our carbon footprint adapting new mobility technologies and improving the quality of our journeys The book shows how our travel choices are shaped by a wide range of social physical psychological and cultural factors which have profound implications for the design of future transport policies Offering thought provoking and practical new perspectives this fascinating book will be essential for all those who have ever wondered why we travel and how it relates to our fundamental needs Windows on Japan Bruce Roscoe,2007 Going Places Robert Burgin,2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read alike with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places A Reader's Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read alike and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing Richard Nixon John A. Farrell,2017-03-28 PULITZER PRIZE FINALIST From a prize winning biographer comes the defining portrait of a man who led America in a time of turmoil and left us a darker age We live today John A Farrell shows in a world Richard Nixon made At the end of WWII navy lieutenant Nick Nixon returned from the Pacific and set his cap at Congress an idealistic dreamer seeking to build a better world Yet amid the turns of that now legendary 1946 campaign Nixon's finer attributes gave way to unapologetic ruthlessness The story of that transformation is the stunning overture to John A Farrell's magisterial biography of the president who came to embody postwar American resentment and division Within four years of his first victory Nixon was a U S senator in six the vice president of the United States of America Few came so far so fast and so alone Farrell writes Nixon's sins as a candidate were legion and in one unlawful secret plot as Farrell reveals here Nixon acted to prolong the Vietnam War for his own political purposes Finally elected president in 1969 Nixon packed his staff with bright young men who devised forward thinking reforms addressing health care welfare civil rights and protection of the environment It was a fine legacy but Nixon cared little for it He aspired to make his mark on the world stage instead and his 1972 opening to China was the first great crack in the Cold War Nixon had another legacy too an America divided and polarized He was elected to end the war in Vietnam but his bombing of Cambodia and Laos enraged the antiwar movement It was Nixon who launched the McCarthy era who played white against black with a southern strategy and spurred the Silent Majority to despise and distrust the country's elites Ever insecure and increasingly paranoid he persuaded Americans to gnaw as he did on grievances and to look at one another as enemies Finally in August 1974 after two years of the mesmerizing intrigue and scandal of Watergate Nixon became the only president to resign in disgrace Richard Nixon is a gripping and unsparing portrayal of our darkest president Meticulously researched brilliantly crafted and offering fresh revelations it will be hailed as a master work

Mapping ASEAN David Carden, 2019-09-10 For half a century ten dynamic nations in Southeast Asia have been implementing a shared vision of economic growth sustainable development and cultural progress Today the economies of those nations are linked inextricably with the future of greater Asia as well as with the United States and the other Western countries With authoritarianism and protectionism on the rise around the world and the catastrophic effects of global warming making action urgent the nations that form the Association of Southeast Asia Nations are more relevant and under greater political and social stress than ever In these illuminating pages David Carden the first American resident ambassador to ASEAN paints a vivid portrait of the regional and global cooperation required to meet today and interconnected future Carden takes us behind the scenes as the leaders of these ten nations work to prepare their countries and their region for the 21st century Carden persuasively argues that the unfolding story of the ASEAN nations is a story for the entire world that we are all increasingly interdependent and confronted with the existential need to solve the same set of challenges

The Consul's File Paul Theroux, 2011-08-04 Award winning writer Paul Theroux takes us on a journey through small town Malaysia through the eyes of the exuberant Spencer Savage in his breathtaking novel The Consul's File Spencer Savage a young American consul is posted to Ayer Hitam a small Malaysian town in the 1970s Told to close down this remote outpost in the sweltering jungle he instead finds himself drawn to the many characters he meets among the Malays Indians Japanese Chinese and the clubbable expat Brits Through his eyes we see the rich tapestry of multi ethnic life in post colonial Malaysia from adultery to murder from ghost stories to the murky waters of diplomatic politics It is a brilliant portrait of a vanished time a lost landscape and scattered peoples A cool and witty sequence a polished and professional performance Guardian Theroux's writing is at its most adventurous in The Consul's File There is no book I can compare this to Mr Theroux's artistry is individual serene yet also grainy with fierce truths The Times American travel writer Paul Theroux is known for the rich descriptions of people and places that is often streaked with his distinctive sense of irony his novels and collected short stories My Other Life The Collected Stories My Secret History The Lower River The Stranger at the Palazzo d Oro A Dead Hand Millroy the Magician The Elephant Suite Saint Jack The Family Arsenal The Mosquito Coast and his works of non fiction including the iconic The Great Railway Bazaar are available from Penguin

