Talk to Me Dad! Pete Williams, 2006-05-30 Talk to Me Dad a deeply troubling novel of child abuse brutalization and revenge this novel has been a particular pleasure to read we've been touched by many of its components particularly your courage in telling a story of this disturbing nature You manage to effectively combine relentlessness with sensitivity in your presentation and that's no small feat The Scott Meredith Literary Agency I've read literally thousands of books and I can safely say that it reads like a dream What a beautiful job you've done I couldn't put it down and was sad when it ended All good books leave me sad because you become invested in the people in their lives
