economic change on social conflict in eighteenth century China He draws upon a large body of actual documented homicide cases originating in property disputes to recreate the social tensions of rural China during the Qianlong reign 1736 1795 The development of property rights a process that had begun in the Ming dynasty was accompanied by other changes that fostered disruption and conflict including an explosion in the population growth and the increasing strain on land and resources and increasing commercialization in agriculture Buoye challenges the markets and moral economy theories of economic behaviour Applying the theories of Douglass North for the first time to this subject he uses an institutional framework to explain seemingly irrational economic choices Buoye examines demographic and technological factors ideology and political and economic institutions in rural China to understand the link between economic and social change Jeff Herman's Guide to Book Publishers, Editors & Literary Agents Jeff Herman, 2003 A guide to the names and specialities of American and Canadian publishers editors and literary agents includes information on the acquisition process and on choosing literary agents Contract and Property in Early Modern China Madeleine Zelin, 2004-02-18 Providing a new perspective on economic and legal institutions particularly on contract and property in Qing and Republican history this volume provides case studies to explicate how these institutions worked while situating them firmly in their broader social context Beginner's Chinese Yong Ho, 2005-03 This popular introduction to Mandarin Chinese is now accompanied by 2 audio CDs covering each of the ten lessons with a special section devoted to the Pinyin dialect Each lesson uses dialogues to teach the basics of grammar vocabulary everyday speech and the written language Exercises reinforce the material covered in the dialogues and each lesson ends with a Cultural Insights section that offers a deeper view into the Chinese people Their way of thinking and the constants of their daily life The Garland Encyclopedia of World Music Robert C. underground Why was this particular church especially chosen to be the first re opened in Shanghai in 1979 What explanations are there for its phenomenal growth since then A considerable proportion of the data for this study is drawn from Chinese language sources including interviews personal correspondence statistics internal church documents and archives many of which have never previously been published or accessed by foreign researchers The main focus of this study is on the period from 1949 to 1989 a period in which the church experienced many ups and downs restrictions and limitations The Mao era in particular remains one of the least understood and seldom written about periods in the history of Christianity in China This study therefore makes a significant contribution to our evolving understanding of the delicate balancing act between compromise co operation and compliance that categorizes church state relations in modern China
