The Challenge of Blackness Derrick E. White, 2011-09-01 The Challenge of Blackness examines the history and legacy of the Institute of the Black World IBW one of the most important Black Freedom Struggle organizations to emerge in the aftermath of the assassination of Dr Martin Luther King Jr A think tank based in Atlanta the IBW sought to answer King's question Where do we go from here Its solution was to organize a broad array of leading Black activists scholars and intellectuals to find ways to combine the emerging academic discipline of Black Studies with the Black political agenda Throughout the 1970s debates over race and class in the United States grew increasingly hostile and the IBW's approach was ultimately unable to challenge the growing conservatism By using the IBW as the lens through which to view these turbulent years Derrick White provides an exciting new interpretation of the immediate post civil rights years in America

The Essential Writings of Robert A. Hill Adam Ewing, 2024-02-13 Bringing together Robert A Hill s most important writings for the first time this collection serves as a testament to Hill's legacy as a pioneering scholar activist archive builder and editor who shaped the study of Garveyism and pan Africanism

The Legacy of Walter Rodney in Guyana and the Caribbean Arnold Gibbons, 2011 Rodney claimed developing countries were heirs to uneven development and ethnic disequilibrium and was disturbed by the inability of intellectuals to share a common cause with the masses He sought to lift the Caribbean people from the victimization of history and the poverty

Looking Within Nancy Morejón, 2003 The African Cuban poet Nancy Morejón set out at a young age to explore the beauty and complexities of the life around and within her Themes of social and political concern loyalty friendship and family African identity women's experiences and hope for Cuba's future all found their way into her poems through bold metaphor and tender lyricism This panoramic anthology selected from ten volumes of Morejón's work and organized by theme contains some poems that have already been acclaimed in several languages others that are less known and some never before published Overall they present to Morejón's readership an enhanced broader and updated spectrum of her poetry in a Spanish English edition Although Morejón does not sympathize as much with intellectualized feminism as with street feminism the kind that erupts with force as it confronts daily life her poems illuminate issues in women's existence Without intending to she has revitalized contemporary Caribbean feminist literary discourse One can find in her work the tensions between colonizer and colonized dominator and dominated and at the same time enjoy the sheer beauty of images depicting suffering strength and hope

The Paradox of Freedom David Scott, Orlando Patterson, 2023-04-25 The Paradox of Freedom is an exploration of the life and work of Orlando Patterson probing the relationship between the circumstances of his life from their beginnings in rural Jamaica to the present and the complex development of his intellectual work A novelist and historical sociologist with an orientation toward public engagement Patterson exemplifies one way of being a Jamaican and Black Atlantic intellectual At the generative center of Patterson's work has been a fundamental inquiry into the internal dynamics of slavery as a mode of social and existential domination What is most provocatively significant in his work on slavery is the way it yields a paradoxical insight into the problem of freedom namely that freedom was born existentially and historically from the degradation and parasitic inhumanity of slavery and was as much the creation of the enslaved as of their enslavers The Paradox of Freedom elucidates the pathways by which Patterson has both uncovered the relationship between domination and freedom and engaged intellectually and publicly with the struggles for equality and decolonization among descendants of the enslaved It will be of great interest to students and scholars throughout the humanities and social sciences and to anyone interested in the work of one of the most important public intellectuals of our time

George Padmore and Decolonization from Below L. James, 2014-10-14 This book argues that the rising tide of anti colonialism after the 1930s should be considered a turning point not just in harnessing a new mood or feeling of unity but primarily as one that viewed empire racism and economic degradation as part of a system that fundamentally required the application of strategy to their destruction

Companion to African-American Studies Jane Anna Gordon, Lewis Gordon, 2008-04-15 A Companion to African American Studies is an exciting and comprehensive re appraisal of the history and future of African American studies Contains original essays by expert contributors in the field of African American Studies Creates a groundbreaking re appraisal of the history and future of the field Includes a series of reflections from those who established African American Studies as a bona fide academic discipline Captures the dynamic interaction of African American Studies with other fields of inquiry Fifty Key

Thinkers on Development David Simon, 2006 The essential guide to the world's most influential development thinkers this authoritative text presents a unique guide to the lives and ideas of leading contributors to the contested terrain of development studies Reflecting the diverse interdisciplinary nature of the area the book includes entries on modernisers like Hirshman Kindleberger and Rostow dependencistas such as Frank Cardoso and Amin progressives like Prebisch Helleiner and Streeten political leaders enunciating radical alternative visions of development such as Mao Nkrumah and Nyerere progenitors of religiously or spiritually inspired development such as Gandhi and Ariyaratne development environment thinkers like Blaikie Brookfield and Shiva This is a fascinating and readable introduction to the major figures that have shaped the field ideal for anyone studying or working in the area Rastafari in the New Millennium Michael

