Ketteler,2021-01-26 What would it mean to commit to unconditional honesty and what impact might that have on our lives Inspired by her popular New York Times article How Honesty Could Make You Happier award winning journalist Judi Ketteler takes a deep dive into the hard truths about honesty from the personal to the political We re incensed by politicians who lie and corporations that cheat but when it comes to our own honesty choices we often barely notice So what happens when we do notice Judi Ketteler thought of herself as an honest person And yet she knew it wasn t the whole story How often was Judi engaging in the same dishonest behavior she was condemning in others To answer that question she started her

Honesty Journal and set out to confront her perennial fear of speaking the truth in a range of situations including with friends her kids and even inside her complicated marriage The result is a timely consideration of the joys and pains of truth in a world that seems committed to lying Here, There and Everywhere Robin Richardson,2004 At the heart of this book is an exploration of each subject or curriculum area the general principles notes on practice and opportunities and questions for review and development Students at a rural secondary school set up a Web site in collaboration with students at a multiethnic school some 25 miles away They wanted to explore differences and similarities between their schools and to share reports and reflections about the projects they were doing jointly They called the site Here There and Everywhere after the Beatles song The title also captures the spirit and concerns of this handbook exploring how schools can combat racism and how issues of belonging identity and equality can be here there and everywhere in every school A piece of forum theatre Sticks Stones and Macpherson introduces the book The overarching themes and big ideas that should permeate every curriculum subject and all aspects of the hidden curriculum in the school are discussed The discussions and examples are consistent with but frequently go further than statutory requirements and expectations Training exercises and materials for staff discussion provide guidance on dealing with racist incidents and finally threads from the book are drawn together to support the creation and development of formal school policies The book draws extensively on work developed in Derbyshire It has been compiled and edited for Derbyshire Advisory and Inspection Service by Robin Richardson a director of the Insted consultancy He and Insted colleague Angela Wood are the authors of The Achievement of British Pakistani Learners A Search for Donald Cottee Philip Spires,2012-08-21 A Search for Donald Cottee is a comic tragedy about individualism Donald nicknamed Donkey is an internet Quixote bent on doing good works Donkey Cottee and his wife Poncho Suzie have retired to Benidorm on Spain s Costa Blanca from their Yorkshire mining village Don has left behind his incessant self education and Suzie has turned the corner of her illness Their new life is parked on the La Manca campsite from where they pursue their ambition of eternal holiday To record the precious experience and make its potential paradise available to all they blog But they can never escape their Yorkshire origins Episodes from the past reappear Meanwhile Don s environmental campaigning and Suzie s quest for business success fill their time However they discover that friends are transacting the businesses of their own lives There is money in vice more in property even more in trading people In a world where competition is the norm where a dog s only possible diet is another dog Don and Suzie are determined to do good works be honest and loyal to all to support what is right But then in the final analysis when the jigsaw of lives is broken apart it appears that perhaps the pieces never did fit So finally still trying to do good Donkey Cottee and Poncho Suzie leave us with an enigma Or is it a riddle
