Women Architects in India Mary N. Woods, 2016-10-04 As the first inclusive study of how women have shaped the modern Indian built environment from the independence struggle until today this book reveals a history that is largely unknown not only in the West but also in India Educated in the 1930s and 1940s the very first women architects designed everything from factories to museums in the post independence period The generations that followed are now responsible for metro systems shopping malls corporate headquarters and IT campuses for a global India But they also design schools cultural centers religious pilgrimage hotels and wildlife sanctuaries Pioneers in conserving historic buildings these women also sustain and resurrect traditional crafts and materials empower rural and marginalized communities and create ecologically sustainable architectures for India Today although women make up a majority in India's ever increasing schools of architecture it is still not easy for them like their Western sisters to find their place in the profession Recounting the work and lives of Indian women as not only architects but also builders and clients opens a new window onto the complexities of feminism modernism and design practice in India and beyond Set in the design centers of Mumbai and Delhi this book is also one of the first histories of architectural education and practice in two very different cities that are now global centers The diversity of practices represented here helps us to imagine other ways to create and build apart from starchitecture And how these women negotiate tradition and modernity at work and at home is crucial for understanding gender and modern architecture in a more global and less Eurocentric context In a country where female emancipation was important for narratives of the independence movement and the new nation state feminism was nonetheless eschewed as divisive and damaging to the nationalist cause Class caste tradition and family restricted but also created opportunities for the very first women architects in India just as they do now for the growing number of young women professionals today The Architect of Aamchi Mumbai Rajesh Seshadri,2025-08-16 WHAT IF ONE MAN COULD SAVE A CITY ON THE BRINK Mumbai 2025 A city of dreams drowning in a nightmare of its own making The financial capital of a rising India is choked by corruption crippled by crumbling infrastructure and suffocating under the weight of its own chaotic energy For millions of Mumbaikars the dream is dead replaced by the daily grind of survival Into this chaos steps Aarav Marathe a middle class bureaucrat with an unwavering moral compass and a secret burning ambition to restore the soul of his city Appointed as the Municipal Commissioner he is an outlier in a system built on compromise He despises corruption He demands excellence He believes in the impossible But the system a powerful nexus of corrupt politicians ruthless syndicates and a cynical bureaucracy does not tolerate saviours As Aarav launches a two decade long war against the decay on everything from potholes and garbage to the powerful land mafias he becomes the most dangerous man in Mumbai His crusade will cost him dearly threatening his family his reputation and his own life The unseen hands that profit from the city s misery will stop at nothing to destroy him orchestrating betrayals smear campaigns and even attempts on his life Yet something extraordinary happens The people of Mumbai long resigned to their fate begin to see a flicker of hope They see their streets cleaner their transport smoother their city breathing again And when the time comes for Aarav to be cast aside they rise in a way the city has never seen before demanding that their unlikely hero be allowed to finish the job Spanning over two decades from the gritty reality of today to the gleaming promise of 2047 The Architect of Aamchi Mumbai is an epic inspiring saga of a man s unyielding quest to transform a metropolis It is a story about the price of progress the power of integrity and the enduring spirit of a city that dared to dream again Will one man s integrity be enough to dismantle an empire of corruption Or will the city he loves be the one to finally break him
