From Empires to NGOs in the West African Sahel Gregory Mann, 2015 This book explains the shift from the government of empires to that of NGOs in the region just south of the Sahara It describes the ambitions of newly independent African states their political experiments and the challenges they faced No other book places black American activism Amnesty International and CARE together in the history of African politics

Transatlantic Africa Kwasi Konadu, 2018-11-14 Transatlantic Africa examines the internal workings of African and diasporic slave societies in the transatlantic era Emphasizing a global context and the multiplicity of African experiences during that period historian Kwasi Konadu interprets transatlantic slaving and its consequences through African and diasporic primary sources Based on careful reading of Africans oral histories archival documents and visual evidence the book connects those experiences to local and international slaving systems It also tackles the themes of commodification capitalism abolitionism and reparations By integrating these views with critical interpretations Transatlantic Africa balances intellectual rigor with broad accessibility helping readers to think anew about how transoceanic slaving made the modern world

Jews and the American Slave Trade Saul Friedman, 2017-09-29 The Nation of Islam's Secret Relationship between Blacks and Jews has been called one of the most serious anti-Semitic manuscripts published in years This work of so-called scholars received great celebrity from individuals like Louis Farrakhan Leonard Jeffries and Khalid Abdul Muhammed who used the document to claim that Jews dominated both transatlantic and antebellum South slave trades As Saul Friedman definitively documents in Jews and the American Slave Trade historical evidence suggests that Jews played a minimal role in the transatlantic South American Caribbean and antebellum slave trades Jews and the American Slave Trade dissects the questionable historical technique employed in Secret Relationship offers a detailed response to Farrakhan's charges and analyzes the impetus behind these charges He begins with in-depth discussion of the attitudes of ancient peoples Africans Arabs and Jews toward slavery and explores the Jewish role in colonial European economic life from the Age of Discovery to Napoleon His state-by-state analyses describe in detail the institution of slavery in North America from colonial New England to Louisiana Friedman elucidates the role of American Jews toward the great nineteenth-century moral debate the positions they took and explains what shattered the alliance between these two vulnerable minority groups in America Rooted in incontrovertible historical evidence provocative without being incendiary Jews and the American Slave Trade demonstrates that the anti-slavery tradition rooted in the Old Testament translated into powerful prohibitions with respect to any involvement in the slave trade This brilliant exploration will be of interest to scholars of modern Jewish history African American studies American Jewish history U S history and minority studies      Humanitarian Intervention Brendan Simms,D. J. B. Trim,2011-04-07 The dilemma of how best to protect human rights is one of the most persistent problems facing the international community today This unique and wide ranging history of humanitarian intervention examines responses to oppression persecution and mass atrocities from the emergence of the international state system and international law in the late sixteenth century to the end of the twentieth century Leading scholars show how opposition to tyranny and to religious persecution evolved from notions of the common interests of Christendom to ultimately incorporate all people under the concept of human rights As well as examining specific episodes of intervention the authors consider how these have been perceived and justified over time and offer important new insights into ideas of national sovereignty international relations and law as well as political thought and the development of current theories of international community      Africa in the World Frederick Cooper,2014-03-24 Of the many pathways out of empire why did African leaders follow the one that led to the nation state whose dangers were recognized by Africans in the 1940s and 50s Frederick Cooper revisits a long history in which Africans were empire builders the objects of colonization and participants in events that gave rise to global capitalism      The Routledge Handbook of Modern Economic History Robert Whaples,Randall Parker,2013-01-17 The Routledge Handbook of Modern Economic History aims to introduce readers to important approaches and findings of economic historians who study the modern world Its short chapters reflect the most up to date research and are written by well known economic historians who are authorities on their subjects Modern economic history blends two approaches Cliometrics which focuses on measuring economic variables and explicitly testing theories about the historical performance and development of the economy and the New Institutional Economics which focuses on how social cultural legal and organizational norms and rules shape economic outcomes and their evolution Part 1 of the Handbook introduces these approaches and other important methodological issues for economic history The most fundamental shift in the economic history of the world began about two and a half centuries ago when eons of slow economic change and faltering economic growth gave way to sustained rapid economic expansion Part 2 examines this theme and the primary forces economic historians have linked to economic growth stagnation and fluctuations including technological change entrepreneurship competition the biological environment war financial panics and business cycles Part 3 examines the evolution of broad sectors that typify a modern economy including agriculture banking transportation health care housing and entertainment It begins by examining an equally important sector of the economy which scholars have increasingly analyzed using economic tools religion Part 4 focuses on the work force and human outcomes including inequality labor markets unions education immigration slavery urbanization and the evolving economic roles of women and African Americans The text will be of great value to those taking economic history courses as well as a reference book useful to professional practitioners policy makers and the public The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian History Toyin Falola, Matthew M. Connecting Seas and Connected Ocean Rims, 2011-04-11 Long distance migration of peoples have been a central if little understood factor in global integration The essays in this collection contribute to a new history of world migrations written by specialists of particular areas of the world Collectively these essays point towards a shift from the regional migrations of individual seas and oceans of the early modern era toward nineteenth century labor migrations that connected the Pacific and Indian to the Atlantic Oceans Detailed case studies demonstrate the importance of human migration in the development consolidation and critique of empire building theories of race modern capitalism and large scale commercial agriculture and industry on every continent

The International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination Patrick Thornberry, 2016 This Oxford Commentary is the first comprehensive article by article analysis of the provisions of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination It discusses the conceptual and instrumental framework of the Convention and the CERD Committee and addresses some of the critical challenges confronting the Convention

