- There have also been concerns that a significant proportion of children literature is based on the need to shed insight into the experiences of white children while ignoring those of the black ones.
- A study carried out by Edmonds on 952 children's picture books revealed that the key characters in 57% of them were white children. Unfortunately, only 7% and 2% of the books focused on the issues among blacks and Native Americans.
- This means that children literature makes children biased by enhancing them to gain insight into the issues that affect whites only.
