Success in the Cinema MoneyMaking Movies John Howard Reid,2006-06-01 Basically there are three measures of success in the cinema First off are pictures like The Crowd and Applause that achieve rave reviews and even go on to win awards but don't recover their negative costs Then there are the movies the critics hate but the public enjoys All three versions of Back Street for instance Finally come the pictures everyone loves like From Here To Eternity or Sunset Boulevard In the annals of success in Hollywood's Golden Age one name stands out above all others Cecil B DeMille His famous pictures reviewed here include both versions of The Buccaneer The Crusades Sign of the Cross The Story of Dr Wassell and Union Pacific But the book also notes a DeMille B movie that tied up a fair amount of money but proved so unpopular it was released in some territories as a support The book also covers some of Hollywood's other disastrous failures including the MGM movie that cost over 4 million to make and returned virtually nothing Muscles in the Movies John D. Fair,David L. Chapman,2020-11-16 John Fair and David Chapman tell the story of how filmmakers use and manipulate the appearance and performances of muscular men and women to enhance the appeal of their productions The authors show how this practice deeply rooted in western epistemological traditions evolved from the art of photography through magic lantern and stage shows into the motion picture industry arguing that the sight of muscles in action induced a higher degree of viewer entertainment From Eugen Sandow to Dwayne The Rock Johnson muscular actors appear capable of performing the miraculous and with the aid of stuntmen and filming contrivances they do By such means muscles are used to perfect the art of illusion inherent in movie making from its earliest days The Encyclopedia of Fantasy John Clute,John
