

SONNET 147

My love is as a fever, longing still
For that which longer nurseth the disease,
Feeding on that which doth preserve the ill,
Th' uncertain sickly appetite to please.

My reason, the physician to my love,
Angry that his prescriptions are not kept,
Hath left me, and I desperate now approve Desire is death, which physic did except.
Past cure I am, now reason is past care,
And frantic-mad with evermore unrest
My thoughts and my discourse as madmen's are,

At random from the truth vainly expressed For I have sworn thee fair, and thought thee bright,

Who art as black as hell, as dark as night

Sonnets for Our Risorgimento John J. Soldo, 1993-01-01      Poems for the Millennium, Volume Three Jerome Rothenberg, Jeffrey C. Robinson, 2009-01-19 The previous two volumes of this acclaimed anthology set forth a globally decentered revision of twentieth century poetry from the perspective of its many avant gardes Now editors Jerome Rothenberg and Jeffrey C Robinson bring a radically new interpretation to the poetry of the preceding century viewing the work of the romantic and post romantic poets as an international collective often utopian enterprise that became the foundation of experimental modernism Global in its range volume three gathers selections from the poetry and manifestos of canonical poets as well as the work of lesser known but equally radical poets Defining romanticism as experimental and visionary Rothenberg and Robinson feature prose poetry verbal visual experiments and sound poetry along with more familiar forms seen here as if for the first time The anthology also explores romanticism outside the European orbit and includes ethnopoetic and archaeological works outside the literary mainstream The range of volume three and its skewing of the traditional canon illuminate the process by which romantics and post romantics challenged nineteenth century orthodoxies and propelled poetry to the experiments of a later modernism and avant gardism      Lives of the Sonnet, 1787-1895 Marianne Van Remoortel, 2016-05-06 In a series of representative case studies Marianne Van Remoortel traces the development of the sonnet during intense moments of change and stability continuity and conflict from the early Romantic period to the end of the nineteenth century Paying particular attention to the role of the popular press which served as a venue of innovation and as a site of recruitment for aspiring authors Van Remoortel redefines the scope of the genre including the ways in which its development is intricately related to issues of gender Among her subjects are the Della Cruscans and their primary critic William Gifford the young Samuel Taylor Coleridge and his circle Elizabeth Barrett Browning s Sonnets from the Portuguese George Meredith s Modern Love Dante Gabriel Rossetti s House of Life and Augusta Webster s Mother and Daughter As women became a force to be reckoned with among the reading public and the writing community the term sonnet often operated as a satirical label that was not restricted to poetry adhering to the strict formalities of the genre Van Remoortel s study in its attentiveness to the sonnet s feminization during the late eighteenth century offers important insights into the ways in which changing attitudes about gender and genre shaped critics interpretations of the reception histories of nineteenth century sonnet sequences      Elizabeth Barrett Browning: Selected Poems Elizabeth Barrett Browning, 2009-07-30 One of the leading poets of the nineteenth century Elizabeth Barrett Browning had a profound influence on her contemporaries and on writers that followed her This edition provides a rich and varied selection of Barrett Browning s poetry including relatively neglected material from her early career and works never before included in editions of her poetry The edition is comprehensively annotated and includes a critical introduction detailed headnotes for each poem also provide the reader with a deep understanding of the historical biographical and literary contexts in which the poems were written The extensive appendices include reviews and criticism and material on factory reform and slavery as well as religion and the Italian Question Quarterly Bulletin of the Providence Public Library Providence Public Library (R.I.),1916 The Modern Languages Forum ,1929 Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning Mary Sanders Pollock,2016-04-28 First published in 2003 this book examines the creative partnership of Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning and provides a critical analysis of the poems written by this famous couple during the 16 year period of their friendship courtship and marriage Even quite early in their relationship the Brownings shared a frame of reference similar themes narrative structures and details of phrasing resonate in their works and suggest dialogue rather than merely mutual influence Pollock traces parallels between the Brownings lives and works even before they met and then throughout their courtship and married life suggesting that their creative dialogue continued after Barrett Browning died in 1861 as her presence and themes continued to inform Browning s poetry for at least a decade afterward The Athenaeum ,1889 The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Modern Mourning, and the Reinvention of the Mystical Body Laura Wittman,2011-01-01 I slutningen af 1 Verdenskrig indf rte flere krigsf rende lande et nyt hidtil ukendt ritual Kroppen af en