

The feeling of the nation must be quickened; the conscience of the nation must be roused; the propriety of the nation must be startled; the hypocrisy of the nation must be exposed; and its crimes against God and man must be denounced.

The Conscience Of A Nation:

The Conscience of a Nation G. D. Smith, M. H. Threadgill, 2001-03-28 This novella based on Pythagorean ideas is an attempt to enable an individual to string a bridge from the intimate microcosm of their individuality to the macrocosm of the universe as we know it today The string from which we all hang in today's world is conscience which is composed of a set of psychological internal beliefs to which an individual ascribes to as that which governs their behavior But when one's action is in opposition to that which one professes to believe the internal belief system becomes a tattered string hanging precariously to immorality In the heat of battle we adopt and internalize the external national constitution that most Americans profess to fight for uphold and die for But few really believe or understand it This is a narrative beginning with a blind WWII Veteran in Arlington National Cemetery for our war dead He is seeking to verify that the inscriptions inscribed on certain headstones of his former comrades are what they desired Each inscription is purported to be a reminder to the living to keep the faith with themselves and their country The necessity to continue the march forwards from a practical democracy to accomplish a true democracy is reinforced by a group of terrorists who capture and threaten to blow up the Statue of Liberty unless America ceases supporting corrupt governments through out the world The Conscience of a Nation Russell L. Mast, 1967