Africa and the Africans in the Nineteenth Century: A Turbulent History Catherine Coquery-Vidrovitch, Mary Baker, 2015-02-12 Most histories seek to understand modern Africa as a troubled outcome of nineteenth century European colonialism but that is only a small part of the story In this celebrated book beautifully translated from the French edition the history of Africa in the nineteenth century unfolds from the perspective of Africans themselves rather than the European powers It was above all a time of tremendous internal change on the African continent Great jihads of Muslim conquest and conversion swept over West Africa In the interior warlords competed to control the internal slave trade In the east the sultanate of Zanzibar extended its reach via coastal and interior trade routes In the north Egypt began to modernize while Algeria was colonized In the south a series of forced migrations accelerated spurred by the progression of white settlement Through much of the century African societies assimilated and adapted to the changes generated by these diverse forces In the end the West's technological advantage prevailed and most of Africa fell under European control and lost its independence Yet only by taking into account the rich complexity of this tumultuous past can we fully understand modern Africa from the colonial period to independence and the difficulties of today

Manhood Enslaved Kenneth Edward Marshall, 2011 Manhood Enslaved reconstructs the lives of three male captives to bring greater intellectual and historical clarity to the muted lives of enslaved peoples in eighteenth and early nineteenth century central New Jersey where blacks were held in bondage for nearly two centuries The book contributes to an evolving body of historical scholarship arguing that the lives of bondpeople in America were shaped not only by the powerful forces of racial oppression but also by their own notions of gender The book uses previously understudied white authored nineteenth century literature about central New Jersey slaves as a point of departure Reading beyond the racist assumptions of the authors it contends that the precarious day to day existence of the three protagonists Yombo Melick Dick Melick and Quamino Buccau Smock provides revealing evidence about the various elements of slave manhood that gave real meaning to their oppressed lives Kenneth E Marshall is Assistant Professor of History at the State University of New York at Oswego

Migration in World History Patrick Manning, Tiffany Trimmer, 2020-05-04 In this third edition of Migration in World History Patrick

Manning presents an expanded and newly coherent view of migratory processes conveying new research and interpretation. The engaging narrative shows the continuity of migratory processes from the time of foragers who settled the earth to farmers opening new fields and merchants linking purchasers everywhere. In the last thousand years accumulation of wealth brought capitalism, industry and the travels of free and slave migrants. In a contest of civilizational hierarchy and movements of emancipation, nations arose to replace empires although conflicts within nations expelled refugees. The future of migration is now a serious concern. The new edition includes an introduction to the migration theories that explain the shifting patterns of migration in early and recent times. Quantification of changes in migration including international migration, domestic urbanization and growing refugee movements. A new chapter tracing twenty-first century migration and population from 2000 to 2050 showing how migrants escaping climate change will steadily outnumber refugees from other social conflicts. While migration is often stressful, it contributes to diversity, exchanges new perspectives and innovations. This comprehensive and up-to-date view of migration will stimulate readers with interests in many fields. Language and Civilization Change in South Asia Maloney, 1978-06

A Separate Canaan Jon F. Sensbach, 2012-12-01 In colonial North Carolina, German-speaking settlers from the Moravian Church founded a religious refuge, an ideal society they hoped whose blueprint for daily life was the Bible and whose Chief Elder was Christ himself. As the community's demand for labor grew, the Moravian Brethren bought slaves to help operate their farms, shops and industries. Moravians believed in the universalism of the gospel and baptized dozens of African Americans who became full members of tightly knit Moravian congregations. For decades, white and black Brethren worked and worshiped together, though white Moravians never abandoned their belief that black slavery was ordained by God. Based on German church documents including dozens of rare biographies of black Moravians, A Separate Canaan is the first full-length study of contact between people of German and African descent in early America. Exploring the fluidity of race in the Revolutionary era, America, it highlights the struggle of African Americans to secure their fragile place in a culture unwilling to give them full human rights. In the early nineteenth century, white Moravians forsook their spiritual inclusiveness, installing blacks in a separate church. Just as white Americans throughout the new republic rejected African American equality, the Moravian story illustrates the power of slavery and race to overwhelm other ideals.

The Creation of the British Atlantic World Elizabeth Mancke, Carole Shammas, 2015-10-15 Was the British Atlantic shaped more by imperial rivalries or by the actions of subnational groups with a variety of economic, social and religious agendas? The Creation of the British Atlantic World analyzes the interrelationship between these competing explanations for the development of the British Atlantic by examining migration patterns on both the macro and micro level. It also scrutinizes the roles played by trade, religion, ethnicity and class in linking Atlantic borders and the increasingly complicated legal, intellectual and emotional relationship between the British sovereign and colonial charterholders. Contributors include Joyce E. Chaplin, John E. Crowley, David Barry Gaspar, April Lee Hatfield, James Horn, Ray A. Kea, Elizabeth Mancke, Philip D. Morgan.

Economic History of West Africa A. G. Hopkins, 2019-10-17 This pioneering and celebrated work was the first and remains the standard account of the economic history of the huge area conventionally known as West Africa The book ranges from prehistoric times to independence and covers the former French territories as well as those colonised by the British It criticises conventional beliefs about economic backwardness offers an alternative account that explains the particular configuration of poverty that characterised the pre colonial period and assesses the consequences of the region's interaction with the wider world from the growth of the Saharan and Atlantic trades to the rise and demise of colonial rule This edition contains a substantial new Introduction that discusses the development of the subject during the past 50 years evaluates the debate over the original interpretation and provides a valuable guide to additional reading bringing the reader up to date with current scholarship on the subject as well as providing avenues for further independent research Appearing at a time when the study of African economic history is enjoying a revival and is engaging economists as well as historians the book fills a large gap in African studies provides newcomers with a stimulating point of entry into the subject and contributes to our understanding of wider issues of global underdevelopment
