Guns, An American Conversation The Editors at Spaceship Media, 2020-10-13 From Pulitzer Prize winning reporters Can complete strangers representing every point along the political divide engage in civil and productive discourse on the topic of gun control As Americans we spend a lot of time talking about guns With the political division in the country evidenced by the Capitol insurrection and voter fraud protests it is not surprising that we rarely have real conversations with people whose ideas don't align with ours about gun ownership Democrats and liberals usually talk with other Democrats and liberals not Republicans and conservatives That is perhaps why the country is so divided when it comes to reducing gun violence Guns an American Conversation features the results of a fascinating nationwide conversation about guns A group of 150 strangers were brought together in a month long moderated Facebook group chat They featured teachers Second Amendment advocates hunters police officers and mothers and fathers from across the political spectrum and the fifty states Together they participated in a project meant to foster civil yet honest dialogue between people whose backgrounds and beliefs led them to have opposing views on the issue of gun control Guns attempts to map out common territory in a nation driven by profound divides It includes real information about gun laws in the United States providing the reader with tools to continue the discussion in their own lives With sidebars charts and graphics that are clear and easy to navigate Guns might not change your mind about gun control but it will help you learn to cross divides in conversation as America navigates the way forward on this difficult issue
