Tasma A Life Of Jebie Couvrier:

Tasma Patricia Clarke,1994-01-01 Biography of 19th century Australian novelist lecturer and foreign correspondent from her birth in London and early life in Hobart to her death in Brussels Includes references a bibliography and an index The author is a journalist whose publications include books dealing with the lives of women in 19th century Australia She has been editor of the Canberra Historical Journal since 1987 An Approach to the Life and Novels of Jessie Catherine Couvreur (Tasma). Raymond Beilby,1969

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide The Global Histories of Books Elleke Boehmer,Rouven

Kunstmann,Priyasha Mukhopadhyay,Asha Rogers,2017-07-26 This book is an edited volume of essays that showcases how books played a crucial role in making and materialising histories of travel scientific exchanges translation and global markets from the late eighteenth century to the present While existing book historical practice is overly dependent on models of the local and the national we suggest that approaching the book as a cross region travelling and therefore global object offers new approaches and methodologies for a study in global perspective By thus studying the book in its transnational and inter imperial textual inter textual and material dimensions this collection will highlight its key role in making possible a global imagination shaped by networks of print material readers publishers and translators The Annual American Catalogue 1886-1900 ,1893

Uncle Piper of Piper's hill, by Tasma Jessie Catherine Couvreur,1889 The Annual American Catalogue ,1899 The Cambridge History of Australian Literature Peter Pierce,2009-09-17 Draws on scholarship from leading figures in the field and spans Australian literary history from colonial origins indigenous and migrant literatures as well as representations of Asia and the Pacific and the role of literary culture in modern Australian society With Love & Fury Judith Wright,2006

This wide range of letters reminds us of Judith Wright s deep engagement with life her love of the world and of friends and the fine fury that led her to battle so courageously on the world s behalf The Longman Companion to Victorian Fiction John Sutherland,2014-10-13 With over 900 biographical entries more than 600 novels synopsized and a wealth of background material on the publishers reviewers and readers of the age the Longman Companion to Victorian Fiction is the fullest account of the period s fiction ever published Now in a second edition the book has been revised and a generous selection of images have been chosen to illustrate various aspects of Victorian publishing writing and reading life Organised alphabetically the information provided will be a boon to students researchers and all lovers of reading The entries though concise meet the high standards demanded by modern scholarship The writing marked by Sutherland s characteristic combination of flair clarity and erudition is of such a high standard that the book is a joy to read as well as a definitive work of reference Annual American Catalogue, 1892-94, 1893 Australian Short Fiction Bruce Bennett, 2002 In this first extended study of Australian short fiction Bruce Bennett adopts Christina Stead's metaphor of an ocean of story to suggest the universality of story telling and the marks it leaves for posterity Bennett's study stresses the range and depth of the short prose narrative in Australia In her earliest youth, by Tasma Jessie Catherine Couvreur, 1890 Australian Books and Authors in the American Marketplace 1840s-1940s David Carter, Roger Osborne, 2018-07-02 Australian Books and Authors in the American Marketplace 1840s-1940s explores how Australian writers and their works were present in the United States before the mid twentieth century to a much greater degree than previously acknowledged Drawing on fresh archival research and combining the approaches of literary criticism print culture studies and book history David Carter and Roger Osborne demonstrate that Australian writing was transnational long before the contemporary period In mapping Australian literature's connections to British and US markets their research challenges established understandings of national imperial and world literatures Carter and Osborne examine how Australian authors editors and publishers engaged productively with their American counterparts and how American readers and reviewers responded to Australian works They consider the role played by British publishers and agents in taking Australian writing to America and how the international circulation of new literary genres created new opportunities for novelists to move between markets Some of these writers such as Christina Stead and Patrick White remain household names others who once enjoyed international fame such as Dale Collins and Alice Grant Rosman have been largely forgotten The story of their books in America reveals how culture commerce and copyright law interacted to create both opportunities and obstacles for Australian writers The Australian Nation Geoffrey Partington, The Australian Nation is an excellent book It will make a significant impact on the debate about the meaning of Australian Nationalism John Playford The Penance of Portia James Tasma, 2022-11-22 In The Penance of Portia James Tasma crafts a compelling narrative that intricately weaves themes of regret redemption and the complexities of human relationships Set against the backdrop of late 19th century Australia the novel explores the life of Portia James a woman whose tragic past haunts her present Tasma's lyrical prose rich in detail and emotional resonance invites readers into the psychological depths of her characters while presenting a vivid portrait of contemporary societal norms and the constraints placed upon women The novel deftly balances romantic intrigue with moral quandaries ensuring that Portia's journey of self discovery is both poignant and thought provoking Tasma an influential figure in Australian literature drew upon her own experiences as a woman in a patriarchal society to write this profound work Her explorations into societal issues bolstered by her keen sense of justice and empathy towards her characters reflect the struggles she observed in her own life and those of her contemporaries This understanding informs the nuanced portrayal of Portia making her journey deeply relatable and culturally significant For readers seeking a rich narrative filled with emotional truth and societal reflection The Penance of Portia James is essential Tasma's ability to transcend time with her exploration of universal themes the pursuit of happiness the burden of guilt and the quest for autonomy makes this novel a timeless study of the human condition resonating long after the final page is turned Australian Literature, 1788-1914 Selina Samuels, 2001 This volume commences in 1788 the year of the arrival of the First Fleet sent to colonize Australia and is the logical starting point since the focus is on Australian literature in English and does include entries on Aboriginal writers who wrote and published in English Entries include those writers who produced at least their first important work before the end of 1914 The Art of the Collection State Library of Victoria, Richard Aitken, 2007-01-01 The Art of the Collection is a celebration of the State Library of Victoria's Picture Collection the oldest visual documentary collection in Australia Acting on its mandate to collect and preserve Victoria's documentary heritage the Library acquires paintings maps diaries and documents that showcase all facets of Victorian life past and present The Library has an extensive collection of art works and a permanent display of 150 works in the Cowen Gallery The works illustrate Victoria's landscape early Melbourne scenes and significant events and figures in the European exploration and settlement of Australia The works range from early eighteenth and nineteenth century portraits busts to contemporary portraits and scenes of Melbourne and Victoria from the 1800s until now Works of some of our most celebrated and talented Australian artists are in the collection and showcased in this book Eugène von Guérard John Glover Frederick McCubbin Albert Tucker Ian Fairweather Lina Bryans Jan Senbergs Juan Davila and Howard Arkley to name but a few Not counting the cost, by Tasma Jessie Catherine Couvreur, 1895 The Cambridge History of the Australian Novel David Carter, 2023-07-27 The Cambridge History of the Australian Novel is an authoritative volume on the Australian novel by more than forty experts in the field of Australian literary studies drawn from within Australia and abroad Essays cover a wide range of types of novel writing and publishing from the earliest colonial period through to the present day The international dimensions of publishing Australian fiction are also considered as are the changing contours of criticism of the novel in Australia Chapters examine colonial fiction women's writing Indigenous novels popular genre fiction historical fiction political novels and challenging novels on identity and belonging from recent decades not least the major rise of Indigenous novel writing Essays focus on specific periods of major change in Australian history or range broadly across themes and issues that have influenced fiction across many years and in many parts of the country
