ABSTRACT

Street vendors are an integral part of urban economies around the world, offering easy access to a wide range of goods and services in public spaces. Even though street vendors are considered as informal, they are the vital contributors to Urban economies. In this 21st century most of the people are street vendors. The Informal Economy Monitoring Study (IEMS) revealed, ways in which street vendors are strengthening their communities: Street vending plays a major role in employment creation, production, and income generation. Street vendors are facing many problems in the workplace from the public, police personnel, politicians and local roudies. The study investigated their Problems and prospects within the Visakhapatnam beach region. The government of India (Ministry of Housing and Urban Poverty Alleviation) passed the street vendors Bill 2013 in order to improve their standard of living. Street trade also adds vibrancy to urban life and in many places is considered a cornerstone of historical and cultural heritage. In this study, the researchers evaluated the problems faced by street vendors in their workplace and the prospects needed to get facilitated. The researchers selected 110 respondents from R.K.Beach to Bheemili Beach, located in Visakhapatnam Corporation by adopting convenient sampling and the study is descriptive in nature. Interview method was used to collect data. This study aims to find out the problems faced by the street vendors and prospects needed, in order to protect their rights and do their street vending business. The paper provides spatial solutions for policy measures for regulating these informal entrepreneurs.

Keywords: Informal entrepreneurs, Street Vendor Problems, Informal Economy Monitoring Study, Urban economies, cultural heritage.

1. Introduction

An entrepreneur has to function within limits of freedom and has to choose from limited opportunity. Key element of successful entrepreneurship is to make prudent choices from those available, and act upon the choices incrementally (not at one go) at various stages of development of the business, these choices are neither fully subject to environmental forces, nor to the absolute free will of the entrepreneur alone (Ray and Ramchandra, 1996).
