The Context Of Scripture:

The Context of Scripture William W. Hallo, K. Lawson Younger, David E. Orton, 1997 The Context of Scripture illuminatingly presents the multi faceted world of ancient writing that forms the colourful background to the literature of the Hebrew Bible Designed as a thorough and durable reference work for all engaged in the study of the Bible and the Ancient Near East and involving many of the world s outstanding scholars in the field it provides reliable access to a broad balanced and representative collection of Ancient Near Eastern texts that have some bearing on the interpretation of the Bible Translations of recently discovered texts are included alongside new translations of better known texts and in some cases the best existing translations of such texts The substantial three volume work with its specially designed page layout and large format features full cross referencing to comparable Bible passages and new up to date bibliographical annotations with judicious commentary Its many distinct advantages over other collections will ensure the place of The Context of Scripture as a standard reference work for the 21st century Volume 3 Archival Documents from the Biblical World provides a generous selection from the vast number of legal commercial and private documents preserved from pre classical antiquity These courtcases contracts accounts and letters so often slighted or underrepresented in older anthologies throw a bright light on the daily life of ordinary human beings as recorded by their contemporaries In addition exhaustive indices to all three volumes identify and classify all proper names and many of the themes struck throughout the work With this third Volume The Context of Scripture is completed

Scripture in Context II William W. Hallo, James C. Moyer, Leo G. Perdue, 1983 In the summers of 1978 and 1980 William W Hallo directed two National Endowment for the Humanities Summer Seminars both of which had the title Biblical History in its Near Eastern Setting These seminars conducted at Yale University have now resulted in two related collections of essays This second collection Scripture in Context II had its origins in the 1980 seminar Both seminars investigated in chronological sequence the major phases of ancient Near Eastern history and focused on the history literary traditions and religion of ancient Israel within the context of her cultural environs A major concern was to recognize and explore the implications of the way in which the native biblical and extra biblical literary traditions rendered account of themselves The methodology followed in the seminars and the resulting essays is the contextual approach This approach to the study of biblical history literature and religion is concerned not only to discover illuminating and insightful parallels between biblical and extrabiblical sources but also to note and recognize the implications of significant and important differences Jacket
