selected general bibliography Late Nineteenth-and Early Twentieth-century British Women Poets William B. Thesing, 2001 Essays on female British poets writing during the two final decades of the reign of Queen Victoria 1880 1901 the reign of her successor King Edward VII 1901 1910 and all but the last eight years of the reign of King George V 1910 1936 Dictionary of Irish Literature ,1996 Medbh McGuckian Borbála Faragó, 2014-03-27 This book offers a wide ranging analysis of the entire corpus of Medbh McGuckian's published work Its objective is to provide both a readable synthesis of existing criticism in a fashion which will be generally useful to academics and students and also to offer an original contribution to the field of contemporary Irish literary studies on the basis of new research The book investigates a variety of previously neglected themes in particular McGuckian's exploration of ideas of creativity and performativity in her poetry Over the past two decades McGuckian has been recognized by both her fellow poets and by literary critics as one of the most original daring and important poetic voices in contemporary Ireland Since 1982 she has published fifteen volumes of poetry extraordinary not merely for its sustained quality and linguistic and technical virtuosity but also for its constant evolution and reinvention This book provides an original perspective on her work both thematically and methodologically From a thematic perspective the process of artistic creation is a key preoccupation of McGuckian's poetry which recurs in every volume of her oeuvre but has previously escaped critical attention By adapting and refining theories of singularity and creativity the book allows for a coherent analysis of this central aspect of McGuckian's work Methodologically it differs from previous studies in the scope of its approach Uniquely it pursues its investigation across the entire breadth of the poet's published output and emphasizes the thematic unity of individual volumes in the light of the poet's constant change and development Throughout the book the reading of McGuckian's work concentrates on poems in their entirety an approach which has not figured to any notable degree in the existing secondary literature on the poet not least because of the perceived difficulty of her writing A critical investigation however which respects both the integrity of the individual poems and the internal coherence of her various volumes allows for a far deeper understanding both of the poet's thematic preoccupations and of the evolution of her distinctive poetic voice My Self, My Muse Patricia Boyle Haberstroh, 2001-07-01 A unique look into the minds and creative processes of contemporary Irish women poets this book focuses on the transformation of their life experiences into poetry that blends personal identity with national identity It assembles many voices around common themes that are emerging to change Irish poetry permanently Patricia Boyle Haberstroh whose book Women Creating Women Contemporary Irish Women Poets was a Choice Outstanding Academic book in 1996 shows in this new work how nine of the most prolific Irish women writers generate their poetry broadening our understanding of the context of the poems She pairs each author's verse with a companion and often autobiographical prose piece to illuminate the ways in which the poetry expresses the poet's personal experience As women in a politically and religiously charged male dominated genre and country these poets feel compelled to transcend daily life by articulating against the norm In this book they describe the issues they confronted in their growth as poets and the strategies they developed to translate life into art In linking these poets drawn from Northern Ireland and England as well as the Republic of Ireland Haberstroh throws into relief the characteristics that define their unique individual subjects themes and styles
