important and spectacular archaeological site on the east coast of the island of Cyprus Two generations of scholars met in Nicosia during the conference an older one whose relationship with ancient Salamis can be characterized as very direct since many representatives of that generation had actively participated in the extremely productive excavations at that spot until these activities came to an abrupt end in the summer of 1974 due to the Turkish invasion and a younger generation which is of course lacking this very direct contact The conference successfully connected the older with the younger generation and thus contributed to maintaining and renewing the interest in ancient Salamis This richly illustrated book compiles most of the lectures presented during the conference It might be regarded as a tribute to Salamis an outstanding ancient city which existed for more than one and a half millennia eventually under the name of Constantia A Description of the Historic Monuments of Cyprus George Jeffery, 1918 Long Shadows in Cyprus M.J.W. Cyprus and the Politics of Memory Rebecca Bryant, Yiannis Papadakis, 2012-06-20 The island of Cyprus has been bitterly divided for more than four decades One of the most divisive elements of the Cyprus conflict is the writing of its history a history called on by both communities to justify and explain their own notions of justice While for Greek Cypriots the history of Cyprus begins with ancient Greece for the Turkish Cypriot community the history of the island begins with the Ottoman conquest of 1571 The singular narratives both sides often employ to tell the story of the island are as this volume argues a means of continuing the battle which has torn the island apart and an obstacle to resolution Cyprus and the Politics of Memory re orientates history writing on Cyprus from a tool of division to a form of dialogue and explores a way forward for the future of conflict resolution in the region A History of the Orthodox Church of Cyprus from the Coming of the Apostles Paul and Barnabas to the Commencement of the British Occupation (A.
