Drawings by Frank Beck Frank Beck, 1968 On Tap Mark McKay, 1999 On Tap delves into the annals of pub lore to discover funny sad illuminating and intriguing episodes and incidents in the life of this great Australian institution The author has collected anecdotes serious history folklore tall stories and urban myths about Australians and pubs Buildings of Empire Ashley Jackson, 2013-11-28 Buildings of Empire takes the reader on an exciting journey through thirteen territories of the British Empire From Dublin Castle to the glass and steel of Sir Norman Foster's Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank skyscraper these buildings capture the essence of the imperial experience painting an intimate portrait of the biggest empire the world has ever seen the people who made it and the people who resisted it as well as the legacy of the imperial project throughout the world Ashley Jackson visits classic examples of the buildings that the British governed from the forts they often brutally imposed their rule from the railway stations they travelled from the banks they traded from the educational establishments they spread their values from as well as the grand colonial hotels they stayed in the sporting clubs and botanical gardens where they took their leisure and the monumental exhibition spaces in which they celebrated the achievements of settlement and imperial endeavour The history of these buildings does not end with the empire that built them Their story in the aftermath of empire highlights the continuing legacy of many of the structures and institutions the British left behind as well as the sometimes unexpected role that these former symbols of alien rule have played in the establishment of new national identities in the years since independence Subject Catalog Library of Congress, Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1973 Guide to the Collections National Library of Australia, 1910 The Vision Splendid Stephanie Owen Reeder, 2011 The Vision Splendid features the sketchbooks of 22 nineteenth century artists ranging from well known professionals like Eugene von Gu rard and John Glover to amateurs about whom little is known These artists engineers surveyors military men solicitors public servants and pastoralists all delighted in recording what they saw and then sharing it with family friends and the wider public The sketches reveal what colonial life in Australia was like at that time both in the country and in the city and the challenges the artists faced depicting landscapes that were so different from those in Europe In The Midst Of Life Des Tobin, Graeme M Griffin, 2013-03-01 This is a thoroughly useful authoritative and compassionate book about the last taboo subject death In exploring our responses to death it reveals a great deal about Australian society There is grim humour in the practical details of burial in the days of pick and shovel and a priest if you were lucky Stories of elaborate Victorian mourning etiquette of poignant personal histories recorded on gravestones of vehement debates about cremation and much more make good reading The authors a theologian and a funeral director use this frank social history to look at questions we often avoid What is grief How can we help ourselves and others through it What choices do we have for farewelling our loved ones Are the rituals of churches funeral parlours and cemeteries flexible enough to meet our endlessly varied needs Both professional and general readers will find many answers and yet more questions in this informative and reassuring book Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1980