Barnett, 2014-06-05 In the dawn of the new African Millennium the Rastafari movement has achieved unheralded growth and visibility since its inception more than eighty years ago Moving beyond a pure spiritual movement its aesthetic component has influenced cultures of the Caribbean the United States and others across the globe Locating the Rastafari movement at a literal and figurative crossroad Barnett sets out to consider the possible paths the movement will chart Rastafari in the New Millennium covers a wide range of perspectives focusing not only on the movement's nuanced and complex religious ideology but also on its political philosophy cosmology and unique epistemology Barry Chevannes's essay addresses the concerns of death and repatriation highlighting the transformative challenges these issues pose to Rastafari Essays by Ian Boxill Edward Te Kohu Douglas Erin C MacLeod and Janet L DeCosmo among others offer rich accounts of the globalization of Rastafari from New Zealand to Ethiopia from Brazil to Nigeria Drawing on new research and global developments the contributors many of whom are leading scholars in the field reinvigorate the critical dialogue on the current state and future direction of the Rastafari movement American Africans in Ghana Kevin K. Gaines, 2012-12-30 In 1957 Ghana became one of the first sub Saharan African nations to gain independence from colonial rule Over the next decade hundreds of African Americans including Martin Luther King Jr George Padmore Malcolm X Maya Angelou Richard Wright Pauli Murray and Muhammad Ali visited or settled in Ghana Kevin K Gaines explains what attracted these Americans to Ghana and how their new community was shaped by the convergence of the Cold War the rise of the U S civil rights movement and the decolonization of Africa Kwame Nkrumah Ghana's president posed a direct challenge to U S hegemony by promoting a vision of African liberation continental unity and West Indian federation Although the number of African American expatriates in Ghana was small in espousing a transnational American citizenship defined by solidarities with African peoples these activists along with their allies in the United States waged a fundamental if largely forgotten struggle over the meaning and content of the cornerstone of American citizenship the right to vote conferred on African Americans by civil rights reform legislation Women and Resistance in the Early Rastafari Movement Daive Dunkley, 2021-10-13 Winner of the Barbara T Christian Literary Award Women and Resistance in the Early Rastafari Movement is a pioneering study of women's resistance in the emergent Rastafari movement in colonial Jamaica As D A Dunkley demonstrates Rastafari women had to contend not only with the various attempts made by the government and nonmembers to suppress the movement but also with oppression and silencing from among their own ranks Dunkley examines the lives and experiences of a group of Rastafari women between the movement's inception in the 1930s and Jamaica's independence from Britain in the 1960s uncovering their sense of agency and resistance against both male domination and societal opposition to their Rastafari identity Countering many years of scholarship that privilege the stories of Rastafari men Women and Resistance in the Early Rastafari Movement reclaims the voices and narratives of early Rastafari women in the history of the Black liberation struggle Black Heretics, Black Prophets Anthony Bogues, 2015-12-22 First published in 2003 This pioneering new book surveys the political thought of a selection of influential black thinkers in provocative exploration of the black radical tradition as it has evolved in the Caribbean Africa and the United States Each chapter focuses on key figures or social movement including the slave Cugoano the American anti lynching activist Ida B Wells Barnett C L R James W E B Du Bois former leader of the anti colonial movement in Tanzania Julius Nyerere Walter Rodney the political philosophy of Rastafari and the activist musician Bob Marley This book is essential reading for anyone interested in the history of radical black thought and the development of an activist political tradition Guyana Diaries Kimberly D Nettles, 2016-07 The author an African American researcher explores the impact of work family politics and local culture on the lives of members of a women's work collective in the Caribbean and in the process discovers how differences in class and nation can overshadow the gender and race she shares with her subjects Encyclopedia of the African Diaspora Carole Boyce Davies, 2008-07-29 The authoritative source for information on the people places and events of the African Diaspora spanning five continents and five centuries The field of African Diaspora studies is rapidly growing Until now there was no single authoritative source for information on this broad complex discipline Drawing on the work of over 300 scholars this encyclopedia fills that void Now the researcher from high school level up can go to a single reference for information on the historical political economic and cultural relations between people of African descent and the rest of the world community Five hundred years of relocation and dislocation of assimilation and separation have produced a rich tapestry of history and culture into which are woven people places and events This authoritative accessible work picks out the strands of the tapestry telling the story of diverse peoples separated by time and distance but retaining a commonality of origin and experience Organized in A Z sections covering global topics
