Handbook of Gentrification Studies Loretta Lees, Martin Phillips, 2018-04-27

It is now over 50 years since the term gentrification was first coined by the British urbanist Ruth Glass in 1964, in which time gentrification studies has become a subject in its own right. This Handbook, the first ever in gentrification studies, is a critical and authoritative assessment of the field. Although the Handbook does not seek to rehearse the classic literature on gentrification from the 1970s to the 1990s in detail, it is referred to in the new assessments of the field gathered in this volume. The original chapters offer an important dialogue between existing theory and new conceptualisations of gentrification for new times and new places, in many cases offering novel empirical evidence.

The Community Land Trust Legal Manual, 2002 Creating Community-Led and Self-Build Homes Martin Field, 2020-06-24

In Creating Community Led and Self Build Homes Martin Field explores the ways in which people and communities across the UK have been striving to create the homes and neighbourhood communities they want. Giving context to contemporary practices in the UK, the book examines self-build housing and community-led housing, discussing the commonalities and distinctions between these in practice and what could be learned from other initiatives across Europe. Individual methods and models of local practice are explored, including cohousing, cooperatives, community land trusts, empty homes and other intentional communities, and an examination is made of what has constrained such initiatives to date and how future policies and practice might be shaped.
