The long tradition of Kierkegaard studies has made it impossible for individual scholars to have a complete overview of the vast field of Kierkegaard research The large and ever increasing number of publications on Kierkegaard in the languages of the world can be simply bewildering even for experienced scholars The present work constitutes a systematic bibliography which aims to help students and researchers navigate the seemingly endless mass of publications The volume is divided into two large sections Part I which covers Tomes I V is dedicated to individual bibliographies organized according to specific language This includes extensive bibliographies of works on Kierkegaard in some 41 different languages Part II which covers Tomes VI VII is dedicated to shorter individual bibliographies organized according to specific figures who are in some way relevant for Kierkegaard The goal has been to create the most exhaustive bibliography of Kierkegaard literature possible and thus the bibliography is not limited to any specific time period but instead spans the entire history of Kierkegaard studies

No Moment Too Small Norvene Vest, 1994 In No Moment Too Small Vest focuses on three of the foundations of the Benedictine way silence the exploration of Scripture and other spiritual writings lectio divina and the hours of prayer These essentials of Benedict's sixth century rule of life offer a practical framework for spiritual growth in our own day a path to God through the events and people of ordinary lives In her discussion of lectio on life for example Vest provides insight on the reading of our lives as the text in which we find God's Word written in the ordinary events of daily life Exercises for individuals or groups follow each chapter on silence prayer and holy reading Excellent for Lenten study groups as well as ongoing prayer or Bible study groups Jews, Church & Civilization, Volume VII David Birnbaum, 2015-01-02 New Catholic World ,1988 SPIRITUAL ART THERAPY Ellen G. Horovitz, 2002-01-01 In this book therapists are urged to take into account the existence of spiritual aspects of personality both in terms of making proper assessments and more focused treatment plans for people under their care Although addressing itself chiefly to art therapists the thrust of the text is an attempt to sensitize all clinical practitioners to the spiritual dimensions of therapy By drawing on sources in the literature of religion psychodynamics systems theory sociology art and ethics the author lays a foundation for discovering and measuring clients spiritual sensibilities and search for personal meaning of their relationship to God Chapter 1 discusses the evolution of the book and how the author embarked upon the inclusion of the spiritual dimension in assessment and treatment Chapter 2 reviews the literature that encircles art therapy mental health and spirituality and explores its impact Chapter 3 examines the Belief Art Therapy Assessment BATA Chapter 4 highlights the interviews and use of the BATA with clergy while Chapter 5 explores its use with a normal adult artist population Chapter 6 looks at spiritual art therapy with emotionally disturbed children and youth in residential treatment Chapter 7 offers a case vignette of spiritual art therapy with a suicidal anorectic bulimic Chapter 8 summarizes the author s position and theosophy while Chapter 9 examines the use of phototherapy as a means to investigate mourning and loss issues The final chapter explores humankind s search for inner and outer meaning after the tragedy of September 11 In addition to art therapists this unique book will be useful to mental health workers social workers educational therapists pastoral counselors psychologists psychiatrists and other creative arts therapists     Resources in Education ,1998     Sifré to Deuteronomy Jacob Neusner,1997     Rabbinic

Narrative: A Documentary Perspective, Volume Four Jacob Neusner,2021-11-22 Each Rabbinic document from the Mishnah through the Bavli defines itself by a unique combination of indicative traits of rhetoric topic and particular logic that governs its coherent discourse But narratives in the same canonical compilations do not conform to the documentary indicators that govern in these compilations respectively They form an anomaly for the documentary reading of the Rabbinic canon of the formative age To remove that anomaly this project classifies the types and forms of narratives and shows that particular documents exhibit distinctive preferences among those types This detailed systematic classification of Rabbinic narrative supplies these facts concerning the classification of narratives and their regularities 1 what are the types and forms of narrative in a given document 2 how are these distinctive types and forms of narrative distributed across the canonical documents of the formative age the first six centuries C E The answers for the documentary preferences are in Volumes One through Three for the Mishnah Tosefta the Tannaite Midrash compilations and Rabbah Midrash compilations respectively Volume Four then sets forth the documentary history of each of the types of Rabbinic narrative including the authentic narrative the ma'aseh and the mashal How the traits of the several types of narratives shift as the respective types move from document to document is spelled out in complete detail This project opens an entirely new road toward the documentary analysis of Rabbinic narrative It fills out an important chapter in the documentary hypothesis of the Rabbinic canon in the formative age     The Components of the Rabbinic Documents: Sifré to Deuteronomy (3 pt.) Van Kaam,1983 British Education Index ,2005 A Philosopher at the Admiralty Peter Johnson,2012-05-29 This book is volume one of a two part series volumes sold separately Taken together the two volumes of A Philosopher at War examine the political thought of the philosopher and archaeologist R G Collingwood against the background of the First and Second World Wars Collingwood served in Admiralty Intelligence during the First World War and although he was not physically robust enough to play an active role in the Second World War he was swift to condemn the policies of appeasement which he thought largely responsible for bringing it about The author uses a blend of political philosophy history and discussion of political policy to uncover what Collingwood says about the First World War the Peace Treaty which followed it and the crises which led to the Second World War in 1939 together with the response he mustered to it before his death in 1943 The aim is to reveal the kind of liberalism he valued and explain why he valued it By 1940 Collingwood came to see that a liberalism separated from Christianity would be unable to meet the combined evils of Fascism and Nazism How Collingwood arrived at this position and how viable he finally considered it is the story told in these volumes Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory, 1990-91 R R Bowker Publishing,1990 Three Questions of Formative Judaism Jacob Neusner,2021-10-01 The academic study of Judaism requires a systematic inquiry into the history literature and religion and eventually the theology as revealed in the historical documents themselves Under this premise Three Questions of Formative Judaism encounters the canonical writings of Judaism in the context of their creation at a certain time and place How something is said thus becomes as important as what is said Bringing nearly fifty years of research to bear on these fundamental questions Jacob Neusner challenges his readers to face the difficult often unasked or neglected questions about the nature background and purposes of Rabbinic Judaism and rewards them with an enriched understanding and a stronger foundation for tackling the even more elusive questions concerning the theology of formative Judaism This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details
