Broderick,1985 A classic Topics include resource sharing networks the importance of nonbook formats the greater complexity of censorship challenges and the expansion of the library s informational role Encyclopedia of Library History Wayne A. Wiegand,Donald G. Jr. Davis,2015-01-28 First Published in 1994 This book focuses on the historical development of the library as an institution Its contents assume no single theoretical foundation or philosophical perspective but instead reflect the richly diverse opinions of its many contributors This text is intended to serve as a reference tool for undergraduate and graduate students interested in library history for library school educators whose teaching requires knowledge of the historical development of library institutions services and user groups and for practicing library professionals Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1979 Double Fold Nicholson Baker,2002-08-13 The ostensible purpose of a library is to preserve the printed word But for fifty years our country s libraries including the Library of Congress have been doing just the opposite destroying hundreds of thousands of historic newspapers and replacing them with microfilm copies that are difficult to read lack all the color and quality of the original paper and illustrations and deteriorate with age With meticulous detective work and Baker s well known explanatory power Double Fold reveals a secret history of microfilm lobbyists former CIA agents and warehouses where priceless archives are destroyed with a machine called a guillotine Baker argues passionately for preservation even cashing in his own retirement account to save one important archive all twenty tons of it Written the brilliant narrative style that Nicholson Baker fans have come to expect Double Fold is a persuasive and often devastating book that may turn out to be The Jungle of the American library system Frame by Frame Hannah Frank,2019-05-07 At publication date a free ebook version of this title will be available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In this beautifully written and deeply researched study Hannah Frank provides an original way to understand American animated cartoons from the Golden Age of animation 1920 1960 In the pre digital age of the twentieth century the making of cartoons was mechanized and standardized thousands of drawings were inked and painted onto individual transparent celluloid sheets called cels and then photographed in succession a labor intensive process that was divided across scores of artists and technicians In order to see the art labor and technology of cel animation Frank slows cartoons down to look frame by frame finding hitherto unseen aspects of the animated image What emerges is both a methodology and a highly original account of an art formed on the assembly line Walford's Guide to Reference Material Albert John Walford, Anthony P. Harvey, Laurence John Taylor, H. Drubba, 1980 The Academic Library in the United States Mark L. McCallon, John Mark Tucker, 2022-10-10 This book advances the belief that the library more than any other cultural institution collects curates and distributes the results of human thought Essays broaden the debate about academic libraries beyond only professional circles promoting the library as a vital resource for the whole of higher education Topics range from library histories to explorations of changing media Essayists connect modern libraries to the remarkable dream of Alexandria s ancient library facilitating groundbreaking research in every imaginable field of human interest past present and future Academic librarians who are most familiar with historical traditions are best qualified to promote the library as an important aspect of teaching and learning as well as to develop resources that will enlighten future generations of readers The intellectual tools for compelling constructive conversation come from the narrative of the library in its many iterations from the largest research university to the smallest liberal arts or community college Studies in Bibliography Fredson Bowers, 1989 Microform Market Place, 1992-1993 Barbara Hopkinson, 1993 Micropublishing Alan Meckler, 1982-06-29 Journal of the American Society for Information Science , 1990 College & Research Libraries News , 1979
