The Search Committee Handbook

Theodore J. Marchese, Jane Fiori Lawrence, 2023-07-03 Reviews of the first edition Finally higher education has an intelligent guide for recruiting administrators an activity often taken for granted and not always thoughtfully carried out Paul A. Elsner Maricopa Community College District The book we've needed the Turabian of search James M. Heffernan State University of New York This Handbook focuses on administrative searches below the level of the presidency the searches for vice presidents deans directors and coordinators for which the appointment of a search committee is the norm It is written for practitioners for the institutional leaders who will plan the search form the committee and later make the appointment as well as for the chair and members of the search committee itself It is intended as a guide and a fund of ideas to promote better more informed and more effective practice The second edition of this acclaimed book reflects the extensive changes that have taken place in the hiring climate Video conferencing allows travel free interviewing The Web permits desktop research and has given rise to the online posting of openings Federal and state regulations about hiring and employment have grown apace The use of search firms has expanded from the presidency to other administrative posts The shift in student demographics is increasing the need for faculty staff diversity Perhaps the most significant change is the recent sharp decline in the size of applicant pools for administrative posts All these factors add up to a different and more challenging set of tasks for campus leadership and search committees To unpack these issues the Atlantic Philanthropies provided a grant to AAHE and the Academic Search Consultation Service to fund a national advisory board undertake extensive literature reviews and conduct focus groups and numerous interviews with committee chairs and others The new edition of this classic and authoritative source of advice for finding selecting and appointing the best people to key administrative positions is informed by this extensive research

The Complete Academic Search Manual

Lauren A. Vicker, Harriette J. Royer, 2023-07-03 Covers searches for all faculty staff and administrative positions Emphasizes aligning hires to departmental and institutional goals Describes proven practices for successful outcomes Successful academic searches where high caliber college faculty and administrators are recruited and retained are critical to the vitality and sustainability of every institution In higher education many faculty and administrators are thrust into the role of academic search with little preparation other than their own experience of being interviewed Typically search committees also have to manage the process in the context of already heavy workloads This manual provides faculty members department heads chairs deans and members of search committees with a straightforward ten step process using proven strategies and systematic planning designed to facilitate group dynamics while members seek out and identify high caliber candidates and reach consensus on the best one for the institution This book concisely lays out everything committee members need to know replete with real life examples from diverse institutions sample forms timelines and checklists The process begins with the composition of the committee understanding its charge and the responsibilities of the chair and its members It then leads the committee through the steps of drawing up the position description using input from all stakeholders publicizing the position evaluating resumes planning and conducting interviews narrowing the pool to the final selection and negotiation processes Throughout the authors attend to issues of diversity and inclusion aligning the hire with institutional goals and avoiding legal pitfalls Equally importantly they set out a framework for welcoming acclimating and retaining new hires to ensure the return on the institution's substantial investment of time and expense to recruit them

In Search of a Leader Robert W. Dingman, 1989 Searching for a Pastor the Presbyterian Way Dean E. Foose, 2000-09-01 This practical manual is a step by step guide for pulpit nominating committees in the Presbyterian Church U S A In several brief chapters Dean Foose tells committees how to get organized how to compose the congregational information materials how to compile a list of candidates what kinds of questions to ask in an interview and other essential tips and tactics for finding the right pastor

Search Committees Christopher D. Lee, 2023-07-03 Finding the right candidate for administrative professional and faculty positions is one of the most important tasks that any institution or enterprise undertakes However few higher education professionals receive training on the search committee process but are expected to serve on or lead committees This book provides advice training and a step by step guide for conducting a rigorous thorough search Following the expert model presented in this book will virtually guarantee successful searches This guide furthermore provides advanced diversity selection techniques that are not commonly found in many resources inside or outside of higher education and that have become institutional priorities in the context of demographic changes and globalization that require that higher education serve more diverse populations and compete internationally This guide covers the complete cycle of hiring starting with defining the position and forming and briefing the committee through cultivating a rich and diverse pool of candidates and screening and evaluating candidates to making the selection successfully completing the search successfully and welcoming colleagues to campus This volume includes over 30 templates that are designed to be copied and used as training handouts or as handy reference and resource materials that provide guidance at various stages of the search process The over two dozen vignettes included can be used as training case studies or as expert advice that illuminates key concepts that are helpful with improving the quality of the search process The guide includes 1 An expert step by step search model 2 Dozens of templates samples tools plus a bank of interview questions 3 Diversity recruitment and selection protocols and techniques 4 Resource guide with advice case studies examples and training materials Coverage includes How to Build a Successful Search Recruiting Guide How to Design a Diverse Selection Process Minority Recruiting Resources Interview Guide A Bank of Interview Questions Screening Methods Sample Forms Templates Checklists Legal Ethical and Regulatory Issues This guide serves the needs of administrators who shape hiring policy and goals committee chairs and members It is also a resource that human resources professionals can use to train equip and support search committees A complementary website