anonym soldat d d p slagmarken blev begravet i den ukendte soldats grav for at symbolisere den f lles sorg over slagmarkens voldsomme traumer Ved at unders ge hvordan forskellige lande ofte med vidt forskellig politisk og kulturel baggrund har anvendt Den ukendte Soldat symbolsk h vder forfatteren at der er skabt en ny m de at udtrykke f lles national sorg p The Gendered Lyric Gretchen Schultz,1999 The Gendered Lyric portrays gender as being central to the full appreciation of nineteenth century French poetry Schultz contends that both male and female poets of the major movements relied on sexual difference to define their poetic The Realms of Verse 1830-1870 Matthew Reynolds,2005 Robert and Elizabeth Browning Tennyson and Clough lived and wrote in a time of nation building The Realms of Verse brings that political and intellectual context to life and traces its influence on the narratives language and form of their poetry Theoretically astute and historically detailed this study is the most far reaching reassessment of Victorian poetry to have been published in recent years Biographical Dictionary of Literary Influences John Powell,2000-10-30 Over the past two decades the process of cultural development and in particular the role of reading has been of growing interest but recent research has been episodic and idiosyncratic In this biographical dictionary research devoted specifically to the reading habits of 19th century individuals who shaped Western culture is brought together for the first time While giving prominent coverage to literary and political figures the volume s 270 entries also include musicians painters educators and explorers Each entry includes brief biographical information a concise summary of literary influences on the subject and clear direction for further research The book provides a practical tool for scholars wishing to trace the reading experience of important Western cultural figures Subjects were selected from the people most responsible for the cultural development of Europe Britain and the British Empire and the Americas between 1800 and 1914 Although selective the sample of 270 figures is substantial enough to suggest broad cross cultural habits and effects enabling scholars to better understand the relationship between reading and culture In an introductory essay Powell explores the patterns and relationships that can be discerned from the entries The first of three anticipated volumes the book is an important step forward in researching the role of reading in cultural development     Anthology of Magazine Verse William Stanley Braithwaite, 1923 Vol for 1958 includes Anthology of poems from the seventeen previously published Braithwaite anthologies     Anthology of Magazine Verse for ... ,1923     Mediterranean Heritage (Routledge Revivals) David Fox, 2014-06-17 Mediterranean Heritage first published in 1978 offers a wide ranging and perceptive discussion of the often concealed links between English culture and the common heritage of Western Europe the Graeco Roman legacy of the Mediterranean There seems to have been no time when England has not been in touch with the civilisations of Greece and Italy even Stonehenge the most dramatic survivor of our remotest past has a carved dagger of Mycenaean pattern among its ornaments The pioneers of a distinctly English creative vision Shakespeare Sidney Milton clearly looked to Italy Throughout the eighteenth century grand tourists found southern Europe irresistible The Romantics all became enraptured by the Mediterranean and passed on their fascination in some of the most passionate poetry in English Appearing at a time which England is more obviously a part of Europe than she has been for sixteen hundred years Mediterranean Heritage provides valuable insights into the origins of our culture s greatest achievements     The Oxford Magazine ,1910     Performing National Identity ,2008-01-01 National identity is not some naturally given or metaphysically sanctioned racial or territorial essence that only needs to be conceptualised or spelt out in discursive texts it emerges from takes shape in and is constantly defined and redefined in individual and collective performances It is in performances ranging from the scenarios of everyday interactions to cultural performances such as pageants festivals political manifestations or sports to the artistic performances of music dance theatre literature the visual and culinary arts and more recent media that cultural identity and a sense of nationhood are fashioned National identity is not an essence one is born with but something acquired in and through performances Particularly important here are intercultural performances and transactions and that not only in a colonial and postcolonial dimension where such performative aspects have already been considered but also in inner European transactions Englishness or Britishness and Italianit the subject of this anthology are staged both within each culture and more importantly in joint performances of difference across cultural borders Performing difference highlights differences that make a difference it draws a line between self and other boundary lines that are however constantly being redrawn and renegotiated and remain instable and shifting     MLN. ,1905 Provides image and full text online access to back issues Consult the online table of contents for specific holdings     Modern Language Notes ,1916     Bulletin of the John Rylands Library John Rylands Library, 1922
