijah Muhammad was building the Nation of Islam It was also an unruly musical crossroads where the man then known as Sonny Blount drew from an array of intellectual and musical sources from radical nationalism revisionist Christianity and science fiction to jazz blues Latin dance music and pop exotica to construct a philosophy and performance style that imagined a new identity and future for African Americans Sun Ra's Chicago shows that late twentieth century Afrofuturism emerged from a deep utopian engagement with the city and that by excavating the postwar black experience of Sun Ra's South Side milieu we can come to see the possibilities of urban life in new ways Four stars Sites makes the engaging argument that the idiosyncratic jazz legend's penchant for interplanetary journeys and African American utopia was in fact inspired by urban life right on Earth Spectrum Culture The Routledge
