Exploring the Ecologies of Music and Sound Makis Solomos, 2023-04-07 Makis Solomos explores the ecologies of music and sound inspired by Felix Guattari for whom environmental destruction caused by capitalism goes hand in hand with deteriorating ways of living and feeling and for whom an ecosophical stance combining various ecological registers offers a glimpse of emancipation a position strengthened today by intersectional approaches Solomos explores environmental mental and social ecologies through the lens of the history of music and current artivisms especially in the fields of acoustic ecology contemporary music and sound art Several theoretical and analytical debates are put forward including a theory of sound milieus and the biopolitics of sound the relationships between music and the living world soundscape compositions field recording ecomusicology and the creation of sound biotopes the use of sound and music to violent ends as well as considering the social and political functions of music and the autonomy of art sonic ecofeminism degrowth in music and much more The Sound of Architecture Angeliki Sioli, Elisavet Kiourtsoglou, 2022-05-18 How sound and its atmospheres transform architecture Acoustic atmospheres can be fleeting elusive or short lived Sometimes they are constant but more often they change from one moment to the next forming distinct impressions each time we visit certain places Stable or dynamic acoustic atmospheres have a powerful effect on our spatial experience sometimes even more so than architecture itself This book explores the acoustic atmospheres of diverse architectural environments in terms of scale program location or historic period providing an overview of how acoustic atmospheres are created perceived experienced and visualized The contributors explore how sound and its atmospheres transform architecture and space Their essays demonstrate that sound is a tangible element in the design and staging of atmospheres and that it should become a central part of the spatial explorations of architects designers and urban planners The Sound of Architecture will be of interest to architectural historians theorists students and practicing architects who will discover how acoustic atmospheres can be created without complex and specialized engineering It will also be of value to scholars working in the field of history of emotions as it offers evocative descriptions of acoustic atmospheres from diverse cultures and time periods Women Writing Music in Late Eighteenth-Century England Leslie Ritchie,2017-07-05 Combining new musicology trends formal musical analysis and literary feminist recovery work Leslie Ritchie examines rare poetic didactic fictional and musical texts written by women in late eighteenth century Britain She finds instances of and resistance to contemporary perceptions of music as a form of social control in works by Maria Barth mon Harriett Abrams Mary Worgan Susanna Rowson Hannah Cowley and Amelia Opie among others Relating women s musical compositions and writings about music to theories of music s function in the formation of female subjectivities during the latter half of the eighteenth century Ritchie draws on the work of cultural theorists and cultural historians as well as feminist scholars who have explored the connection between femininity and performance Whether crafting works consonant with societal ideals of charitable natural and national order or re imagining their participation in these musical aids to social harmony women contributed significantly to the formation of British cultural identity Ritchie s interdisciplinary book will interest scholars working in a range of fields including gender studies musicology eighteenth century British literature and cultural studies Understanding Popular Music Culture Roy Shuker,2013 Focusing on the variety of genres that make up pop music Roy Shuker explores key subjects which shape our experience of music such as music production the music industry music policy fans audiences and subcultures Theorising and Designing Immersive Environments Ágnes-Karolina Bakk,Péter Kristóf Makai,2024-12-01 This edited volume discusses the topic of immersion approaching it from the perspective of various media and stakeholders experiencers and creators While the concept of immersion has gained widespread currency in the last decades beyond video games its critical theory has not reached the same momentum meaning that there is no unified way of using the term This causes many misunderstandings and stands as an obstacle to successful expectation management processes especially in the entertainment industry This book presents a nuanced platform of discussion to answer the question of how immersion can manifest itself in different media and how creators are embracing the current trends within the experience economy At the Crossroads of the Senses Polina Dimova,2025-03-04 Inspired by Richard Wagner s idea of the total artwork European modernist artists began to pursue multimedia projects that mixed colors sounds and shapes Polina Dimova s At the Crossroads of the Senses traces this new sensory experience of synaesthesia the physiological or figurative blending of senses as a modernist phenomenon from its scientific description in the late nineteenth century to its prevalence in the early twentieth. Structured around twenty theses on synaesthesia this book explores the integral relationship between modernist art science and technology tracing not only how modernist artists perceptually internalized and absorbed technology and its effects but also how they appropriated it to achieve their own aesthetic metaphysical and social goals. Through case studies of prominent multimodal artists Oscar Wilde Aubrey Beardsley Richard Strauss Aleksandr Scriabin Wassily Kandinsky František Kupka Andrei Bely and Rainer Maria Rilke At the Crossroads of the Senses reveals the color forms and color sounds that for these artists laid the foundations of the world and served as the catalyst for the flourishing exchanges among the arts at the fin de siècle. Rooted in archival research in Russia Germany France and the Czech Republic At the Crossroads of the Senses taps overlooked scientific sources to offer a fresh perspective on European modernism. Sensory studies scholars literary critics and art and music historians alike will welcome its many contributions not least among them a refreshing advocacy for a kind of sensuous reading practice.

The Bloomsbury Handbook of the Anthropology of Sound Holger Schulze, 2020-12-10

The Bloomsbury Handbook of the Anthropology of Sound presents the key subjects and approaches of anthropological research into sound cultures. What are the common characteristics as well as the inconsistencies of living with and around sound in everyday life? This question drives research in this interdisciplinary area of sound studies. It propels each main chapter of this handbook into a thoroughly different world of listening experiencing receiving sensing dreaming naming desiring and crafting sound. This handbook is composed of six sections: sonic artifacts sounds and the body habitat and sound sonic desires sounds and machines and overarching sensologies. The individual chapters explore exemplary research objects and put them in the context of methodological approaches historical predecessors research practices and contemporary research gaps. This volume offers therefore one of the broadest most detailed and instructive overviews on current research in this area of sensory anthropology.
