Studies In The Gospels:

Studies in the Gospels James DeWolf Perry, 1925      Studies in the Gospel of Mark Martin Hengel, 2003-03-14 Here Professor Hengel argues with a wealth of documentation that the traditional views of the origin and tradition of the Gospel of Mark have far more to be said for them than has been usually allowed by modern New Testament scholars He argues that the tradition contained in the Gospel is that handed down by Peter through Mark and that the Gospel was written in Rome in AD 69 The famous note by Papias quoted in Eusebius Church History is not to be dismissed but has every appearance of being reliable Further evidence in support of this view can be found in a detailed consideration of the titles of the Gospels which must have been attached to the Gospels at a very early stage if only to identify them An appendix by the distinguished classical philologist Wolfgang Schadewaldt on The Reliability of the Synoptic Tradition is used to add further weight to the case With his customary learning Professor Hengel has produced a powerful argument which those who have held more radical views than his own will have to consider very carefully indeed if they are to continue to carry conviction      Studies in the Gospels Richard Chenevix Trench, 2008-06 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world's literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work      Studies in the Gospels Richard Chenevix Trench, 1878      Studies in the Gospel of Luke Robert Elliott Speer, 1892      Four Portraits of Jesus Elizabeth E.