Clarence Thomas and the Tough Love Crowd Ronald Suresh Roberts, 1996-10 In recent years black neoconservatism has captured the national imagination Clarence Thomas sits on the Supreme Court Stephen Carter's opinions on topics ranging from religion to the confirmation process are widely quoted The New Republic has written that black neoconservative Thomas Sowell was having a greater influence on the discussion of matters of race and ethnicity than any other writer of the past ten years In this compelling and vividly argued book Ronald Roberts reveals how this attention has turned an eccentricity into a movement Black neoconservatives Roberts believes have no real constituency but as was the case with Clarence Thomas are held up and proclaim themselves as simply and ruthlessly honest as above mere self interest and crude political loyalties They profess a concern for those they criticize claiming to possess an objective truth which sets them apart from their critics in the establishment Left They claim to be outsiders even while sustained by the culture s most powerful institutions As they level attacks at the activist organizations they perceive as moribund every significant argument they advance rests on fervent mantras of harsh truths and simple realities Enlisting the ideal of impartiality as a partisan weapon this Tough Love Crowd has elevated the familiar wisdom of Spare the rod and spoil the child to the arena of national politics Turning to their own writings and proclamations Roberts here serves up a devastating critique of such figures as Clarence Thomas Shelby Steele Stephen Carter and V S Naipaul Tough Love International Clarence Thomas and the Tough Love Crowd marks the emergence of a provocative and powerful voice on our cultural and political landscape a voice which holds those who subscribe to this polemically powerful ideology accountable for their opinions and actions Literature of Travel and Exploration Jennifer Speake,2014-05-12 Containing more than 600 entries this valuable resource presents all aspects of travel writing There are entries on places and routes Afghanistan Black Sea Egypt Gobi Desert Hawaii Himalayas Italy Northwest Passage Samarkand Silk Route Timbuktu writers Isabella Bird Ibn Battuta Bruce Chatwin Gustave Flaubert Mary Kingsley Walter Raleigh Wilfrid Thesiger methods of transport and types of journey balloon camel grand tour hunting and big game expeditions pilgrimage space travel and exploration genres buccaneer narratives guidebooks New World chronicles postcards companies and societies East India Company Royal Geographical Society Society of Dilettanti and issues and themes censorship exile orientalism and tourism For a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample entries and more visit the Literature of Travel and Exploration An Encyclopedia website Blinding Light Paul Theroux,2006-06 Explores creative genius and fame through the life of a writer whose search for a muse has led him into dangerous and destructive places The Elephanta Suite Paul Theroux,2008-09-18 In this candid perceptive and intelligent trio of novellas the acclaimed travel writer presents tales of Westerners transformed by sojourns in India Independent UK These three intertwined novellas by the author of The Great Railway Bazaar capture the tumult ambition hardship and serenity that mark today s India Theroux s Westerners risk venturing far beyond the subcontinent s well worn paths to discover truth peace or woe A middle aged couple on vacation veers heedlessly from idyll to chaos A buttoned up Boston lawyer finds succor in Mumbai s reeking slums And a young woman befriends an elephant in Bangalore We also meet Indian characters as singular as they are reflective of the country s subtle ironies an executive who yearns to become a holy beggar an earnest young striver whose personality is rewired by acquiring an American accent a miracle working guru and others As ever Theroux s portraits of people and places explode stereotypes to exhilarating effect Action Research for Professional Selling Peter McDonnell,Jean McNiff,2016-03-23 Action Research for Professional Selling by Peter McDonnell and Jean McNiff is for people working or hoping to work in sales who wish to improve their capacity for selling and who may be involved in providing or participating in a structured sales training programme It provides a basis for professional selling that connects the sales process to different philosophical models for understanding human interactions and contains much practical advice for selling in a tough economic environment Action research is used across the professions as a powerful methodology for improving performance and outcomes and will enable sales practitioners to generate their practical theories of selling The book answers calls for evidence based practice in sales education placing special emphasis on the strength of a values based approach over the outmoded manipulative models of the past many of which are still in evidence It is essential to develop your understanding of what you are doing and be able to explain it and the book shows you how to do this through researching your practice in action It focuses seriously on selling as a field of research offering an innovative practical approach to selling underpinned by strong theoretical and philosophical frameworks Literary Culture in Colonial Ghana

Stephanie Newell, 2002-08-30 a book that will break new ground in African cultural studies it will appeal not only to literary scholars but also to social historians and cultural anthropologists Karin Barber Focusing on the broad educational aims of the colonial administration and missionary societies Stephanie Newell draws on newspaper archives early unofficial texts and popular sources to uncover how Africans used literacy to carve out new cultural social and economic spaces for themselves Newly literate Africans not only shaped literary tastes in colonial Africa but also influenced how and where English was spoken established standards for representations of gender identity and morality and created networks for African literary production dissemination and reception throughout British West Africa Newell reveals literacy and reading as powerful social forces that quickly moved beyond the missionary agenda and colonial regulation A fascinating literary social and cultural history of colonial Ghana Literary Culture in Colonial Ghana sheds new light on understandings of the African colonial experience and the development of postcolonial cultures in West Africa Sir Vidia's Shadow Paul Theroux, 2014-02-11

The acclaimed writer shares an intimate portrait of his former mentor V S Naipaul in this memoir of their thirty year friendship and sudden falling out Paul Theroux was a young aspiring writer when he met the legendary V S Naipaul in Uganda in 1966 There began a friendship that would span continents as both men ascended the ranks of literary stardom Naipaul's early encouragement of Theroux's talent had a profound impact on him yet the apprenticeship was not always easy This heartfelt and revealing account of Theroux's thirty year friendship with Naipaul explores the unique effect each writer had on the other Built around exotic landscapes anecdotes that are revealing humorous and melancholy and three decades of mutual history this is a personal account of how one develops as a writer and how a friendship waxes and wanes between two men who have set themselves on the perilous journey of a writing life A New York Times Notable Book
