The Tangled Bank Stanley Edgar Hyman,1966      The Tangled Bank. Darwin, Marx, Frazer and Freud as Imaginative Writers Stanley Edgar Hyman,1974      The Tangled Bank Stanley Edgar Hyman,1966      An Entangled Bank Joel Bartholemew Hagen,1992 This book was a revelation I was simply enthralled by Joel Hagen s brilliance in reviewing the emergence of the discipline of ecosystem ecology the study of biotic abiotic interaction and nutrient flows in ecological systems He does a magnificent job of introducing the personalities that midwived the new science He explains their intellectual struggles philosophical cross currents and different academic milieux He also expertly illuminates sociopolitical context Through his in depth research he is able to dispel some misconceptions and truism arriving at the heart of what made each scientist tick Even when exploring some of the arcane figures and dead end developments he is so compelling that they become integral to the story not sidetracks His breadth of knowledge his discerning inclusiveness his clarity of thought all make An Entangled Bank a stimulating read Very often in science courses we are presented only with the canonical state of the science having to swallow its agglomerated whole free of context Hagen reveals the wisdom of understanding intellectual foundations Through study of the origins and development of a science we may better grasp the received tenets of current scientific understanding As a young science ecosystem ecology has a historical context that is relatively accessible to us if less romantic than a tale of the origins of astronomy might be A peek into the labs and offices of botanists limnologists and biogeochemists might not seem like the acme of excitement Hagen inspires us with his insights He makes his subject meaningful to us Though it is not pleasure reading by any stretch its clear sighted intellectual vigor makes An Entangled Bank pure enjoyment      The Mid-Victorian Generation K. Theodore Hoppen,2000-06-30 This the third volume to appear in the New Oxford History of England covers the period from the repeal of the Corn Laws to the dramatic failure of Gladstone s first Home Rule Bill In his magisterial study of the mid Victorian generation Theo Hoppen identifies three defining themes The first he calls established industrialism the growing acceptance that factory life and manufacturing had come to stay It was during these four decades that the balance of employment shifted irrevocably For the first time in history more people were employed in industry than worked on the land The second concerns the multiple national identities of the constituent parts of the United Kingdom Dr Hoppen s study of the histories of Ireland Scotland Wales and the Empire reveals the existence of a variety of particular and overlapping national traditions flourishing alongside the increasingly influential structure of the unitary state The third defining theme is that of interlocking spheres which the author uses to illuminate the formation of public culture in the period This he argues was generated not by a series of influences operating independently from each other but by a variety of intermeshed political economic scientific literary and artistic developments This original and authoritative book will define these pivotal forty years in British history for the next generation      A Psychology of Difference Otto Rank,2020-07-21 A leading disciple and confidant of Freud Otto Rank revolutionized the field of psychoanalytic theory in The Trauma of Birth 1924 In this book Rank proposed that the child's pre Oedipal relationship to the mother was the prototype of the therapeutic relationship between analyst and patient Although Rank is now widely acknowledged as the most important precursor of humanistic and existential psychotherapy influencing such well known writers as Carl Rogers Rollo May and Ernest Becker Rank's knotty prose has long frustrated readers In this volume of Rank's lectures Robert Kramer has brought together for the first time the innovator's clearest explanations of his most influential theories The lectures were delivered in English to receptive audiences of social workers therapists and clinical psychologists throughout the United States from 1924 to 1938 the year before Rank's untimely death The topics covered include separation and individuation projection and identification love and will relationship therapy and neurosis as a failure in creativity The lectures reveal that Rank much maligned by orthodox analysts invented the modern object relations approach to psychotherapy in the 1920s In his introduction based on private correspondence between Rank Freud and others in the inner circle Robert Kramer tells the full story of why Rank parted ways with Freud The collection of lectures constitutes a readable Rank filled with insights still relevant today for those interested in the humanistic existential or object relational aspects of psychotherapy or in the development of the psychoanalytic movement Victoria's Year Richard L.

Stein, 1987 A survey of British literature and culture in the first year of Victoria's reign The discussion ranges over high and low art literature painting architecture science the popular press and private memoirs A Cultural Citizen of the World S. S. Praver, 2017-10-23 This book is based on the German editions of Sigmund Freud's works and letters It presents various examples from English and American literatures that suggest several questions Freud asked of literary works in general

