Handbook of Research on Perception-Driven Approaches to Urban Assessment and Design Aletta, Francesco, Xiao, Jiuling, 2018-01-05. The creation of metropolitan areas is influenced by a wide array of factors both practical and ecological. They can also be influenced by immaterial characteristics of a given area. The Handbook of Research on Perception Driven Approaches to Urban Assessment and Design is a scholarly resource that assesses metropolitan development and its relation to the ecological and sustainability issues these areas face. Featuring coverage on a wide range of topics such as user centered urban planning perception of urban landscapes and thermal comfort in urban contexts this publication is geared toward professionals practitioners researchers and students seeking relevant research on the effective planning of metropolitan areas and their relation to the ecological and sustainability issues that face such areas. Studies in Theology Randolph Sinks Foster, 1889. Studies in Perception and Action VI Gregory A. Burton, Richard C. Schmidt, 2001-05-01. This book is the sixth volume in the Studies in Perception and Action series and contains a collection of posters presented at the Eleventh International Conference on Perception and Action. The series provides a written record of the research presented at the poster sessions to help spur dialog among researchers at the conference and to provide a reference source afterward. Each volume presents new research almost always at the cutting edge of the discipline and gives a special place to younger scientists whose work contains the seeds which will determine the future growth and direction of the discipline. Studies in Perception and Action VI offers the reader not just a cross section of leading research at a given point in time but a mini history of ecological psychology and its development. Reception Studies and Audiovisual Translation Elena Di Giovanni, Yves Gambier, 2018-06-15. The coming of age of audiovisual translation studies has brought about a much needed surge of studies focusing on the audience their comprehension appreciation or rejection of what reaches them through the medium of translation. Although complex to perform studies on the reception of translated audiovisual texts offer a uniquely thorough picture of the life and afterlife of these texts. This volume provides a detailed and comprehensive overview of reception studies related to audiovisual translation and accessibility from a diachronic and synchronic perspective. Focusing on all audiovisual translation techniques and encompassing theoretical and methodological approaches from translation media and film studies it aims to become a reference for students and scholars across these fields. Studies in Perception and Action IV Mark A.
