On Modern Beauty Richard R. Brettell, 2019-06-11 A thought provoking examination of beauty using three works of art by Manet Gauguin and C zanne As the discipline of art history has moved away from connoisseurship the notion of beauty has become increasingly problematic Both culturally and personally subjective the term is difficult to define and nearly universally avoided In this insightful book Richard R Brettell one of the leading authorities on Impressionism and French art of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries dares to confront the concept of modern beauty head on This is not a study of aesthetic philosophy but rather a richly contextualized look at the ambitions of specific artists and artworks at a particular time and place Brettell shapes his manifesto around three masterworks from the collection of the J Paul Getty Museum douard Manet s Jeanne Spring Paul Gauguin s Arii Matamoe The Royal End and Paul C zanne s Young Italian Woman at a Table The provocative and wide ranging discussion reveals how each of these exceptional paintings though depicting very different subjects a fashionable actress a preserved head and a weary working woman enacts a revolutionary yet enduring icon of beauty

In Praise of Commercial Culture Tyler COWEN, Tyler Cowen, 2009-06-30 Does a market economy encourage or discourage music literature and the visual arts Do economic forces of supply and demand help or harm the pursuit of creativity This book seeks to redress the current intellectual and popular balance and to encourage a more favorable attitude toward the commercialization of culture that we associate with modernity Economist Tyler Cowen argues that the capitalist market economy is a vital but underappreciated institutional framework for supporting a plurality of coexisting artistic visions providing a steady stream of new and satisfying creations supporting both high and low culture helping consumers and artists refine their tastes and paying homage to the past by capturing reproducing and disseminating it Contemporary culture Cowen argues is flourishing in its various manifestations including the visual arts literature music architecture and the cinema Successful high culture usually comes out of a healthy and prosperous popular culture Shakespeare and Mozart were highly popular in their own time Beethoven s later less accessible music was made possible in part by his early popularity Today consumer demand ensures that archival blues recordings a wide array of past and current symphonies and this week s Top 40 hit sit side by side in the music megastore High and low culture indeed complement each other Cowen s philosophy of cultural optimism stands in opposition to the many varieties of cultural pessimism found among conservatives neoconservatives the Frankfurt School and some versions of the political correctness and multiculturalist movements as well as historical figures including Rousseau and Plato He shows that even when contemporary culture is thriving it appears degenerate as evidenced by the widespread acceptance of pessimism He ends by considering the reasons why cultural pessimism has such a powerful hold on intellectuals and opinion makers

Mapping Impressionist Painting in Transnational Contexts Emily C. Burns, Alice M. Rudy Price, 2021-05-03 This book offers microhistories related to the transnational circulations of impressionism in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The contributors rethink the role of French impressionism in shaping these iterations by placing France within its global and imperialist context and arguing that impressionisms might be framed through the mobility studies concept of constellations of mobility Artists engaging with impressionism in France as in other global contexts relied on responded to appropriated and resisted elements of form and content based on fluid and interconnected political realities and market structures Written by scholars and curators the chapters demand reconsideration of impressionism as a historical construct and the meanings assigned to that term This project frames future discussion in art history cultural studies and global studies on the politics of appropriating impressionism

