From the Transcendental Painting Group to the Taos Moderns ,2016      The Geography of Hope Chris Turner,2010-04-30 After the fierce warnings and grim predictions of The Weather Makers and An Inconvenient Truth acclaimed journalist and national bestselling author Chris Turner finds hope in the search for a sustainable future Point of no return The chilling phrase has become the ubiquitous mantra of ecological doomsayers a troubling headline above stories of melting permafrost and receding ice caps visions of catastrophe and fears of a problem with no solution Daring to step beyond the rhetoric of panic and despair The Geography of Hope points to the bright light at the end of this very dark tunnel With a mix of front line reporting analysis and passionate argument Chris Turner pieces together the glimmers of optimism amid the gloom and the solutions already at work around the world from Canada s largest wind farm to Asia s greenest building and Europe s most eco friendly communities But The Geography of Hope goes far beyond mere technology Turner seeks out the next generation of political economic social and spiritual institutions that could provide the global foundations for a sustainable future from the green hills of northern Thailand to the parliament houses of Scandinavia from the villages of southern India where microcredit finance has remade the social fabric to America s most forward thinking think tanks In this compelling first person exploration punctuated by the wonder and angst of a writer discovering the world s beacons of possibility Chris Turner pieces together a dazzling map of the disparate landmarks in a geography of hope While most of the world has been spinning in stagnant circles of recrimination and debate on the subject of climate change paralyzed by visions of apocalypse both natural if nothing of our way of life changes and economic if too much does Denmark has simply marched off with steadfast resolve into the sustainable future reaching the zenith of its pioneering trek on the island of Sams And so if there s an encircled star on this patchwork map indicating hope s modest capital then it should be properly placed on this island Perhaps for the sake of precision at the geographic centre of J rgen Tranberg s dairy farm There are I m sure any number of images called to mind by talk of ecological revolution and renewable energy and sustainable living but I m pretty certain they don t generally include a hearty fiftysomething Dane in rubber boots spotted with mud and cow shit Which is why Sams s transformation is not just revolutionary but inspiring not just a huge change but a tantalizingly attainable one And it was a change that seemed at its most workaday near effortless no more remarkable than the cool October wind gusting across the island down on Tranberg s farm from The Geography of Hope     A Contested Art Stephanie

Lewthwaite,2015-10-01 When New Mexico became an alternative cultural frontier for avant garde Anglo American writers and artists in the early twentieth century the region was still largely populated by Spanish speaking Hispanos Anglos who came in search of new personal and aesthetic freedoms found inspiration for their modernist ventures in Hispano art forms Yet when these arrivistes elevated a particular model of Spanish colonial art through their preservationist endeavors and the marketplace practicing Hispano artists found themselves working under a new set of patronage relationships and under new aesthetic expectations that tied their art to a static vision of the Spanish colonial past In A Contested Art historian Stephanie Lewthwaite examines the complex Hispano response to these aesthetic dictates and suggests that cultural encounters and appropriation produced not only conflict and loss but also new transformations in Hispano art as the artists experimented with colonial art forms and modernist trends in painting photography and sculpture Drawing on native and non native sources of inspiration they generated alternative lines of modernist innovation and mestizo creativity These lines expressed Hispanos cultural and ethnic affiliations with local Native peoples and with Mexico and presented a vision of New Mexico as a place shaped by the fissures of modernity and the dynamics of cultural conflict and exchange A richly illustrated work of cultural history this first book length treatment explores the important yet neglected role Hispano artists played in shaping the world of modernism in twentieth century New Mexico A Contested Art places Hispano artists at the center of narratives about modernism while bringing Hispano art into dialogue with the cultural experiences of Mexicans Chicanas/os and Native Americans In doing so it rewrites a chapter in the history of both modernism and Hispano art Published in cooperation with The William P Clements Center for Southwest Studies Southern Methodist University Collector's Guide ,2004 The Collector's Guide strives to be a trusted partner in the business of art by being the most knowledgeable helpful and friendly resource to New Mexico's artists art galleries museums and art service providers Through a printed guidebook the World Wide Web and weekly radio programs we serve art collectors and others seeking information about the art and culture of New Mexico New Mexico Magazine ,1963 Collector's Guide ,2006 The Collector's Guide strives to be a trusted partner in the business of art by being the most knowledgeable helpful and friendly resource to New Mexico's artists art galleries museums and art service providers Through a printed guidebook the World Wide Web and weekly radio programs we serve art collectors and others seeking information about the art and culture of New Mexico Mac Schweitzer Ann Lane Hedlund,2025-09-23 In Tucson during the 1950s nearly everyone knew or wanted to know the southwestern artist Mac Schweitzer Born Mary Alice Cox in Cleveland Ohio in 1921 she grew up a tomboy who adored horses cowboys and art After training at the Cleveland School of Art and marrying she adopted her maiden initials M A C as her artistic name and settled in Tucson in 1946 With a circle of influential friends that included anthropologists designer craftsmen and Native American artists she joined Tucson's Early Moderns receiving exhibits commissions and awards for her artwork When she died in 1962 Mac's artistic legacy faded from public view but her prize winning works attest to a thriving career Author Ann Lane Hedlund draws from the artist's letters photo albums and published reviews to tell the story of Mac's creative and adventuresome life Her watercolors oil paintings prints and sculptures a diverse body of work never before seen in public range from naturalistic studies of Sonoran Desert animals to impressionistic landscapes to moody abstractions A sharp observer of Indigenous life she sketched and painted scenes of Navajo Din Hopi O'odham and Yaqui people and events These unique portrayals of the Southwest illustrate this saga of a maverick artist rediscovered Collector's Guide ,2004 The Collector's Guide strives to be a trusted partner in the business of art by being the most knowledgeable helpful and friendly resource to New Mexico's artists art galleries museums and art service providers Through a printed guidebook the World Wide Web and weekly radio programs we serve art collectors and others seeking information about the art and culture of New Mexico Collector's Guide ,2003 The Collector's Guide strives to be a trusted partner in the business of art by being
