General partnership	Owner (partners) personally liable for business debts	Owner (partners) reports profits or loss on his or her personal tax return	Simple and inexpensive to create and operate. No filing necessary	General partners can leave easily without involving outside structure in management of business
Limited partnership	Limited partners have limited personal liability for business debts as long as they do not participate in management	Type and scope of return on investment (ROI) comparable to a dividend provided to limited partners by limited partnership typically outlined in partnership agreement	Variable usually for companies that need to raise money. More expensive to create than general partnership	Liable limited by a separate agreement (such as a partnership limited partners do not have management responsibility and are not responsible for partnership's debts)
Limited liability company (LLC)	Combines a corporation's liability protection and pass-through tax structure of a partnership	ROI rules now allow LLC's to choose between being taxed as partnership or corporation	More expensive to create than partnership or sole proprietorship	Member interests may be sold in accordance with corporate policy. Significantly less work involved in maintaining a corporation
Professional limited liability company (PLLC)	Members have no personal liability for malpractice of other members; however, they are liable for their own acts of malpractice	A single-member PLLC is treated as a disregarded tax entity, same as a sole proprietor, giving it pass-through tax treatment. A multiple-member PLLC treated as a partnership	Given state-focused professionals a way to enjoy LLC advantages. Members must all belong to same profession. Not available in all states	Members can specify rights and responsibilities, powers, PLLC financial matters, and rights and restrictions regarding ownership interests with full flexibility through a written operating agreement
C corporation	Owners have limited personal liability for business debts	Owners can pay a federal overall tax rate for dividing corporate profit among themselves and their company, a distinct taxable entity. If large benefits may be written off as an office expense	May have an unlimited number of shareholders. More expensive to create than partnership or sole proprietorship	More of work may be sold to raise capital. Meetings required to maintain corporate status
