Writers Project to support writers and artists while making a national effort to document the country's shared history and culture. The American Guide series consists of individual guides to each of the states. Little known authors many of whom would later become celebrated literary figures were commissioned to write these important books. John Steinbeck, Saul Bellow, Zora Neale Hurston, and Ralph Ellison are among the more than 6,000 writers, editors, historians, and researchers who documented this celebration of local histories. Photographs, drawings, driving tours, detailed descriptions of towns, and rich cultural details exhibit each state's unique flavor. Published in 1941, the WPA Guide to Arkansas splendidly exhibits the varied environment of the Natural State. From the densely forested land in the Ozark Mountains and Arkansas Timberlands to the Mississippi River and the Arkansas Delta, the guide to the Land of Opportunity provides several photographs of history on and driving tours through the state's grand geography.

Four Stars of Valor Phil Nordyke, 2010-11-12. Hailing from the big cities and small towns of America, these young men came together to serve their country and the greater good. They were the 505th Parachute Infantry Regiment of the 82nd Airborne Division, the All-Americans. Phil Nordyke, their official historian, draws on interviews with surviving veterans and oral history recordings, as well as official archives and unpublished written accounts from more than three hundred veterans of the 505th PIR and their supporting units. This is history as it was lived by the men of the 505th from their prewar coming of age in the regiment through the end of World War II when they marched in the Victory Parade up Fifth Avenue in New York to the postwar legacy of having been part of an elite parachute regiment with a record unsurpassed in the annals of combat. Army and Navy Register, 1929. *New York Court of Appeals. Flame Dragons of the Korean War Jerry Ravino, Jack Carty, 2003. This book is the result of collaboration by Jerry Ravino and Jack Carty, veterans of the Korean War with the Flame Platoon, Headquarters Company, First Tank Battalion, First Marine Division, who did not meet until almost 50 years after what went down in history as the Forgotten War. Although the two former tankers served with the Flame Platoon in different places and different times in that conflict, it is a testament to their determination to research and record a part of the war that heretofore had not been chronicled in detail. Though it has been some 50 years past the fact, this is their story as memory best serves them and others who helped them tell it. Learn more about the FLAME DRAGONS www