Primitive Passions Marianna Torgovnick, 1998-10 In this provocative and illuminating book Marianna Torgovnick explores the psychology of our profound attraction to cultures we call primitive Whether located in Africa the South Pacific or the American Southwest the primitive has become synonymous in the Western imagination with a range of emotions and experiences thought to be lost in modern life reverence for the land and for nature strong communal bonds sexual plentitude and perhaps most intriguing and ecstatic sense of connection to the universe and the life force Torgovnick investigates the numerous ways we have turned toward the primitive out of spiritual hunger for such deeply human experiences a hunger that could once be satisfied within the West's own mystical traditions but that often no longer can be Brilliantly encompassing religion art psychology literature and other aspects of our culture Primitive Passions offers new insight into our ideas of spirituality and gender and ultimately into the hidden but vital parts of ourselves Maelzel's Chess Player Robert Wilcocks, 1994 This is the first study of Freud's texts to incorporate the intellectual findings of Adolf Grünbaum the archival material published by Jeffrey Masson the recently published correspondence between Freud and Wilhelm Fliess and Lewin's profile of long term cocaine users Wilcocks challenges literary critics who have granted Freud's writings scientific status and claims that the works are no more than the rhetorical deceptions of a talented writer Through a careful examination of the Freud Fliess correspondence and of Freud's case histories and through a novel comparison of Freud's rhetorical devices with Poe's rhetoric of deception in the essay Maelzel's Chess Player Wilcocks reveals that Freud was a talented but disturbed master of deception including self deception Capitalism Hates You Joshua Gooch, 2025-03-11 What contemporary horror films teach us about the cruelties of capitalist society Capitalism Hates You uses the horror film genre as a tool to diagnose and expose the hostile conditions of life under capitalism Through incisive critical analyses of popular films such as Get Out Drag Me to Hell Hereditary The Babadook and many others Joshua Gooch draws connections between Marxist theory and contemporary narratives of psychological unease Gooch highlights the work of women trans and nonwhite filmmakers to show how the remarkable diversity of twenty first century horror cinema can provide an expansive catalog of capitalism's varying forms of oppression Studying films that interrogate such urgent topics as gentrification climate change and reproductive labor he demonstrates how contemporary horror films give affective shape to the negative undercurrents of our present socioeconomic system Capitalism Hates You argues that these films and their material conditions can deepen our understanding of essential concepts in contemporary Marxism from the theory of value and changing forms of commodification to the labor of social reproduction the abolition of the family and the necessity of ecosocialism Synthesizing various strands of Marxist thought Gooch sheds light on the growing field of socially conscious horror films examining how they pinpoint and exaggerate latent feelings of dread and discomfort to reflect the ills of society Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions Nature and the Victorian Imagination U. C. Knoepfelmacher, George B. Tennyson, 2023-12-22 Geographia Literaria: Studies in Earth, Ethics, and Literature Jagannath Sarkar, Jayjit Basu, 2021-10-19 By sensing the fundamental ideas of earth and the earth thought this collection seeks to negotiate with and react to the underlying semasiological or psycho geographical principle of geopoetics that cuts across varied and at times conflicting schools From reading some geopoetical texts to understanding the idea of earth in Humboldt and Marx Engels topolitics in Tintin reef thinking geopoet h ics and Asiabodh the volume tries to perceive how we poetically exist with the earth Isn't literature taking a cue from Hlderlin a symptom of the way man lives poetically on the earth How is our body and psyche integral parts of the earth thought How does literature deal with the concepts of space and place How literature enables us to comprehend the underlying principle of geopoetics the principle of finding art in earth These are some of the critical questions which this volume seeks to explore Literature exemplifies a geographical consciousness an intimate and subjective experience of the earth This book is an attempt to conceive this eclectic infusion of art and earth so that we are able to ensure that the world of the art always remains in touch with the earth of the world Let us through this book un earth this deep rooted spatiality and geographicality in literature Let us imitate earth through art as this is the only place where we can live Charles Darwin's The Origin of Species David Amigoni, Jeff Wallace, 2024-06-04 This volume marks a new approach to a seminal work of the modern scientific imagination Charles Darwin's The Origin of Species 1859 Darwin's central theory of natural selection neither originated nor could be contained within the parameters of the natural sciences but continues to shape and challenge our most basic assumptions about human social and political life Several new readings crossing the fields of history literature sociology anthropology and history of science demonstrate the complex position of the text within cultural debates past and present Contributors examine the reception and rhetoric of the Origin and its influence on systems of classification the nineteenth century women's movement literary culture criticism and practice and Hinduism in India At the same time a re-reading of Darwin and Malthus offers a constructive critique of our attempts to map the hybrid origins and influences of the text This volume will be the ideal companion to Darwin's work for all students of literature social and cultural history and history of science

Modernism and the Critical Spirit Eugene Goodheart, 2018-04-17 Complaints about the decline of critical standards in literature and culture in general have been voiced for much of the twentieth century These have extended from F R Leavis's laments for a lost center of intelligence and urbane spirit to current opposition to the predominance of radical critical theory in contemporary literature departments Humanist criticism which has as its object the quality of life as well as works of art may well lack authority in the contemporary world Even amid the disruptions of the industrial revolution nineteenth century humanists such as Matthew Arnold John Ruskin and Thomas Carlyle could assume a positive order of value and shared habits of imaginative perception and understanding between writers and readers Eugene Goodheart argues that by contrast contemporary criticism is infused with the skepticism of modernist aesthetics It has willfully rejected the very idea of moral authority Goodheart starts from the premise that questions about the moral authority of literature and criticism often turn upon a prior question of what happens when the sacred disappears or is subjected to the profane He focuses on contending spiritual views in particular the dialectic between the Protestant inspired largely English humanist tradition of Carlyle Ruskin Arnold and D H Lawrence and the decay of Catholicism represented by James Joyce and T S Eliot Goodheart argues that literary modernism in distancing itself from natural and social vitality tends to render suspect all privileged positions It thereby undermines the critical act which assumes the priority of a particular set of values Goodheart makes his case by analyzing the work of a variety of novelists poets and critics nineteenth century and contemporary He blends literary theory and practical criticism

Bottigheimer, 2014-12-05 This collection of exemplary essays by internationally recognized scholars examines the fairy tale from historical folkloristic literary and psychoanalytical points of view For generations of children and adults fairy tales have encapsulated social values often through the use of fixed characters and situations to a far greater extent than any other oral or literary form In many societies fairy tales function as a paradigm both for understanding society and for developing individual behavior and personality A few of the topics covered in this volume oral narration in contemporary society madness and cure in the 1001 Nights the female voice in folklore and fairy tale change in narrative form tests tasks and trials in the Grimms fairy tales and folklorists as agents of nationalism The subject of methodology is discussed by Torborg Lundell Stven Swann Jones Hans Jorg Uther and Anna Tavis