Cezanne's Early Imagery Mary Tompkins Lewis, 2023-12-22 C zanne s Early Imagery by Mary Tompkins Lewis explores the lesser known but significant early works of Paul C zanne bringing to light the rich cultural and artistic context of his first decade as a painter While C zanne s biographers have long emphasized his tumultuous early life marked by his friendship with Emile Zola his rebellious nature and his passionate yet crude persona the actual paintings from this period have often been overshadowed Lewis addresses this gap in C zanne scholarship by examining how his early works reflect deep connections to both popular and artistic traditions revealing a more nuanced and deliberate painter than previously recognized Through detailed analysis of C zanne s early subject pictures Lewis moves beyond the conventional view of the artist as an impulsive romantic Instead she argues that his early paintings are stylistically and iconographically coherent shaped by both his engagement with the old masters and his awareness of contemporary cultural currents Highlighting the contributions of previous scholars such as Roger Fry and Meyer Schapiro Lewis builds on their groundwork to offer a comprehensive reappraisal of C zanne s early compositions Ultimately this study provides a deeper understanding of the young painter s creative process and the intellectual depth behind his bold defiant imagery enriching our appreciation of his role in modern art This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1989 European Film Theory and Cinema Ian Aitken,2001-08 European Film Theory and Cinema explores the major film theories and movements within European cinema since the early 1900s An original and critically astute study it considers film theory within the context of the intellectual climate of the last two centuries Ian Aitken focuses particularly on the two major traditions that dominate European film theory and cinema the intuitionist modernist and realist tradition and the post Saussurian tradition The first originates in a philosophical lineage that encompasses German idealist philosophy romanticism phenomenology and the Frankfurt School Early intuitionist modernist film culture and later theories and practices of cinematic realism are shown to be part of one continuous tradition The post Saussurian tradition includes semiotics structuralism and post structuralism Pleasure Wars Peter Gay,1998 Whereas Education of the Senses focused on the sexual attitudes and practices of the nineteenth century Bourgeoisie The Tender Passion concentrates on their notions of love No less revisionist than he was in his first volume Gay argues here that the Victorians were able not only to enjoy their sexuality but to know love in its most exalted sense The realities of love for the Victorians he shows came much closer to their ideals than many have thought Gay delves into a huge body of material from philosophical treatises to medical texts from letters and diaries to works of fiction The book is replete with fascinating insights into the lives and works of individual Victorians Dickens Stendhal Wagner Oscar Wilde Beatrice Potter and Sydney Webb among them and his discussions range from the discovery of homosexuality to the ways love was diverted or disguised in music and religion The Routledge Research Companion to Ford Madox Ford Sara Haslam,Laura Colombino,Seamus O'Malley,2018-12-07 Taking account of Ford Madox Ford s entire literary output this companion brings together prominent Ford specialists to offer an overview of existing Ford scholarship and to suggest new directions in Ford studies The Routledge Research Companion to Ford Madox Ford is split into five parts exploring the scholarly foundations of Ford Madox Ford studies Ford s literary identity Ford and place specific case studies and themes and critical approaches Within these five parts the contributors cover areas relevant to Ford s fiction nonfiction and poetry including reception history life writing literary histories gender and comedy The Routledge Research Companion to Ford Madox Ford is an invaluable resource for students and scholars in Ford Studies in modernism and in the literary world that Ford helped shape in the early years of the twentieth century Maurice Duruflé James E. Frazier,2007 Drawing on the accounts of those who knew Duruflé personally as well as on Frazier s own detailed research this new biography offers a broad sketch of this modest and elusive man widely recognized today for having created some of the greatest works in the organ repertory and the masterful Requiem Frazier also examines the career and contributions of Duruflé s wife the formidable organist Marie Madeleine Duruflé Chevalier Historical Narratives of Global Modern Art Irina D. Costache,Clare Kunny,2023-07-31 Diversifying the current art historical scholarship this edited volume presents the untold story of modern art by exposing global voices and perspectives excluded from the privileged and uncontested narrative of isms This volume tells a worldwide story of art with expanded historical narratives of modernism The chapters reflect on a wide range of issues topics and themes that have been marginalized or outright excluded from the canon of modern art The goal of this book is to be a starting point for understanding modern art as a broad and inclusive field of study The topics examine diverse formal expressions innovative conceptual approaches and various media used by artists around the world and forcefully acknowledge the connections between art historical circumstances political environments and social issues such as gender race and social justice The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history imperial and colonial history modernism and globalization Pleasure

Wars: The Bourgeois Experience Victoria to Freud Peter Gay,1998-01-17 A master historian shows us a new side of the Victorian Era the role of the Bourgeois as reactionaries revolutionaries and middle of the roaders in the passage of high culture toward modernism The Victorians in this richly peopled narrative maneuvered through decades marked by frequent shifts in taste some seeking safety in traditional styles others drawn to the avant garde of artists composers and writers Peter Gay s panoramic survey offers a fresh view of the ideas and sensibilities that dominated Victorian culture

Impressionism John House,2004-01-01 A new perspective on Impressionist art that offers revealing fresh interpretations of familiar paintings In this handsome book a leading authority on Impressionist painting offers a new view of this admired and immensely popular art form John House examines the style and technique subject matter and imagery exhibiting and marketing strategies and social political and ideological contexts of Impressionism in light of the perspectives that have been brought to it in the last twenty years When all of these diverse approaches are taken into account he argues Impressionism can be seen as a movement that challenged both artistic and political authority with its uncompromisingly modern subject matter and its determinedly secular worldview Moving from the late 1860s to the early 1880s House analyzes the paintings and career strategies of the leading Impressionist artists pointing out the ways in which they countered the dominant conventions of the contemporary art world and evolved their distinctive and immediately recognizable manner of painting Focusing closely on the technique composition and imagery of the paintings themselves and combining this fresh appraisal with recent historical studies of Impressionism House explores how pictorial style could generate social and political meanings and opens new ways of looking at this luminous art Seeing and Beyond Deborah J. Johnson,David

Ogawa,Kermit Swiler Champa,2005 This volume is an exciting eclectic collection of essays in honor of Kermit S Champa a leading scholar of impressionism and critic of twentieth century art The lead essay by David Carrier is followed by others from several generations of scholars and museum curators trained by Professor Champa Together they cover an extremely wide historical range from the eighteenth to twenty first centuries and honor Professor Champa s own scholarly rigor methodological diversity and intellectual breadth through topics ranging from art history to cultural studies Jacket
