Restorative Yoga for Ethnic and Race-Based Stress and Trauma Gail Parker,2020-06-18 Presenting ways in which Restorative Yoga can contribute to healing emotional wounds this book invites yoga teachers therapists and practitioners to consider the psychological impact of ethnic and race based stress and trauma It aids in the process of uncovering examining and healing one's own emotional wounds and offers insight into avoiding wounding or re wounding others The book describes how race based traumatic stress differs from PTSD and why a more targeted approach to treatment is necessary as well as what can trigger it It also considers the implications of an increasingly racially and ethnically diverse and global yoga community as well as the importance of creating conscious yoga communities of support and connection where issues of race and ethnicity are discussed openly non defensively and constructively By providing a therapeutic structure that assists those directly and indirectly impacted by ethnic and race based stress and trauma Restorative Yoga for Ethnic and Race Based Stress and Trauma provides valuable tools for aiding in the processing of stressful experiences and in trauma recovery

Tackling Trauma Paul A. Barker,2019-03-14 Trauma is a universal phenomenon that can be caused by international catastrophes or individual personal tragedy Trauma is also a severely neglected topic in Christian literature and while it can challenge someone's faith in Christ God and the ministry of his Word is central to dealing with the emotional and psychological impact of trauma By his Spirit through his Word and through his church God is available to minister to people suffering from trauma and bring transformation to their lives In this book a team of experienced and informed Christian professionals from around the world promote a deep biblical response to trauma through clinical and theological wisdom and their first hand experience of witnessing and experiencing trauma The contributions provide practical responses to people s trauma rather than mere descriptions of the problems making it an ideal resource for pastors counsellors humanitarian workers and students
