The Making of New World Slavery Robin Blackburn, 2010-08-02 The Making of New World Slavery argues that independent commerce geared to burgeoning consumer markets was the driving force behind the rise of plantation slavery The baroque state sought successfully to feed upon this commerce and with markedly less success to regulate slavery and racial relations To illustrate this thesis Blackburn examines the deployment of slaves in the colonial possessions of the Portuguese the Spanish the Dutch the English and the French Plantation slavery is shown to have emerged from the impulses of civil society not from the strategies of individual states Robin Blackburn argues that the organization of slave plantations placed the West on a destructive path to modernity and that greatly preferable alternatives were both proposed and rejected Finally he shows that the surge of Atlantic trade predicated on the murderous toil of the plantations made a decisive contribution to both the Industrial Revolution and the rise of the West

The End of Slavery in Africa and the Americas Ulrike Schmieder, Katja Füllberg-Stolberg, Michael Zeuske, 2011 For centuries social and economic relations within the Atlantic space were dominated by slavery and the transatlantic slave trade from Africa to the Americas By the slowly and arduously achieved end of this trade slave labour in the Americas was replaced in many cases by other forms of coerced labour of African Caribbean people or Indian Chinese African or European immigrants This book focuses on the transformation of societies after the slave trade and slavery in a comparative intercontinental perspective It combines micro and macro historical approaches and looks at the agency of slaves missionaries abolitionists state officials seamen and soldiers

Acts Passed by the General Assembly of South-Carolina South Carolina,1736 The Angry Divide Wilmot Godfrey James,Mary Simons,1989 American Orations: V. The anti-slavery struggle Alexander Johnston,James Albert Woodburn,1896 The Trouble with Minna Hendrik Hartog,2018-03-19 In this intriguing book Hendrik Hartog uses a forgotten 1840 case to explore the regime of gradual emancipation that took place in New Jersey over the first half of the nineteenth century In Minna s case white people fought over who would pay for the costs of caring for a dependent apparently enslaved woman Hartog marks how the peculiar language mobilized by the debate about care as a mere voluntary courtesy became routine in a wide range of subsequent cases about good Samaritans Using Minna s case as a springboard Hartog explores the statutes situations and conflicts that helped produce a regime where slavery was usually but not always legal and where a supposedly enslaved person may or may not have been legally free In exploring this liminal and unsettled legal space Hartog sheds light on the relationships between moral and legal reasoning and a legal landscape that challenges simplistic notions of what it meant to live in freedom What emerges is a provocative portrait of a distant legal order that in its contradictions and moral dilemmas bears an ironic resemblance to our own legal world

Robert Caldwell (F.R.G.S.),1897 Slavery and the Roman Literary Imagination William Fitzgerald,2000-03-09 This book explores the presence of slaves and slavery in Roman literature and asks particularly what the free imagination made of the experience of living with slaves beings who both were and were not fellow humans As a shadow humanity slaves furnished the free with other selves and imaginative alibis as well as mediators between and substitutes for their peers As presences that witnessed their owners most unguarded moments they possessed a knowledge that was the object of both curiosity and anxiety The book discusses not only the ideological relations of Roman literature to the institution of slavery but also the ways in which slavery provided a metaphor for a range of other relationships and experiences and in particular for literature itself It is arranged thematically and covers a broad chronological and generic field The Slave's Narrative Henry Louis Gates,1985 The autobiographical narratives of black ex slaves published in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries constitute the largest body of literature produced by slaves in human history Black slaves in the New World created a veritable literature of escape depicting the overwhelming horrors of human bondage These narratives served the abolitionist movement not only as evidence of the slaves degradation but also of their intellectual capacity Accordingly this literature has elicited a wealth of analysis and controversy from its initial publication right up to our day This volume charts the response to the black slave s narrative from 1750 to the present The book consists of three sections selected reviews of slave narratives dating from 1750 to 1861 essays examining how such narratives serve as historical material and essays exploring the narratives as literary artifacts

Bradley, Paul Cartledge, Seymour Drescher, 2011-07-25 The various manifestations of coerced labour between the opening up of the Atlantic world and the formal creation of Haiti The Concept of Religion Reflected in the Early Negro Spirituals Smith Jeffrey A., 2008 The aim of this book is the discussion of the social environment of the spirituals and to describe the conditions out of which the spirituals were born It does not propose to give a complete account of slave life rather the slave s religion as presented in the spirituals as born The Anti-slavery Crusade Jesse Macy, 1919 The Geography of Genocide Allan D. Cooper, 2009 The Geography of Genocide offers a unique analysis of over sixty genocides in world history explaining why genocides only occur in territorial interiors and never originate from cosmopolitan urban centers This study explores why genocides tend to result from emasculating political defeats experienced by perpetrator groups and examines whether such extreme political violence is the product of a masculine identity crisis Author Allan D Cooper notes that genocides are most often organized and implemented by individuals who have experienced traumatic childhood events involving the abandonment or abuse by their father Although genocides target religious groups nations races or ethnic groups these identity structures are rarely at the heart of the war crimes that ensue Cooper integrates research derived from the study of serial killing and rape to show certain commonalities with the phenomenon of genocide The Geography of Genocide presents various strategies for responding to genocide and introduces Cooper s groundbreaking alternatives for ultimately inhibiting the occurrence of genocide BOOK JACKET The Parables of Jesus Luise Schottroff, 1990 A premier New Testament scholar explores how Jesus trial and execution are portrayed in the New Testament and how that portrayal has affected biblical studies Christian theology and Jewish Christian relations through history Tomson has written an accessible responsible analysis of the biblical accounts of Jesus death demonstrating how through compounded misunderstandings they contributed to anti Jewish sentiment in the early church and later history Tomson s question of how Jesus is to be understood in his first century Judean context is a critical one not only for biblical scholars but for anyone concerned about human rights and interreligious dialogue today The Revised Statutes of Kentucky Kentucky, Charles Anderson Wickliffe, Squire Turner, Samuel Smith Nicholas, 1852
